King and Queen
crown@outlands.org

Good people of the Outlands,

With uncertainty surrounding us in the mundane world, it has been refreshing and heartening to attend events within and without the Kingdom in the past weeks to remind Us of kind hearts, kindred spirits, and wonderful humanity of the populace of the Outlands and shared community throughout the Known World. To experience a world of interpersonal interaction is refreshing and rejuvenating in contrast to an online world that may sometimes be overwhelming.

If you would like to spend some time with your friends and are interested in the arts and sciences, or just curious, please join Us in the Shire of White Mountain on March 28th for Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition and Queens Prize. Just as Our fighters hone their skills on the tournament field, so should Our artisans come together to demonstrate their excellence. If the combat field is where one can display martial prowess in grand tournaments, here is where Our artisans can show their knowledge and craftsmanship. We both take deep joy in arts and research and greatly look forward to celebrating, sharing, and recognizing the vast artistic talents this Kingdom possesses!

Looking further into this year with almost no winter, spring approaches quickly, and in April We will hold Our Crown Tournament in the Barony of Aarquelle to determine Our successors. We hope that all who read this missive will join Us if able. For the entrants, Crown Tournament is an opportunity to test their prowess and display their chivalry as they honor their consorts in a tournament setting unlike any other. For the populace, Crown is an opportunity to come together and witness the future of the Kingdom unfold. We are excited for all Our populace to join Us as We welcome Our heirs to Our side. The requirements for entrants are listed in Kingdom Law, one of which is that letters of intent shall be submitted to the official Kingdom email addresses of both the Crown (crown@outlands.org) and the Kingdom Seneschal (seneschal@outlands.org) by the submission date – in this case April 5th. Letters of intent should fulfill all of the requirements listed in Kingdom Law and in addition, We would also ask that each letter include a list of events that the fighter and consort have attended in the past year.

Hrothgar

Words from the Officers

From the Kingdom Seneschal:

Greetings Outlanders,

We are looking forward to Gulf Wars and Kingdom A&S in March. In April we will be hosting Virtual StagsCon and Spring Crown Tournament. For those of you who don't know, StagsCon is a service event. There will be classes on what officers need to know, and for those who are not officers, what kind of offices there are. This year, we will be hosting five different rooms; one for Seneschals, one for Exchequers, one related to the Marshallet, one for Social Media and the Webministry, and one for the Chatelain and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. If you have any questions we will have one room open for general chat. Everyone is welcome to this free virtual event.

I will be stepping down May 8. Mistress Aldyth will be taking up the reigns of the Kingdom after me. Please welcome her into the Seneschal position. I know she will do a great job.

In service,
Christine Woyade

From the White Stag Principal Herald:

Greetings unto the Outlands!

I'm a month late in saying it, but thank you to everyone who attended, taught, and volunteered at vKWHSS in January! I couldn't be happier with how it went, and I'm immensely grateful to everyone who helped make it into the success it was.

I am officially opening the office of Gimlet Herald for bids. Duchess Anna is a credit to the Outlands and the College of Heraldry is indebted to her years of dedicated and unwavering service, but the time has come to pass the office on to someone else. Gimlet is the Kingdom herald for ceremonies and protocol. They maintain the Book of Ceremonies (the standard texts for ceremonies) and assist with writing ceremonies for Coronation, Baronial Investitures, Peerage ceremonies, and any other activities of ceremonial import. They also advise on matters of protocol and serve as the first point of contact for inquiries about the history of ceremonial activities of the Crown and Kingdom as well as other questions related to the how's and the why's of ceremonies and protocol. The position requires about 10 hours per month. Candidates should have:

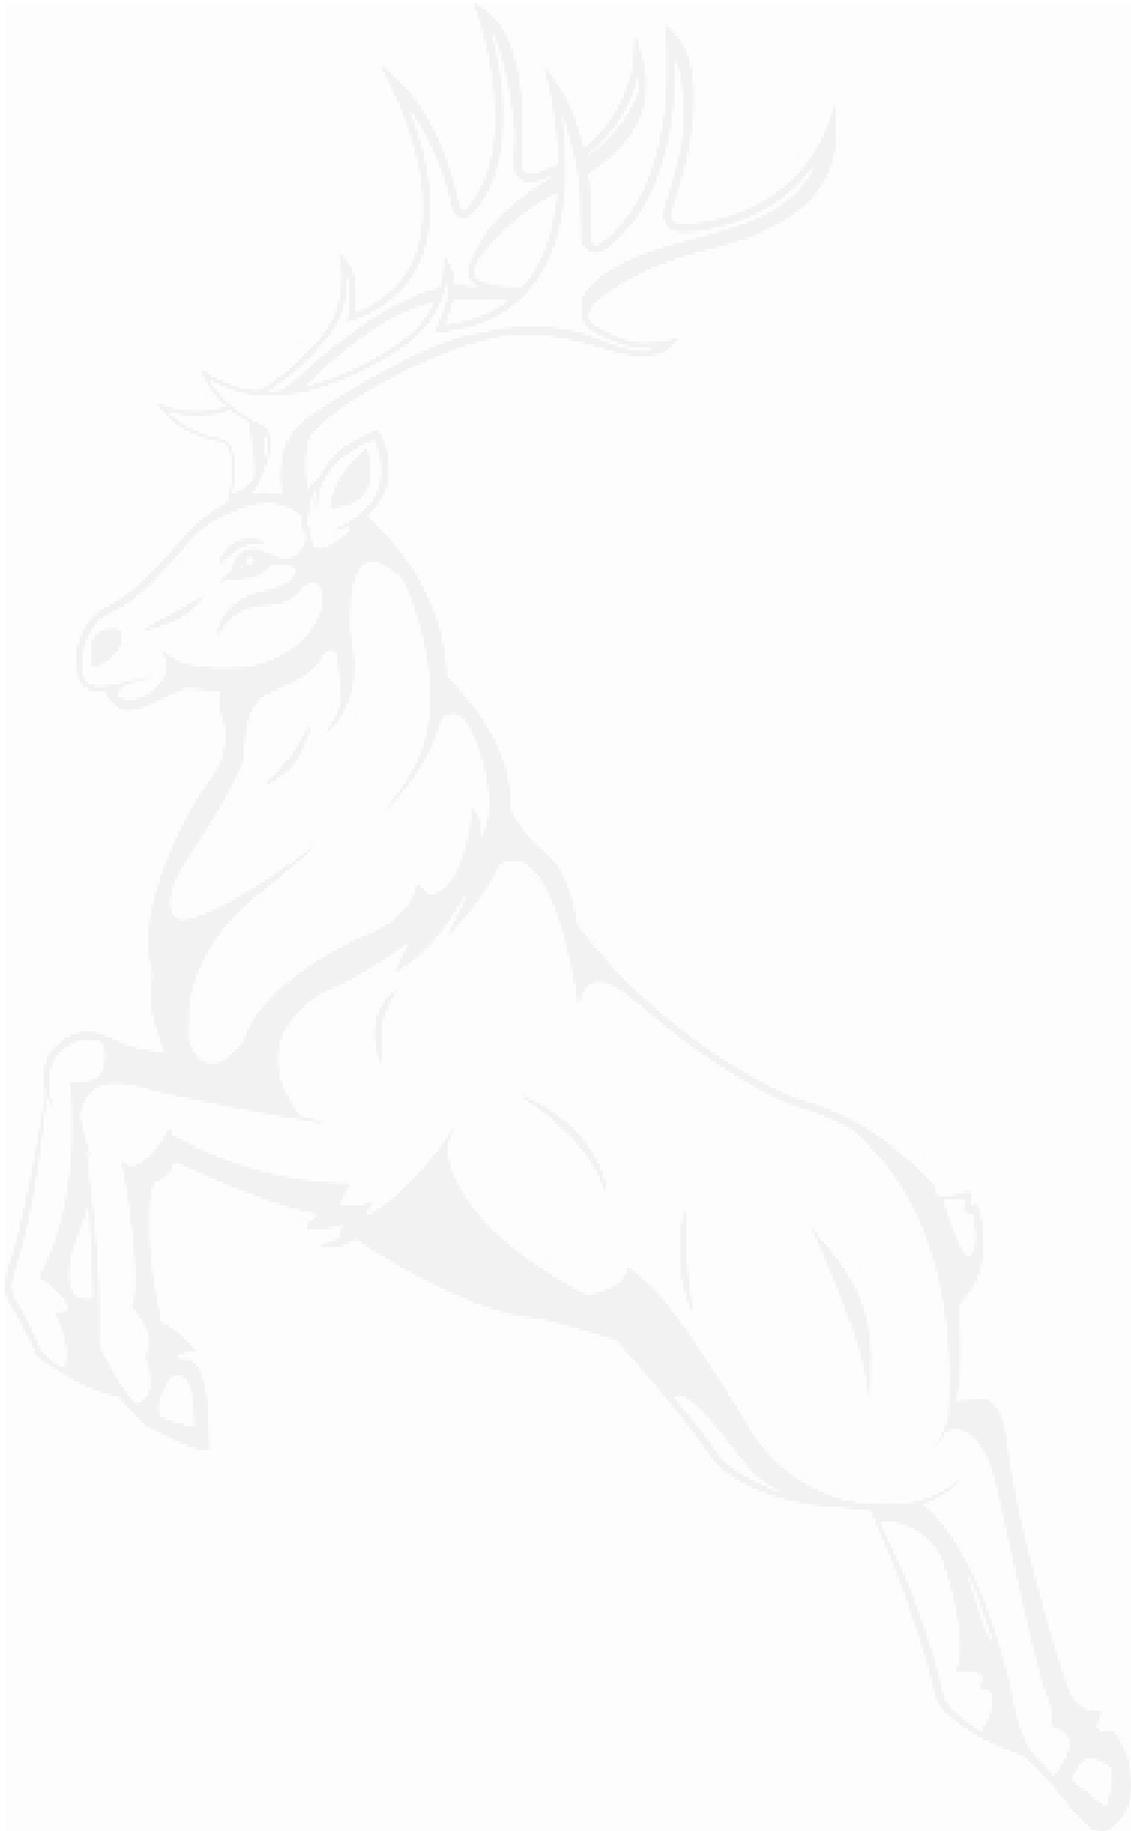

- ◆ Good communication skills
- ◆ A working knowledge of Outlands customs
- ◆ A passion for the ceremonial aspects of our game

If you are interested in the role, please email whitestag@outlands.org with a brief outline of your qualifications for the position (specifically highlighting previous heraldic positions held and experience with ceremonies and protocol) and an explanation of why you are applying.

Finally, if you will be at Gulf Wars later this month, I encourage you to swing by Heraldry's Point to either work on getting your name and device registered or, if you're interested in learning more about heraldry, taking a consulting shift! Gulf Wars runs a full-service table, which means you can do your entire consult and submission on-site, including payment; no need to take paperwork home to submit. If you're nervous about volunteering and/or talking to heralds about getting your items registered, I'm more than happy to accompany you and introduce you to all the friendly and helpful heralds present!
