Greetings Outlands!

As a member of the Society for Creative Anachronism, I am fortunate to have the opportunity to serve this kingdom first as the SCARS Deputy, and now as the Seneschal Elect. While taking on a leadership role in any organization can be daunting, I have found my experience to be both rewarding and fulfilling.

As an officer, I have the privilege of working alongside a dedicated team of individuals who are passionate about the SCA and our local community. Through our efforts, we have been able to host events, demos, and other activities that bring people together and foster a sense of camaraderie. As part of our commitment to the safety of our members, the SCA has changed the way background checks are performed. I am proud to announce that we have a new Background Check Deputy who will be responsible for ensuring that all Seneschals, Youth Marshals, and anyone who volunteers at Youth Point have completed their background checks.

Please join me in welcoming Lady Robyn Raymundsdattir to this important role. They have a keen eye for detail and their expertise will be invaluable in ensuring the safety of our community. You can contact them at background@outlands.org.

I urge all required individuals to complete their background checks in a timely manner. This is a critical step in keeping our community safe and ensuring that we can continue to enjoy the many benefits of being a part of the SCA. Thank you for your dedication to our community and for your commitment to ensuring that the SCA remains a safe and welcoming place for all members.

In Service, I remain

From the Office of the White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings Outlands, from Æðeluulf munec, White Stag Principal Herald.

I write you all this day concerning the newest information concerning the submissions process complete with happy words from Laurel Sovereign of Arms: we have New submission forms!

Over the past six months, Laurel and her staff have been working hard behind the scenes updating and streamlining the heraldic submission forms for use in the Known World. Our latest version of the forms are officially released this month, and can be found online at <http://rampart.outlandsheralds.org/#submissionforms>

The main changes are to streamline language and remove personal information which was found to be no longer relevant. They also streamlined the so-called "boxes of death" to make the submitter's desires known without making choices which were mutually exclusive.

The current submission forms, v3.0, will be accepted until the end of 2023. Forms received after Dec 31, 2023 must be v4.0. Heralds at all levels are encouraged to make sure you've replaced all 3.0 forms with the newer 4.0 forms well before that date, particularly any paper copies that may be stashed somewhere for consultation tables.

The official announcement from Laurel is here: <http://heraldry.sca.org/loar/2023/02/23-02cl.html>

On a related note, I am still on the lookout for an internal submissions deputy (Gold Castle Herald), who is the kingdom deputy responsible for collecting the submissions from the different branches around the kingdom and compiling the Internal Letter of Presentation for Rampart. Interested parties should email goldcastle@outlandsheralds.org.

See you at Crown Tournament, and until we meet again, I remain in service to the Crown

From the Ministry of the Arts and Sciences:

Good Gentles of the Outlands!

I have so many wonderful things to talk about this month! I have a new deputy, Rannvaeig Eskilskona, who is training to take over for me as Kingdom Arts and Sciences Minister when I step down in the fall! She is amazing and will do a fantastic job with the office. We had our first back in person Kingdom Arts and Sciences Tournament since the pandemic! Thank you to everyone who made Kingdom Arts and Sciences Tournament so wonderful. Thank you to Mistress Richenda for helping me with the rubrics and scoring. Thank you to Eithne for being the site steward and making sure we had everything we needed. Thank you to the judges for giving constructive feedback to the entrants and a bit thank you to the entrants. Without you there would be no incredible show of the artistic and scientific works of the Outlands!

Thank you too, to Her Majesty for coming to view all of the amazing works and giving out her Queen's Prize.

As for the winners, Cassandra Regalis's daughter won Her Majesty's Queen's Prize for her amazing miniature scribal workshop with stained glass windows. From the Chancellery of the Exchequer

Greetings Dear Outlands!

It is with great pleasure that I announce the addition of several new deputies and to recognize everyone who serves the Mighty Outlands in the Chancellery of the Kingdom Exchequer.

- Master Justice McArtain as the new Northern Deputy to the Kingdom Exchequer, came to us from the Middle Kingdom during the plague. There he learned of service to both the exchequary and seneschalate and now shares those skills with Us. northern.exchequer@outlands.org

- THL Leonor Cuerva de Segovia y Avila as the new Southern Deputy to the Kingdom Exchequer, recently moved back to the Outlands after 20+ years. She also served in the both the exchequary and seneschalate during her many years in Drachenwald. southern.exchequer@outlands.org

- Mistress Leona Roy Colquehoun as the Kingdom NMR Deputy, has also served the Shire of Rio de Las Animas for many years as their Exchequer. Her skills are only outweighed by her smile and love for this Kingdom and it's people. NMRDeputy@outlands.org

- Baroness Nerienda of Elmet as our Kingdom Chamberlain, is the keeper of all things beautiful and Royal in the Kingdom of the Outlands. She now wishes to pass on her knowledge of our history with someone new. Chamberlain@outlands.org

- Baroness Katherina von Lehmann as the Kingdom PayPal Deputy, has been serving the Barony of Caer Galen for many years. She has been one of our Kingdom's loudest supporters to bring in PayPal and has strived to bring Us bigger and better ways to use it.

PayPalDeputy@outlands.org
- Lady Sharon of the Roses as Deputy to the Kingdom PayPal Deputy and as Deputy to the Exchequer of Plattefordham. While Sharon has been with us for nearly her entire life, she will now be sharing her modern skills of finance and accounting with Us. PayPalTeam@outlands.org

- Lady Annie of al-Barran as our new Kingdom SCARS Deputy, has been a key figure in the archery community in the Barony of al-Barran. She offers us her expertise in audits and compliance experience from the modern era. She looks forward to using her talents when the new SCARS is ready to begin again. SCARSDeputy@outlands.org

- THL Edric Capellarius as the Emergency Deputy to the Kingdom Exchequer and also as the Kingdom Social Media Officer, had excelled for several years as the Exchequer for the Barony of al-Barran. Soon, the KSMO will pass on to another and he will be able to fully come back into the fold of the exchequary.

- Lady Bronach O Crowley, also as Emergency Deputy to the Kingdom Exchequer, has many years of exchequer experience as the Exchequer for the Shire of Blackwater Keep. Her skills with technology and forms make this office so much easier and organized.

Please welcome our newest members and thank our loyal colleagues as they take this office to greater heights on broader shoulders.

Faithfully Yours,
THL Marija Zuzoric (Tsura)
Kingdom Exchequer of the Outlands

Greetings Dear Outlands!

It has come to my attention that a misunderstanding has taken place where it comes to the handling of money in the SCA. I would like to first try to clear up this misunderstanding by offering excerpts from the Society Financial Policy dated 12/16/2022 and the Outlands Financial Policy dated 4/18/2021.

Society Financial Policy

IV. BANK ACCOUNT IDENTIFICATION AND STRUCTURE

A. All funds will be maintained in an account with a recognized banking institution or credit union.

XI. CONTROLLING DISBURSEMENTS

All disbursements will be made to an entity (individual or business) by signed checks, online payment (where applicable) or money orders/cashier's check. No disbursements by cash. Disbursements in advance of a purchase must be documented beforehand and will be treated as receivable items until they are reconciled by presentation of receipts and/or cash totaling the amount of the advance.

XII. CONTROLLING CASH RECEIPTS

Cash receipts shall include but are not limited to: event income of all types, money collected from advertised fund raising endeavors, donations, money from the sale of goods purchased with group funds, and newsletter sales and subscription income.

A. Cash receipts of any type totaling more than $50 must be deposited in the appropriate account no later than 14 calendar days after the receipt by an officer of the SCA. Cash receipts of any type less than this limit must be deposited in the appropriate account no later than 30 calendar days after the receipt by an officer of the SCA. No incoming funds of any type are to be kept out of the appropriate account longer than these timeframes. Undeposited income of any type is not to be used for refunds, reimbursements or expenses.

Outlands Financial Policy

IX. Methods for controlling cash receipts.

B. Controlling Cash Receipts

1. Cash Receipts shall include, but not limited to:
  - a. Event income of all types,
  - b. Money collected from advertised fund-raising endeavors,
  - c. Donations,
  - d. Money from the sale of goods purchased with group funds,
  - e. Newsletter sales and subscription income.

2. Cash receipts of any type must be given to the Kingdom Exchequer or their designee. Receipts totaling more than $50 must be deposited in the appropriate account no later than 14 calendar days after the receipt. Cash receipts of any type less than this limit must be deposited in the appropriate account no later than 30 calendar days. No incoming funds of any type are to be kept out of the appropriate account.

Both policies indicate that money raised or received from SCA-sponsored activities are to be considered SCA Funds. This does not mean that ALL money given to an officer is to be considered SCA funds. We don't want your pocket change from lunch or the proceeds of your kid's Girl Scout cookies, even if they were baked using period methods or packaged in period boxes. This also means that the sale of privately purchased supplies (scribal, leather, ratan, archery targets, stickers, etc) with the intent to resell privately are also not considered to be SCA funds. The SCA does not manage other people's personal finances. The questions that should be asked are, "Did the group use SCA funds to purchase these items, or the materials to make items, to be sold?", and "Does the Seller indicate to their Buyers that the proceeds will go to an SCA-sponsored activity or fund?" If the answer to either of these questions is Yes, then Yes, those proceeds are considered SCA funds, regardless of whether the money is handed to an officer or paid member. (By the way, only paid SCA members may handle and verify SCA funds.) Money received from SCA-sponsored activities are to be given to the Exchequer for that group, or their warranted designee, to be verified and deposited. If your group is also fundraising for another SCA group or fund, or another nonprofit organization (501 (c)3), then a check will be written from the group's bank account after the money has been verified by the Exchequer for that group. The check can be written at the event as long as the Exchequer, or their designee, has verified the amount and can deposit it within the required timeframes, and an eligible second signatory is available. One last thing, ALL questions regarding the interpretation of financial policies shall be directed to the Office of the Exchequer, either locally or at the Kingdom level. Per the letter from the Society Seneschal dated 2/28/2023 "Regarding the Relative Authority of Kingdom and Local Officers", "local and kingdom officers must focus on decisions that fall within their area of responsibility". If questions arise about any level of financial policy, please consult your Exchequers. If they feel that the policy needs to be clarified, then the Exchequer will make that clarification. No other officer is qualified to make interpretations or clarifications on financial matters.

Yours In Service

Tis the morn' of twenty-fifth June of the Year Of Our Lord 1314. The schiltrons of Robert Bruce have denied relief of Stirling by the far superior forces of Edward II, the meeker whelp of the now dead Hammer Of The Scots. It is undeniable, the might of the English army came to grief in the boggy ground below Stirling Castle.

Now, the dead are buried and fortifications of Stirling commence. It is a glorious day for all of Scotland, and the independence of the Scots that is so richly deserved seems to be within grasp. There is much to celebrate.

However, as time passes, there are whispers across the North; Edward the Meek is seeking to retake Stirling Castle, with a second invading force! We must prepare!

Join Robert The Bruce, King Of The Scots, on Memorial Day Weekend at 36725 Fiddleback Ranch Cir in Kiowa, as we gather forces to prepare to thwart the plans of Edward Meek! Bring your heavy arms! Bring your light arms! Bring your bows! Bring your camp! Bring your banners and flags! And, also bring your arts, to inspire the bold!

In ancient times, when mountain winters were colder than cold and desert summers were hotter than hot, wise leaders of Atenveldt created a winter festival called Estrella where frozen northerners could come warm up in the gentle rays of the southern winter sun. Guests were welcomed with open arms and hearts. Alliances were forged, gifts were exchanged, and feasts and revels abounded.

In due time, with great delight, the wise leaders of the Outlands created a summer festival called Battlemoor, in the cool mountains where sun baked southerners could find surcease. Alliances are strengthened, hospitality is joyfully returned, and feasts and revels abound. Battlemoor has become the gathering place for the all the widespread peoples of the region to meet old friends and new, to exhibit valor, and to have fun in a myriad of ways.
