Judicial duel between Marshal Wilhelm von Dornsberg and Theodor Haschenacker in the Augsburg wine market (1409). Dornsberg's sword broke early in the duel, but he succeeded to kill Haschenacker with this gentleman's own sword. Their shields were kept in St. Leonard's Church outside of Augsburg until it was destroyed in 1542. - Bayrische Staatsbibliothek Cod. icon. 393

Beloved Outlands,

The month of April brings a most joyous occasion, Outlands Spring Crown Tournament. We look forward to visiting the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable and witnessing great feats of valor and acts of chivalry as Our heirs present themselves.

Know that We will begin accepting letters of intent on the First Day of Spring, and that no consideration will be given to entrants who do not submit their desire to vie for the Stag Throne after April 9th. In addition to those requirements listed in Kingdom Law, We expect that Our combatants and consorts provide a description of their undertakings, accomplishments, and travels over the past four seasons.

Regarding the Relative Authority of Kingdom and Local Officers

In 2021 some confusion arose in the Outlands regarding the relative authority of different kingdom offices, and more so of their local counterparts. In particular, there was confusion about the roles and responsibilities of the seneschal and the exchequer.

This resulted in a Society investigation into the matter. The results of that investigation, as with all society investigations, regarding individuals are confidential. However, there was one repeated theme from this investigation that needs to be addressed.

It seems that many people are under the misconception that if there is a perceived conflict among SCA or kingdom rules or policies, the seneschal's interpretation is always the correct one. The investigator and others were repeatedly told by those contacted that 1) it was the job of the seneschal, at any level, to interpret all Society rules, including those policies of other offices, and 2) that the seneschal's interpretations could not be questioned, even by an officer at a higher level in a different sphere of authority.

These statements are incorrect. There is nothing in Corpora or any of the SCA's policies or governing documents that supports this notion. Corpora states, in I.A.3, Precedence of Law, the following partial order, below By-laws and Corporate Policies:

- c. The Corpora of the Society
- d. Society Officers' Policies approved by the Board
- e. Kingdom Law (within the kingdom that enacts it)
- f. Decision of the Crown (within the kingdom and for the duration of the current reign)

Notably absent from that list is any mention of kingdom or local officer policies. Note that point (d) simply says "Society Officers' Policies approved by the Board." This means any Society officer. It does not set one above another. Sections VI and VII of Corpora also denote the specific responsibilities of Society officers and required Kingdom Great Officers, and do not include a hierarchy of authority. Corpora does specify that the kingdom seneschal is responsible for "coordinating the other kingdom officers as required for the smooth operation of the kingdom" but that does not mean the kingdom seneschal is the manager of the other great officers.

Further, Corpora VII.A.1, Kingdom, Principality, and Local Officers—General, states:

Officers assist Royalty in the administration of the lands and branches of the realm. Each officer has a specific area of specialization, and a defined geographic scope.

Within those bounds, an officer coordinates branch activities, and may supervise deputies or lesser officers. (Emphasis added.)

This means local and kingdom officers must focus on decisions that fall within their area of responsibility: The knight marshal should not apply heraldic rules, and the local seneschal is not authorized to apply exchequer rules. All the officers need to work together, each within their own area of authority/expertise, to ensure the smooth running of the kingdom and its branches.

In conclusion: Where questions of interpretation of officer policies arise, local officers have no authority to interpret any kingdom or Society policy. Questions regarding the meaning/interpretation of a policy or rule must be taken to the relevant Kingdom officer. If the Kingdom officers believe that a conflict exists between kingdom rules or procedures, they should attempt to work it out for themselves as equal partners with different areas of responsibility. If they cannot resolve the conflict, or if they believe there is a conflict between Society policies (such as between something in the Society Exchequer's policies and the policies of the Society Seneschal) those Kingdom officers would then approach the two Society officers and ask for clarification.

Deputies and Officer Staff

From the Kingdom Seneschal:

Greetings Outlanders,

We are moving forward with plans for the summer and Battlemoor! Our new Seneschal Team is in training and it is looking like we will have lots to look forward to this Summer.

In this month's OH there is a letter from the Society Seneschal. I do not want to interpret her words, so if you have any questions or comments, please write the Society Seneschal at Seneschal@sca.org.

Additionally, we are still looking for officers. We are looking for the following Kingdom Positions:

Exchequer
North / South Exchequer Deputy
Chatelain
Social Media
North/ South Social Media Deputy
Media Officer
Youth Officer

If you have any interest, please reach out to me at Seneschal@outlands.org

I am looking forward to the summer.

Until Next Time

Christine
Outlands Seneschal

From the Diversity Equity and Inclusion Office:

Greetings unto the noble populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands!

For those of you who don't know me, hello! My name is Hardwin Godricson, from the barony of al-Barran, and I am the new Kingdom Diversity, Equity and Inclusion officer. My pronouns are he/them, and I am a proud queer transman.

This being a new office, I am considered a lesser officer under the seneschallate of the Outlands as we build up our DEI 'department'.

Having been involved with various issues and causes relating to diversity since I was a young man, I feel very strongly about DEI. What does DEI mean, especially in the context of the SCA?

Wikipedia defines DEI as: "a conceptual framework that seeks to promote the fair treatment and full participation of all people, especially in the workplace, including populations who have historically been under-represented or subject to discrimination because of their background, identity, disability, etc."

While the SCA is not a workplace by this definition, we are a large, diverse and interesting society, with people from all backgrounds, ethnicities, genders and more. This, I feel, is what makes us so great as a group. Everyone is different, everyone has something to offer, and everyone has the chance to learn more about themselves and others in a welcoming environment.

That said, we cannot erase the fact that in the past, various cultures, identities, genders and even sexualities have been discriminated against, both in the mundane world and in the Society. Some of this is due to educational failing, which is not usually intentional. Some of this is due to not being able to access proper materials and research. Some of it is just plain ignorance, with some people not wanting to further better themselves. And even occasionally, this is due to malice, where one says things with the intention of hurting someone.

I have been very lucky- in my barony and kingdom, I have never felt threatened, unsafe, or discriminated against. In fact, I could even say that I know without a doubt that the Outlands has been nothing but welcoming and kind to me, and others like me -regardless of where we fall in the diversity umbrella.

There are always chances to improve, learn, and be better as a whole - and that's where I come in. My job is to continue to help foster a welcoming and safe environment for anyone - those who have been playing for years and years, and those who have just joined us for their first event ever. But I can't do it alone!

If your group (whether its a shire, canton, college or barony) has a DEI officer, please have them contact me at dei@outlands.org, so that we can get them warranted as 'my' deputies. I can also be reached at the phone number listed below. If you are wanting to become the DEI officer/representative for your group, please have your seneschal contact me as well.

Finally, we will also be creating a kingdom wide committee that will assist myself and the other officers in building and fostering DEI in the Outlands. If you are interested in this, please email me with "DEI Committee" in the subject line, and a few lines about why you would like to join.

For either cause, you can also find me on Facebook as Christian AG Brillante, on Discord at deserttransman#2272, or via text/phone at 575-312-6683 (please no calls or texts after 10 pm).

Thank you for reading this rather long missive, and please feel free to reach out to me even if it's to chat! I am here to serve you, the kingdom and populace. I look forward to where we will go in the future!

Yours in Service,

From the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Ministry:

Greetings to the people of our fair Outlands!

Spring is coming and arts and sciences are in full bloom! April 1 marks our first in-person Kingdom Arts and Sciences Tournament since we were separated by Covid. It is also Her Royal Majesty Sabiha's Queen's Prize with a theme of miniature. I can't wait to see the amazing works of our artisans and scientists! I truly appreciate those who enter, judge, display, and help to run arts and sciences competitions and thank them for their contributions.

Secondly, Battlemoor approaches! If you have a class you want to teach, fill out the form at <https://forms.gle/zAAxhTcsFrMbMc648>. Everyone has something to share and others are eager to learn.

Pennsic War is also on the horizon. If you are a brewer interested in a special project for Pennsic, please contact me.

Finally, the Royal Outlands Interkingdom University (ROIU) welcomes Master Timothy O'Brien to the board of regents. As the current members of the board have been serving for years and wish to retire, new members are needed. If you are interested in helping to organize classes within the kingdom, contact any member of the board or me to learn more and apply.

Thank you all for your hard work in helping the arts and sciences flourish!

In Service,
Marion Forester

From the Chatelaine:

Greeting Outlanders.

My time as Kingdom Chatelaine is coming to an end and it is time for new energy. The Kindom Chatelaine is the point of contact for people who inquire about the SCA on the kingdom website, a liaison between the Kingdom, local group chatelaines and the Society, and a general champion for the growth of the Kingdom.

If you are interested in serving our Kingdom in this capacity, please send your letter of intent to the Kingdom senechal at senechal@outlands.org by May 1st, 2023.

It is my hope that we continue our Outland's Welcome and introduce ourselves to people we don't know, welcome and invest in our newcomers, be creative in the ways that we connect with our communities, and practice the hospitality that is the value of a noble society.

In Service,

Alexander MacAndrew

From the Kingdom Web Minister:

Hail Outlands!

My term as Kingdom Webminister has come to an end, and I wanted to share a few accomplishments and thank yous. In the 3 years and 9 months of my time in the Web Ministry we have had some great challenges, but we as a Kingdom adapted and overcame them. The Society Webminister handbook was released in February of this year after a 10+ year wait, and I take pride in the work in helping that process complete. Kingdom officers adopted more tools that we provided for reporting and communication, we migrated a number of groups off of third party hosting to the Kingdom web server, we were able to recover a number of lost domains back to the Kingdom, and with the hard work of Sir Ronan na f-fiagal mac Connail and THL Bernardo dei Medici we were able to deliver the Stags App to the Kingdom for the first generation phone app, which will grow to add more functionality over time. I wish to give name fame to the following good gentles who aided me in my time as Kingdom Webminister; Lord Reynard des Roches was a huge dependable help on the Royal Outlands Interkingdom University and the Outlands Arts & Sciences Portal, Lady Brónach O Crowley was a lifesaver whenever I had need for random heraldic artwork for projects, and THL Bernardo dei Medici besides doing a huge part of the Stags App was also a trusted advisor and aide on special projects. Lord Ulric of Thorne, Sir Kaleriia Andronikova, and HE Mlodn the Merchant thank you all for being there and your reports. Lastly, thank you to Graf Iohann der Vuhs for answering the call to service and taking on the responsibility of the office of Webminister. Please be as kind and patient with him as you were with me. I look forward to working with Graf Iohann as a step down deputy, assisting with the Kingdom Webminister handbook and in any other means that I can help serve. The Kingdom is in very capable hands.

Servus humillimus,
Maese Carlos Nieto de Andrade, OD

Unto all good people of the Outlands, Iohann sends greetings!

Technology is an amplification tool full of promise. An engaging, accessible web experience expands the reach of a local group's message. Electronic tracking, coordination, and archiving tools reduce the time burden on volunteers. Seamless integration between services makes it easier to recommend a worthy person for an award or follow up with a newcomer.

Stepping into the role of Kingdom Web Minister, I look forward to exploring how the Office of Web Ministry can help improve all of these things, and many more. I bring a career of building robust online experiences for public and private, for- and non-profit organizations to the position and am excited for the opportunity to apply that background to the unique needs of our kingdom.

Technology starts with people. I look forward to your ideas, your contributions, your willingness to engage in new possibilities. Please feel free to reach out to me at webminister@outlands.org with questions, thoughts, or interest in joining the Web Ministry at any level.

Let us work together to discover how we can leverage technology to build an online image that matches the spirit of the Outlands.

In service to the Stag,

Graf Iohann
Kingdom Web Minister

Join us for our annual martial champions event on Saturday, April 29th, 2023. This event will be held in Mineral Palace Park, on the same spot we have our weekly Combat Practice. We will have tournaments to choose our First Spear (armored combat champion), and our Blade (rapier champion). The site opens at 9:00. Tournaments will begin with First Spear at 11:00. Blade will follow that. There is no cost for this event, but we will be accepting brass bowl donations to help offset the cost of the Porta-John.

Directions:

Take I-25 to Pueblo, and use exit 99B-- 13th Street Exit. Head west on 13th Street, and turn right (north) at the first stoplight. Mineral Palace Park will be right in front of you. The event is in the western part of the park.

Spring is here! The flowers push through the earth, the trees are beginning to be flush with leaves, The sun warms us with longer days. This is a time for renewal and growth. As with all things, this is a necessary process. Once again, it is time for renewal and growth in the Barony of Dragonsspine. We would invite one and all to join us in viewing the Investiture of Master Turlough and Mistress Adelasia as the new Baron and Baroness of Dragonsspine!

To celebrate this occasion there will be (weather permitting) both an Armored Combat tournament, and a Rapier Tournament. There will also be a Scroll blank competition as well as a Largesse Derby! If this were not enough, we will also be having Court Dancing!

Join the Shire of Bryngolau to celebrate the 58th anniversary of the SCA and to honor the memory of two great members of the Shire and the Outlands. For Mistress Theresa Yolanda Cabeza de Vaca we will host a light weapons tournament. Our heavy weapons tourney will be in memory of Lord Gunnarr 'Basil' Langskeggr.

We will also have a Maypole dance, food, games and, hopefully, live music. And don't forget the fun and frivolity, both staples on the Shining Hill!

Directions:

Get to Los Alamos by the most convenient method. From the east follow NM502 past the airport onto Trinity Dr. and through 4 traffic lights. Turn right onto Diamond Dr. at the hospital (this is a large intersection).

From the west (Jemez Mts) turn left onto West Rd (Pajarito Ski Hill) just before the security checkpoint to avoid crossing Lab property.

Follow Diamond for ~3 miles. When you are passing the golf course get into the left-hand lane. Go through
