Words from the Crown

Greetings Atenveldt,

Though March heralds the coming of spring, it is often a month balanced delicately between reflection and anticipation. As the days grow longer across the Kingdom, We hope that each of you is finding renewed energy in the warming sun and inspiration in the promise of the season ahead. As We approach the later months of Our reign, We continue to reflect with gratitude on the journey thus far, and on the countless individuals who bring life, skill, and heart to Our Kingdom. We remain ever thankful for the warmth, generosity, and steadfast support We receive from the populace, and We consider each of you an integral part of Our extended family.

Over the past month, Our travels and attentions have been drawn both near and far. Many of Our populace journeyed eastward to attend Gulf Wars, where Atenveldt was represented with honor, skill, and camaraderie across many fields and endeavors. From the battlefield to the arts, from service to fellowship, it is always heartening to witness the strength of our Kingdom when we stand among our allies and friends from across the Known World. We thank all who made the journey, and all who supported those efforts from home.

Closer to home, We were pleased to see the competitive and cooperative spirit on display at Border Wars, where fighters, artisans, and volunteers alike came together in shared purpose. These events remind Us that war is not solely about conflict, but about unity, preparation, and the bonds forged through shared labor and shared joy. As always, it is the volunteers—those who marshal, organize, teach, and serve—who make these gatherings possible, and We extend Our sincere appreciation to each of them.

March also brought with it moments of grace and beauty at the Copper Rose Tournament where Our kingdom's newest fighters showcased their abilities. This celebration of courtesy, skill, and pageantry stands as a reminder that honor and inspiration take many forms within the SCA. Whether upon the rapier field, through the presentation of tokens, or in quiet acts of encouragement, the spirit of chivalry was on full display. We thank all who participated and all who labored behind the scenes to bring such elegance and meaning to the day.

As ever, We encourage each member of Our populace to continue seeking opportunities to learn, to teach, and to explore new paths within the Society. Whether your passions lie in combat, the arts, service, or scholarship, every contribution strengthens the whole. Remember Our challenge to discover something new—March has offered many chances, and April will offer many more.

Looking ahead, We eagerly anticipate the events of April and the opportunities they bring for renewed fellowship and shared endeavor. We are greatly looking forward to continuing Our travels throughout the Kingdom, standing beside you on the fields, in the halls, and at the tables where the Dream is made real. The coming month promises both labor and laughter, and We are excited to share it with all of you.

Know that We remain deeply grateful for your dedication, your creativity, and your unwavering spirit. Together, We move forward into spring, strengthened by community and inspired by the path ahead.

With our warmest regards,

The College of St. Felix sends forth a desperate plea to the Kingdom. Long have we labored under the cruel tyranny of Syr Sable and his shadowed minion, Rogue Noir, condemned to the salt mines and ruled without mercy. We call upon brave fighters, skilled artisans, and silver-tongued bards to rise up, answer our plea, and help us reclaim our freedom.

Join us for a full day of valor and defiance as we seek to name the Champions of the Cat. The field will host a heavy weapons tournament to determine the Armored Champion of the Cat, alongside a rapier tournament to crown the Rapier Champion of the Cat. Those whose weapons are words and song are invited to compete for Bard of the Cat in a bring-your-best bardic competition, with preference given to performances mocking Syr Sable, decrying his tyranny, or calling for freedom from his rule. The day will also feature an Arts and Sciences competition for Artisan of the Cat, open to any entry drawn from classes taught during Felician practices. A list of eligible classes will be posted by Lady Marion inghean an Bhaird.

Our youth fighters will have their chance at glory as well, when a fearsome ogre stalks the field, awaiting defeat at the hands of the next generation of heroes.

Sustenance will be available at midday in the form of handmade sausage quiche lunchboxes. Lunches may be pre-purchased or purchased on the day of the event for $7, first-come, first-served.

An auction will be held in support of the cause, cash only, and donations of items for sale are eagerly sought.

Come stand with the College of St. Felix. Lend your strength, your skill, your art, and your voice, and help us cast off the chains of Syr Sable and Rogue Noir, escape the salt mines, and restore freedom to the Cat. The Kingdom is called to rise. Will you answer?

The Kingdom Arts & Sciences office and the Barony of Atenveldt invite you to the Spring 2026 A&S: Meet the Masters!!

At this con-style event we are inviting ALL artisans show your skills by demonstrating an art that you love. Inspire others to join you in that art or science. Artisans are encouraged to have a make and take at their table so that people have the opportunity to experience what you do! The normal style of this event is that artisans stay at their table throughout the day and demonstrate their art while others come by to see what they are working on.

In addition, we are once again hosting the busking competition and invite all bards to participate. We will give tin cups and bards should be working the crowds to get "paid" for their performances. The bard with the most coins will be declared as Busker Extraordinaire.

Along with all the other arts, Their Majesties are challenging the fighters, knights and squires to participate in a game, specifically a Chess Game. While there will be chess boards available for one on one, we would also like to see boards or pieces the fighters made. The "piece de resistance," there will be a live chess game, you will be a chess piece, two players will contest their pieces against each other. Count Thomas and Baroness Kattrra have agreed to assist with the organization and running of the game.

This promises to be most entertaining, so don't miss out. As if this isn't enough fun for the day the new A&S champion will be selected by the heirs at this event. You may enter a separate display, or your demo can be your entry so you don't have to choose one or the other. You must have documentation for either means of entering but only one item, or demo is required.
