From the Crown...

Hail and well met Gleann Abhann!

First and foremost, thank you one and all for volunteering and making Gulf Wars such a huge success this year. Gleann Abhann really showed out and YOU are to thank for it. From the classes, to the fighting, to the dancing and beyond! We would be remiss by not mentioning the Social and various parties and refreshments at tournaments. A great time seemed to be had by all!

We would like to thank the Barony of Axemoor for hosting Our Coronation. What a day it was. The activities were outstanding and the feast was so very good! Everything seemed to go off flawlessly. Congratulations to His Grace, James the Holy, who is now the King's Champion. Thank you Your Grace for having Our backs!

Letters of intent are now being accepted for Crown List. Just fill out the online Crown List application form (after reading the required documents and determining your eligibility). It's that easy. If you have any questions just send Us an email at crown@gleannabhann.net.

We look forward to seeing each of you in the coming months, as it warms Our hearts to spend time with Our beloved Populace. Bids are being accepted by the TOC committee to host TOC for this year. Last year's tourney day was one of the best tournament events We have seen in a very, very long time.

Let's do that again!

In service to Our glorious Kingdom and Her Populace,

Connor & Dinara

A Missive from the Kingdom Seneschal

A Missive from the Topaz Herald

Jam Recarediz, Topaz Herald, sends greetings.

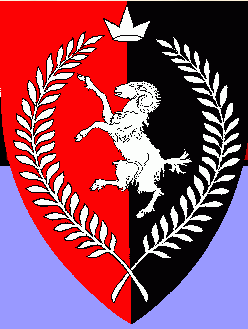

I have now been in office one year. The time has therefore come for a deputy to be chosen, with the intent that this person succeed to the role when my term is over. To that end, applications should be submitted to topaz@gleannabhann.net no later than May 31, 2023.

The Topaz Herald's responsibilities include performing an inventory on scrolls in the scroll case or ensuring that inventory is performed periodically, maintaining and distributing the supply of pre-printed scrolls so they may be painted, and contacting scribes to ensure that champions' scrolls are available for each reign. It is not a requirement for the Topaz Herald to be a scribe; however, familiarity with the Gleann Abhann scribal community and with the award structure of the Kingdom is a great asset to this position. Another requirement of this job is to have access to a laser printer to print scrolls.

Applications should include a statement of interest, contact information including mundane and Society names, and a brief résumé showing relevant mundane and/or Society experience.

Master Jam Recarediz

Gulf Wars

XXXI

A new year and the new owners of Kings

Arrow Ranch brought the Ram Army and the populace back to Gulf Wars. With more people in attendance than in the Covid years, war was more exciting, battles were larger, and the parties lasted longer.

King Axel and Sultan Jacquette opened war Tuesday morning after leading a procession of Royals, Heirs and Coronets onto the fighting field and into the fort. Herald's tongues were sharp as they announced Kingdom leaders from all around the Known World. Alliances were made, sides were chosen and the fighting began.

War shined with Royal parties and kingdoms welcomed people from foreign lands into their gates as drinks were made in abundance. Classes and fighting filled the schedule while merchants sold goods throughout the day and into the evening. War brought friends and family together as war surged on.

Connor! Give me my Chalice NOW!

I vow to provide my arms in times of war!

The week of war came upon us slowly but went by so fast leaving everyone wanting more. War ended, tents were packed and the populace went home to war prep again. In the end the winner of war was..... Lords and Ladies, Excellencies and Graces, Heirs and Majesties.

Gulf Wars, the war with No Enemies!
