indicates a Crown event.

Royal Missive

To the most wonderful populace of Lochac,

We have had a HUGE month this month, and have the most exciting news of all; the Kingdom has Heirs! We are so excited to see representation from the Crescent Isles, and We would like to thank everyone who entered Our tournament and made the day so wonderful.

The Crown Tournament was magnificent and We were so honoured that so many good gentles put in such a large volume of work to make the event go smoothly. While there were some external factors that held up the tournament's commencement, everyone pulled together to find a temporary solution, and the root problem was fixed in quick succession. The tournament did Us so proud, and We could not have asked for a more wonderful day spent in the noble Barony of Aneala. We were overjoyed to recognise Radbot and Katherine as Crown Prince and Crown Princess and heirs to the Throne and Crown of Lochac.

This month saw the baronial changeover of Politarchopolis, which included a magnificent feast, wonderful fighting, and King Jayne's favourite local delicacy hand-delivered to them on the throne! While letting one of Our representatives go is one of the harder things We have to do as Crown, We would like to acknowledge and thank Baroness Anne for all of her hard work and her support during Our reign. We would also like to express Our excitement at the new Baron and Baroness of Politarchopolis, who We know are transitioning into the role well. A big thank you to each and every good gentle who put themselves forward for the baronial process, and who made Our decision so hard to make, each and every one of you brought honour to your barony and We expect you to continue to do the same.

His Majesty Thibault also was gifted with a wonderful tournament in his home Barony of Innilgard with a pas d'armes, in his honour. This day saw many take to both the heavy and rapier fields, and much fun was had by all. The breadth and depth of each of the Lists was a marvel to observe, and a testament to the strong martial community that has been cultivated in Innilgard.

Looking to the future, We have started Our festival preparations! We are so very excited to be able to engage in another of the wonderful Kingdom events that have such a long period of time with friends. We would like to highlight the newcomers guide that Master Bjorn has put together, it is a wonderful read and We always are appreciative of those who remove barriers to access for those around them.

Thibault and Jayne
Crown of Lochac

A Decree from the Kynges.

Know all who see, read or hear this that Our Heirs have been chosen in the Traditional Manner by Right of Combat, Grace and Inspiration etc. at the fine Autumn Crown Tournament held this month past in the Barony of Aneala. Therefore do We pronounce our Heirs to the Throne to be PRINCE RATBOT von Borg and PRINCESS KATHERINE Kerr, from the Barony of Southron Gaard in the Crescent Isles of Lochac, termed by some Gottmark. And further that the Throne of Lochac shall pass from Our hands to Our Heirs at the Coronation to be held in Barony of Politarchopolis on the eve of May nones.

Venus and Mars at rest after the Tourney.

Lord Thorbjorn Bjarnylr, after Botticelli

LONG LIVE THE KYNGES.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY (Spies, Sins and Shenanigans Table) : LETTERS INTERCEPTED BY THE SPYMASTER.

*Deliver to the Fugger Bros, Augsburg.
Good Sirs, I attended March Crown
Tourney as you asked me and there saw our countryman take the Prize. It has been some while since he and his company were employed in the Italian wars, and I have heard that his tilt for the Crown was underwritten by his consort, a Scots Baroness of some repute and it seems no little wealth, whom I suspect will govern when they exchange their coronets for the Kingdom crowns next month. In other news, the thaler remains high on reports of reduced plague. Buy the silk at the price offered,
the black will be in strong demand.
In haste this St Botolph's Eve,
I remain, as ever, your servant, h.*

*My good lady mother, you will be pleased to hear I have attained a position with the new Crown Princess who seems kind and learned.
Most surprising is that she has a husband in addition to the Crown Prince / the Court is rife with speculation but it is clear that Their Highnesses are allied by martial contract = a Bond of Manrent these many years = rather than marital connubiality. Naethless I ween
They will work well to-gether, an the Kingdom remain free of plague and alarums.
At the Festival Market I will look for the black velvet you wanted, but I have no great hope of it, for the reign livery is likely to be Prince Ratbot's own of black & silver highlighted with Lochac colours.*

I do hope the flocks of people heading to see this first-ever Crown from the Crescent Isles will ensure that none of Prince Ratbot's own namesake beasts appear! Squeak!

On Lady Day from yr loving daughter Jonet

Notice Board

Join the Australian Board

We are winding down to the end of another calendar year and it is exciting to see members attending events and sharing the experiences of the SCA. With the new year, we start preparing for their respective Annual General Meeting, and you should too! It is at the AGM that the membership gets to vote in new members to the Board, and your Kingdom needs you to stand as a director.

Joining the Board requires attendance at a monthly meeting and contribution to the governance of the SCA. It's not hard work, but it is absolutely essential. Members from all levels of experience are welcome to apply to join the board and we would like to encourage you to consider contributing to the society in this way.

If you are interested, please send an email to secretary@sca.org.au

Greetings all,

I would like to announce my deputy Dame Joan Sutton. She will be a fantastic addition to the Kingdom Arts and Sciences team.

I look forward to seeing all the wonderful Arts and Sciences entries that will be on display at Crown Tournament in Aneala this weekend. If you have noticed anyone doing some stand out A&S, whether it is the art itself, or the work organizing, judging and running things, I would highly encourage all of you to send in recommendations to the Crown.

I am also seeking a Competitions deputy. This role includes advertising, collecting results and celebrating the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competitions. This position is a great way of getting some experience and working with other like minded folks. Like all officers, candidates should be over 18, residents of Lochac, and paid members of the SCA. A good internet connection is essential. If you think you would enjoy this role, please contact me at artsandsciences@lochac.sca.org.

Are you interested in performance and acting? Are you planning on attending May Coronation?

I'm hoping to put on Master Crispin's retelling of Romeo and Juliet (Roger and Janniet) at May Coronation - but I need a few more performers. No previous experience required.

Interested parties should contact Karolina.Firman13@gmail.com no later than 2 April 2023.

Good citizens of Lochac, I am asked to bring great news to you!

Don Donncaadh invites all to attend a vigil to be held on the Saturday night 3 June. The Order of Defence ceremony will take place on Sunday followed by a rapier tournament in the afternoon.

The Order of Defence invites you all to celebrate the addition of this worthy gentle to its ranks.

Dytryk, on behalf of The Rowany Festival 2023

Greetings all!

With just over a week until opening court, we hope all your preparations are in full swing!

Site access

Site opens at 9am Sunday. You will not be able to access site before this time.

You will need to stop at the Gate and sign in before you can drive onto site.

This can be frustrating with all the waiting, but please be patient.

Bring out your warm stuff

It's looking to be a cold, potentially drizzle damp Festival. Current temps are teens to 20s during the day and single figures at night. Please make sure you bring enough warm garb and bedding.

Bunkhouse info

Everyone that has acquired a bunk should now have your allocations. Every room will have your name on it.

Showers

The showers in the main block next to the Great Hall will be open for public access between 6 and 8, morning and night.

Attendees are reminded that there is no access to showers at any other times, and bunkhouse showers are strictly for those in the respective dorm blocks.

Tavern

The Tavern will be selling mixers and ice and is being run by the Combined Colleges, order your ice early and don't forget coins for the honesty box during the day.

It is very important to note that there will be no festival tavern mugs for sale. This has been a private venture.

Hire equipment stuff

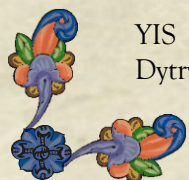

Our hire equipment is being delivered in 2 split deliveries due to the public holidays.

There will be some marquees and toilets on site on Sunday. The other half of the equipment will arrive Tuesday. If your marquee has not arrived, please ensure you leave enough space for this to be erected. All other hire equipment will be available from the tavern on Tuesday. More about this soon!

Please do not use any of the portaloos until they have been opened by the stewarding team.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Cheers
Bea and Dytryk

From the Chronicler

Greetings Lochac!

We're going to make this missive a quick one because I still have a million and one things to do before Rowany Festival, and increasingly, terrifyingly, little time!

But lots has happened in the last month. I understand some sort of "important" "crown tournament" has happened, but this is my missive, so we're going to talk about me first ;p I had the pleasure of attending Politarchopolis' Baronial Changeover in early March, and though the weather had me questioning my sartorial choices (and those of the other foolish fine gentles wearing black velvet), I had a wonderful time. Politarchopolis always delivers with pageantry and spectacle, and I think the lingering fragrance of the woolshed's past inhabitants really added to the ambience. I was also lucky enough to be granted an Award of Arms and Golden Tear, and I'll admit I'm quite chuffed to be Lady Salome de Florin. However, anybody who says they say me crying is a liar and deceiver, and I'll not stand for such falsehoods. I hope Baroness Anne enjoys her well-deserved rest, and look forward to Baron Ysambart and Baroness Joie Tigre's tenure.

Congratulations too to Prince Radbot and Princess Katherine for prevailing in the recent Autumn Crown Tourney! I missed the tourney proper due to illness, but I have it in good faith that the spreadsheet was beautiful and well-maintained. I shall also have to set my computer's autocorrect to stop capitalising Her Highness' name, lest I commit grammatical treason.

And now as my progressively frenetic Festival progress continues, I must leave you all to sew my heart out, pack messily and last-minute, and most importantly, have an excellent week away. I hope to see some of you there!

Yours in Service,
Salome

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity Spotlight

Happy Transgender Day of Visibility

While this was last month, the 31st of March, I want to acknowledge a day that not only raises awareness of the discrimination that the trans community faces but especially celebrates trans visibility, joy, and experiences. TDOV was created in 2009 by Rachel Crandall-Crocker explicitly to "bring together trans people from all over the world".

Transgender people have existed throughout history; the Wikipedia page for 'Transgender history' alone is a wonderful read full of dozens of examples of transgender people throughout our period in the SCA and beyond into modern history. (Content warning for historical violence and prejudice against transgender people, however)

This article gives a brief history of trans history 'Is Trans New', especially within Australia, and includes a link to a page with 'Information for Allies'. For non-transgender people, TDOV is not only a day to celebrate transgender friends, family, and community, but a reminder to use cisgender privilege to take action and actively support the trans community, to enact positive societal change.

Finally, here is a glossary of terms commonly used within the transgender community.

3rd of June: Borgias' Poisoners Ball, Ynys Fawr

Come join us for feasting, dancing and gaming
The Borgias are back, and there will be maiming
Collect crosses or crowns - that is your mission.
A pope or a prince? - Choose your ambition

Use slyness and scheming, tactics, betrayal
Be wily and wary and you might prevail.
The brave and most cunning will likely survive,
Can you dodge the assassins and pray stay alive?

A touch on their hand or a spike in their drink
Hold their gaze and do not blink
Let nothing distract you, do not listen to lies
Be like the Borgias, eyes on the prize

What's your ambition? How will you rule?
Your ultimate test is a poisoner's duel
Eat, drink and make merry for by end of the ball
One of you will triumph, the rest will all fall.
