Words from Their Majesties

Dearest Artemisia

Letting winter slip away and welcoming the spring, we want to first send our warmest appreciate and deepest gratitude to Yuri and Sumaya. Thank you for your time, talent, and expertise. Your fierce loyalty and devotion to Artemisia is felt by all, far and wide. Your gentle hearts and strong leadership have paved the way as we surge toward summer and a steady stream of opportunities to unite and celebrate with our loved ones throughout the land.

Snuggling next to campfires, dancing under the stars, falling asleep to bardic performances, and everything that comes with summertime events are on the horizon. It is time to haul out the yurt, sweep off the rugs, and break out the (turkey) bacon!

Combatants and Consorts, if you are planning on entering Crown Tournament, there are a few items you must prepare for. Look in this newsletter for more information on requirements such as a hard copy letter of intent to Us by the listed due date. This does not have to be complicated, but it must be in our hands and not electronic. Feel free to be creative. Share your pageantry and celebrate with us as we await heirs to the throne. Will you be the next Crown of Artemisia?

Artisans, Kingdom Arts & Sciences is fast approaching. Are your projects completed? Documentation checked and double checked? We enthusiastically await the breadth of skill and knowledge; and for those attending your first Kingdom Arts & Sciences, prepare to be awe struck. This is an opportunity to witness master creations, concepts of future master creations, failed attempts and a brilliant amount of learning and growth from those attempts. Open your minds and share in the experience. And don't be afraid to bring tokens of appreciation to leave at the displays as a thank you for such hard work and dedicated to the beauty of our society.

Bards, it is once again your time to shine! Poor Aslak the Awesome.... Er... Aweful, has sadly reached the end of his tenure as Bard of Artemisia, and will be sharing details on what is required to take on the challenge and possibly step in as the newest Bard of Artemisia, also held at Kingdom Arts & Sciences. Watch for the announcements and warm up those performing chops. We can't wait to enjoy the many tales and talents.

As ever, We are grateful for the joy you all bring to these lands. Enjoy the thaw, experience the spring, and join Us on a journey of rediscovery. It is time to shake off the dust.

We are ONE Artemisia!

Random Carp that I have Learned

A look at modern practices and their medieval sources

by K. Braden von Sobernheim

William Blackfox Award Winner A.S. 54
William Blackfox Award Commendation A.S. 49
William Blackfox Award Honorable Mention A.S. 50, 51

Electric shock therapy. What a great Greek invention! Ancient Greeks used electric rays to help numb pain during operations and childbirth. If you think that is an oddity, understand how it was accomplished: The patient would have to lie or sit on the head of a live black torpedo fish, better known as an electric ray. These fish can put out as much as 200 volts. A Roman Emperor's gout was claimed to be cured by stepping on one, and headaches were cured by pressing one to your head. Then there was Dioscorides, who used electric fish to treat rectal prolapse. Hmm. Now you know more random (shocking) carp.

A Challenge from the Gold Wing

A Challenge from the Golden Wing Principal Herald

Greetings everyone! I would like to run a little competition between the groups of the Kingdom for the next few months.

Between March 1 and June 1, the local group with the most heraldic submissions (or re-submissions) submitted through their local herald sent up and out to Society will get a silk pennant (22"x90") manufactured by myself decorated with the group arms to fly at events.

You don't have a local Herald? Then it would be in your best interest to have one! Letters of Interest should be sent to myself (principal-herald@artemisia.sca.org) as well as your local Seneschal and local Baronage if applicable.

In Service I remain,

-Braden
