EK Thrown Weapons Championship at the Tournament of Daffodils IX, April 25, Canton of Midland Vale (Port Jervis, NY)

As the April rains come to an end and the flowers begin to bloom, The Canton of Midland Vale welcomes all to come embrace the warmth of spring and join in our annual Tournament of Daffodils.

We are happy to announce that we will be hosting East Kingdom Thrown Weapons Champs at the Tournament of Daffodils! the tournament format will be posted here soon!

As is tradition the Tournament of Daffodils is gallery choice, everyone who comes to the event will be given a flower to present to the fighter (Heavy or Fencing) they found the most inspiring that day. We will have both a Heavy and a Fencing Champion.

The Site is fully outdoors please bring your own seating, pop-ups and pavilions are encouraged

Heavy Fighting:

Daffodils Speed Tournaments. We will start the day with a Roman Melee and the winner will choose a new tournament type and we will continue from there.

Any type of tournament will be accepted (Round Robin, Warlord, Spear, Single Sword) if we can facilitate it we will run it! Please bring your favorite weapons and bring your extra weapons, the more we have the more fun stuff we can do!

Melee/Unbelts:

Depending on our numbers we would like to run some Melee scenarios / Drills after the tournaments. Members of the unbelt team leadership will be in attendance so I encourage everyone to attend

Fencing:

The "Wait and See" Open Tournament In the true spirit of Eastern adaptability, the format for our primary rapier tournament will be determined by the numbers. * A massive Round Robin?

Classic Double Elimination?

A chaotic "Warlord" style? Show up and find out! The more fencers we have, the more glorious the carnage.

The Shenanigans:

Because a tournament without a little mischief is just a practice, expect the following diversions throughout the day:

The "Dagger of Destiny" Melee:
A secondary side-bout where the only legal weapon is a parrying dagger. Short, fast, and ridiculous.

The Gambler's Challenge:
Want to jump the line? Challenge an opponent to a "Mystery Condition" bout (blindfolded? one leg? reciting poetry?)

The Experimental Cut & Thrust:
Polearms & Spears: Calling all those who like their steel with a bit of reach! We are hosting an Experimental Cut & Thrust Tournament specifically for Polearms and Spears. Requirements: All participants must meet the current East Kingdom experimental C&T requirements for long-handled weapons. The Goal: To test technique, distance, and the efficacy of the "pointy end" at range.

Youth Combat:
We will have youth marshals at the event, activities will depend on the numbers we get

Registration fees:
Adult: $35 Pre Reg $40 At Gate
(Member: $25 Pre Reg $30 At Gate)
Youth <18: Free

Combatants will be prepared to give a short declaration of how their consort inspires them.

This is the most important tournament in the East Kingdom, it is important to fall down when you die.

No Spears, Madus or thrown weapons will be allowed in the tournament in any round. In this case, a Madu is defined as a weapon combining any type of shield/buckler with at least a thrusting tip. Sword and other off hand weapon ie. axe is fine, other exceptions may apply.

The format shall be pools until the 16. The pools will be fought with great weapons.

Once we have the top 16 it will be double elimination bring your best until the semi-finals.

Semi-finals will be best of 3 rotating weapons forms. A combatant from the winner's list will be paired with a combatant from the loser's list. The combatant from the loser's list must win twice. The combatant coming out of the winner's list must win once. The combatant from the winner's list will pick the first form.

Finals will be best of 7.
Finalists shall be heralded into the list.
First round will be the Queen's choice.
Rounds 2 and 3 will be chosen by the combatants' consorts, with the consort of the combatant losing the first bout picking the form for the 2nd bout. The other consort will pick the form for the 3rd bout.
The loser of the 3rd and subsequent bouts will pick the weapons form for the next bout, rotating weapons with no form repeating.
Combatants may choose to repeat weapons from the Queens and Consorts choices though.
If the fights go to 7, the 7th bout will be fought with Dane axes.
