From the East Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of the East,

I know we have many skilled photographers and artisans in the East and I would love the opportunity to showcase your work to the Knowne World (yes, anyone can see our newsletters online).

From the Kingdom Officers

I have spoken with a few photographers and they have been gracious enough to allow me to use their photos on the cover of this newsletter. I am always looking for more, though, so if you would like your photos to have a chance of making it onto a future cover, please send me an email granting this office permission to use your photos and post anything you feel meets your own standards in the unofficial Facebook Group called "East Kingdom Photography".

Original works of art are always welcomed as well! If your talents lie in this area, please feel free to email your work to me noting that you grant permission to use that work on the cover of a Pikestaff.

On a different note, I have had a chance to fully review the 'rules' of my office, I would like to remind all Chroniclers serving Baronies and Provinces that your groups require a newsletter and that an electronic courtesy copy to my office is required (quarterly at a minimum). A paper and electronic courtesy copy sent to the Society Archivist is also required. There are several groups from whom I have not received copies since April, when I took office. Full details can be found here: <https://chronicler.eastkingdom.org/localpolicies/index.htm> - also see the second box on the right!

Emails have now been sent to all groups who are not meeting the requirements of the Chronicler position, with a copy to their Seneschal.

Waking of the Salamander II April 21-23, Barony of Bhakail (Media, PA)

Each spring, as the temperatures warm over the ever-lengthening day, the Salamander awakes from its dormancy and emerges from its burrow to bask in the light of the sun and marvel at the fresh and green world! The Barony of Bhakail too is ready to leave its winter torpor behind and encourages all to wake and enjoy a weekend of cooking over the open flame, basking in the light of the spring sun, and learning new skills to take into the summer months!

The Barony welcomes all to demonstrate their knowledge of and participate in outdoor activities such as fire starting and tending, firing pottery in an open fire, foraging, and more, culminating in the first ever Chicken Smithing Competition! Do you have what it takes to be Waking of the Salamander's Chicken Smithing Competition Winner? Food Smithing Competition (planned for Saturday and on-going throughout the day):

- Competitors can make any food, but most of the dish should be cooked on site.
- Competitors will be asked to explain their cooking techniques and demonstrate to onlookers.
- Competitors should provide tasting portions of the food for the competition.
- A full ingredients list is required.
- Cooks will be given a $20 stipend to reimburse them for expenses/supplies (limited to the first 10 cooks to sign up).
- Food portions will be a running dayboard through the day on Saturday.

Chickensmithing, by the way, is a tongue in cheek, very local colloquialism. Imagine a cook smashing a chicken with a smithing hammer. Yes, that kind of thing. There is no requirement that your food be chicken and there is no requirement that your food be period. We are looking for you to show off your outdoor cooking skills over an open fire, whether than fire be at a fire pit, over a charcoal grill, or otherwise. Show us your skills and feed us!

Further details will be forthcoming. Please pre-register with the event steward, Taichleach Eoganacht at 258215@members.eastkingdom.org.

Planned Arts and Science Classes:

Outdoor cooking techniques; Fire starting and tending; Foraging for local plants; Firing pottery on an open fire; Embroidery involving flora & fauna; Demonstration of apothecary arts/discussion of natural insect repellents & balms; Children's activities & games; Other outdoor arts & sciences.

Classes will be very casual and encourage conversations between onlookers and demonstrators. Further details will be forthcoming. Classes will be held in Pavilion 11-A, which is just a short walk from the main campground area.

Court will be held at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday.

There are no planned tournaments. If there are any interested combatants, we welcome fighting demonstrations geared toward newcomers trying new things as well as workshops for mending, cleaning, and caring for gear, assuming marshal availability.

There will be camping Friday and Saturday night. The park closes at sundown. Once sundown comes, you cannot get into or leave the park. Specific times will be updated. Guests should bring food to cook and share for Friday night, breakfast each day, and any supplemental food in addition to the cooking competition food available throughout the day on Saturday. There is no "formal" dayboard or feast.

YOU DO NOT NEED TO CAMP TO PARTICIPATE! Gate will open at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday morning for daily attendees!

Dogs are welcome in the park during daytime hours (not overnight) and on leash at all times.

Alcoholic beverages are prohibited.

Balfar's Challenge April 29, Barony of Dragonship Haven (Guilford, CT)

It's that time of year again to preparing for War as the first melee event of the year approaches. Spring time always brings happy images of flowers and sunshine after a long winter but it also awakens the great white polar bear. Gather your teammates and prepare for a day of martial competition at Balfar's Challenge as Duke Balfar von Grunwald once again challenges you to bring your prowess to the field of battle.

Note this is the same site as last year, but it is still a bit shiny and new to us!

Martial Activities:

Three person teams with cool names please! (Balfar and others will be reading team names in court, so be wary!) Martial activities will include archery, armored combat, youth combat, fencing and thrown weapons.

Archery Rules:

Teams of 3 are encouraged for participation in the overall Challenge. Individual archers may still attend to compete for fun. Each team of 3 shall consist of the following criteria: At least 1 archer ranked as Bowman or below (RR average of 69.99 or under) and Only ONE of the following: Master Bowman, Grandmaster Bowman, or Sagittarius Archers who are unranked are on their honor to rank themselves according to their all-time highest score submission. If an archer has not actively shot within the last 5 years, they shall automatically be counted among "Bowman or below".

We encourage everyone to make arrangements in advance to find archers who fit into the team structure above. If anyone needs assistance in formulating a team in advance, the Unofficial East Kingdom Archery Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/174471427110407/>) may be a good resource for you to meet the community and make new archery friends!

Arts & Sciences Heraldic Challenge:

Spring has come, and art is still alive. Come enter the annual heraldic challenge. Make any piece you want that integrates heraldry. It does not have to be your own heraldry. Winners will be selected for the complexity of the item, the best integration of the heraldry, and the best overall. Documentation is not required, but a picture of the original heraldry must accompany the item.

For newcomers who want to visit Balfar's Challenge:

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA)(www.sca.org) is an international non-profit volunteer educational organization. The SCA is devoted to the research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century skills, arts, combat, culture, and employing knowledge of history to enrich the lives of participants through events, demonstrations, and other educational presentations and activities.

Members of the SCA study and take part in a variety of activities, including combat, archery, equestrian activities, costuming, cooking, metalwork, woodworking, music, dance, calligraphy, fiber arts, and much more. If it was done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance, odds are you'll find someone in the SCA interested in recreating it.

Balfar's Challenge is an outdoor event hosted yearly by the Barony of Dragonship Haven, focusing on historic martial skills. The event features a myriad of opportunities to engage with the "Middle Ages as they should have been" including: competitions in archery, armored combat, fencing, and thrown weapons; vendors of costuming and medieval recreations; a delicious buffet befitting a medieval tourney day; and capped off with a Royal Court.

Many of us shop at Amazon for a wide range of products. Did you know that the SCA can benefit from each purchase you make at no additional charge to you?

Here's how: Go to smile.amazon.com. Sign into your account and a "pop up" page will appear. On the right side of the page, at the bottom is a "search" window. Type in: Society for Creative Anachronism and click the search button. Click on the top one and you are done. Your donations will be automatic for any purchase within the Amazon Smile program (which is most merchandise).

Amazon donates 0.5% of each purchase to the non-profit organizations of your choice and the Society for Creative Anachronism is one of those organizations. This is a painless way to support the SCA.
