Words of the Crown

Krake and Beatrix, most humble majesties of the Black Dragon Thrones,

Greetings all Noble people of the wealthy lands of Drachenwald!

From now on we will do our utmost to visit as many places in our fair Kingdom as possible, meet as many of you as we can and enjoy this reign. In doing that we can pay attention to, reward and shine the light on all those deserving. If you want to help in this and make it easier for us, please make sure to recommend the people around you. When you see someone doing things for others, making shiny stuff, waving blades, dancing, paying or whatever, anything that makes the dream better, send in that recommendation.

The king has just been on a ravaging expedition in the west to get a feel of the land, the wind and possible allies to further campaigns. The Queen is determined to become even fiercer than she already is, learning the art of steel at the Gyllengran fencing camp. 50to50 is coming.

We have received council from our predecessors and we see that everyone in the Kingdom has made their utmost to pay their taxes and those who are deserving may get some tax refunds.

From the most humble majesties of the Black Dragon Thrones,

Krake
Konungur / König
Kuningas / Ri

Greetings from the Seneschal

Dear Drachenwald!

In recent weeks, I have thought a lot about when I started at SCA. I was young and a whole new wonderful world opened up.

For me, the best thing about being in SCA is all the people I've met over the years. People I would never have met if it weren't for our shared interests in creative anachronism.

Many I haven't seen in a couple of years but I still think about them from time to time. Some are no longer part of SCA and some are no longer with us.

Friends - I hope to see you all this year

Tova av Attemark
Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings from the Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of our wondrous Kingdom of Drachenwald,

Another busy issue. Whilst many of our issues are filled with court reports, event announcements, and general announcements, there is often space for articles, stories, poems, comics, artwork, and so forth. If you would like to submit anything to the Chronicler for publication in Dragon's Tale, we would willingly accept any and all such submissions and thus enrich this beautiful publication of ours (submissions to: chronicler@drachenwald.sca.org)

Lots of events, and lots of court reports. We are still not quite caught up with the court reports, but the backlog has been significantly reduced and I would expect us to be caught up before the summer.

All this shows the vibrancy and hard work of the people of Drachenwald. Vivant!

You may have noticed that with the redevelopment of the SCA membership portal that several items are no longer accessible (specifically kingdom newsletters).

I will be working with the Society chronicler and our Kingdom webminister to ensure that there will be online access to future issues of Dragon's Tale whilst the SCA membership portal is being upgraded and developed (and of course beyond that too).

Yours in Service,

Dafydd Myfyrgar
Kingdom Chronicler

Court Reports

Kingdom University
28 Oct 2022 - Holmríke

Ruling Royals: Baron Etienne of Eplaheimr
Court Herald: Lady Anna de Byxe

Furthermore

- Court began in Irish to the many bemused and confused faces of Nordmark. What His excellency said may never be known for certain...
- Thanks were made to the Crown Princess and the Coronet of Nordmark for facilitating baronial court so far from the shores of Eplaheimr. After which His excellency went among the crowd (We do not believe Irish chieftains were riveted to their thrones) and called out the friendship and inspiration which many of the members of Eplaheimr found in Nordmark over the decades and called out by name and thanked many present. Cheers were called for the friendships of Eplaheimr and Nordmark.
- The Baron announced that Eplaheimr is seeking a curriculum to inform what a herald should be skilled in, to be competent to help people develop and register arms. Also, a document pointing to where good instruction in these skills is also sought to be developed. The herald deemed to have performed this miracle will be named a member of the "Fíli Eplaheimr" and recorded in the Annals of Eplaheimr as a great and learned bard entitled to that title.
- An event with a focus on Heraldry will be held on the 28th to 30th April where heraldic classes will be facilitated. Any skilled herald willing to teach will be most welcome. A series of bi-monthly online heraldic classes will also be developed to support the ongoing training of Heralds in the barony (and anyone else interested). Teachers are welcome for this too. Cheers were called for the heralds of the kingdom.
- Finally, his excellency called up all those who had helped others attend the event, whether by giving lifts or transporting baggage to make it easier for people to make it. This practical application of curtesy is much appreciated by their excellencies.

Registration

Register here:

<https://forms.gle/EcPVrY3nQrpxGnNL7>

We will send you information about how to pay after registration. You will need to pay at the latest on the 27th of February. Of you aren't a resident in Sweden you can pay in cash at the troll.

There are 80 weekend passes and 20 day passes, of these 20 of the weekend passes will be held in reservation for participants in the tournament until the 12th of February. Participants in the tourney are prioritized if the site will be full.

Site

Medåkers Bygdegård, Täbyvägen 25, 732 96 Arboga, Sweden.

The site opens at 16:00 and closes at 13:00
The site is situated about 10 minutes north of Arboga by car. It is easily reached both by car, bus and train. Let us know at registration if you'll need to be picked up from the train or the bus.

Transport

By car: set the GPS to the address above, or drive towards Arboga Sweden. Turn off the E20/E18 by exit 119, turn east towards Arboga onto the road 249/Fellingsbrovägen, left by the sign "5 Medåker", follow Sockenvägen, följ signs towards "Medåker" at the crossroad. Once you've driven around the church turn right into Täbyvägen/follow the sign "Bygdegården". About 450 m straight ahead on the left hand side is the site.

By train or bus: Book a ride to Arboga and let us know when you need to be picked up.

By plane: Book a flight to Arlanda and take the train or bus to Arboga. Let us know when you need to be picked up and if you need to borrow feasting gear or items for crashspace.

The accommodation is crashspace in the main building and a separate house located about 450 m away. If you want to and have access to a car, there is both B&B nearby, hotels in Arboga and Köping and a hostel in Köping. The autocrats will be passing by Arboga and Köping on the way to the site, so it is possible to catch a ride with them provided there is space in the car.

Accessibility:

The site is accessible in the main building on the bottom floor where the banquet and courts will be held. The outside is relatively flat and have few steep inclines. There is a ramp up to the main building. There is an accessible bathroom in this house. If you require accessible crash space reserved in the main building let us know during your registration.

Covid etc:

Please cancel the booking if you get sick. Do not come to the event if you have symptoms of a cold, like a sore throat, sniffles, fever.

Bring your own towels, for the hands and the dishes.

Washing of dishes will be done in the small kitchen upstairs in the main house. If you have difficulty accessing stairs please let the autocrats know and you will be able to wash your fest gear on the first floor in the main kitchen.

There will be alcohol available anywhere you can wash your hands and in the troll. Should there be new guidelines in regards of covid we will abide by them. We recommend all attendees to have updated their vaccinations in accordance with the guidelines from your public health agencies.

Strawberry Raid II
01 - 05 June 2023
Dun in Mara - Ireland

The SCA Shire of Dun In Mara welcomes you back to Strawberry Raid, five days of medieval camping around the beautifully restored 15th-16th century tower house of Sigginstown Castle, in the beautiful sunny South-East of Ireland.

We will have classes, practice and tourneys in our martial pursuits, as well as plenty of classes and fun projects in our arts & sciences.

This year, our visiting teacher at armoured combat will be Duke Timmur Jochan (KSCA, OD, OP) from the Kingdom of Artemisia.

Site

Sigginstown Castle, Co Wexford
Sigginstown Castle is owned by SCA members who very generously open their home for us. The main attraction of the site is the restored tower house. It has electric lighting, but the furniture and the wall decorations are all done according to period examples.

The site has a large barn which will provide a communal gathering place, particularly in case of bad weather. The barn has tables and benches as well as a gravel floor. You are welcome to have your meals here, do crafts together, arrange classes, etc.

Camping will take place on a level grassy field. The cost of camping is included in the event fee. We do not separate medieval and modern tents into different camping grounds, so you can form an encampment with your friends regardless of your tent style.

No food is provided, so you will have to make arrangements to cater for yourself. We suggest banding together with friends. Portaloos and waste disposal will be available.

If you do not wish to camp, you are welcome to arrange your own off-site accommodation.

The site opens at 16:00 and closes at 16:00

Cost

(Including camping and the booking engine administration fees)
SCA member: Full event (Adult): €41.50
SCA member: Full event (Youth): €20.70
SCA member: Full event (Family): €103.50

Non-member: Full event (Youth): €25.90
Non-member: Full event (Family): €125.00
General - Day Trip (Adult): €15.50
General - Day Trip (Youth): €10.50
* Family - guardians and children; Youth - ages 6-18

Children under 6 are free of charge in all categories, but please indicate their number in the booking form so that we can keep track of overall numbers.

Payments are made as part of the registration process

Announcements - Celebrating Black History Month

Throughout the month of February, the Society is celebrating Black History Month – building and broadening our understanding of the rich, complex history of the nations of Africa and its peoples pre-17th century. Our social media channels will be sharing a range of information and opportunities for learning, preferencing sources and scholars from Africa and the African diaspora.

Black History Month is an annual observance originating in the United States. It has received official recognition from governments in the United States and Canada, and more recently has been observed in Ireland, and the United Kingdom. It is celebrated in February as part of SCA Inc. Corporate Recognition Calendar and our continuing commitment to education and learning.

Announcements - Investing in People, Prioritizing Education

Right across the Society, you will find people willing to share their skills, knowledge and experience in order to build the knowledge of world history through activities, demonstrations, and events. These people are the foundation of our community, investing in people and prioritizing their education. On this the International Day of Education, we celebrate our teachers at every level pursuing research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century skills, arts, combat and culture.

Whether you come from a love of fantasy and escapism from the modern world or a passionate interest in a pocket of history, passion for sport, dress ups or crafting, or simply hanging out with your friends on the weekend, our goal is take to your knowledge of pre-17th century world history and improve it through doing. That wouldn't be possible without every single member of the Society who takes the time to think 'how was that done? Why did that happen?' and share their understanding and practice with others! Today and every day, we celebrate you!

"The good historian... must be fearless, uncorrupted, free, the friend of truth and of liberty. One who calls a fig a fig, and a skiff a skiff, neither giving nor withholding from any, from favour or from enmity, not influenced by pity, by shame, or by remorse. A just judge... a stranger to all, of no country, bound only by his own laws, acknowledging no sovereign, never considering what this or that man may say of him, but relating faithfully everything as it happened."

Lucian, ancient Greek writer and satirist (c.125-185)

Announcements - Diversity, Equity and Inclusion 2023 Strategic Initiative

At the January 2023 Quarterly Meeting, the Board of Directors approved the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) 2023 Strategic Initiative. The initiative acknowledges the Society's foundations in this area and the work that is still to be done.

A copy of the initiative can be found here: <https://www.sca.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/01/DEI-2023.pdf>

The initiative is a living document and will be revised as needed based on better practice.

Announcements - Status of Reduced Armor Rapier Experiment

Unto the Rapier Community,

Recently the Reduced Armor Experiment was ended without much warning. There are a few reasons for the ending of the experiment, but the primary reason was because of the lack of reporting we were receiving concerning the experiment. Without consistent information advising us otherwise, I had to assume that we were exposing the Society and its participants to increased risk and that was unacceptable.

At this time, I am conditionally reopening the experiment with the expectation that reporting will be handled correctly. The expectation from this office is that any experiment regardless of the marshal activity will be reported on every quarter to this office or the experiment will cease.

Along with reporting I will be scheduling a series of meetings with Kingdom Earl Marshals and/or their Rapier Deputies to discuss the wording in the experiment as there seems to be two separate experiments happening and not just the one that was approved.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at marshal@sca.org

Thank You,
Count Rey RiBeaumont, KSCA, OP, Society Marshal

Announcements - Commitment to SCA Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

The Board of Directors recognizes and thanks the members and participants who have taken the time to share their thoughts about the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in the SCA. It is a sign of the passion that people have for our organization, its communities, and making it better and more accessible for all.

The Board remains committed to the Society's equity journey, diversity in our membership, and the broader contributions that these aspects make to becoming a more inclusive organization. The limitless ways diverse needs can intersect and change is why we always need to be looking to provide better help and support beyond what is already being done and admitting when things can be done better.

The Society has grown and changed throughout its 56-year history. Going as far back as 1978, when the Board upheld the right of women to fight in Crown List, to confirming the right for same-sex couples to hold territorial baronial seats, the subsequent acceptance of same-sex couples in Crown Lists, and the ongoing work of the College of Arms for cultural and gender affirming heraldry and titles, the Board has been making steady changes towards inclusion for years following the procedures prescribed in Corpora. We have seen work led by the DEI Office help us update our Mission Statement to expand our focus to pre-17th world history, improve our policy positions and increase the education resources available. Most recently the Board developed and subsequently endorsed the Oral History proposal and committed to an initial calendar of Days of Recognition. It is with grateful thanks that we acknowledge the work undertaken by many individuals that has led to this growth.

DEI is, however, an ongoing process and one where we must always ask ourselves how we all can do better. The Board acknowledges that there is still significant work to be done and education to be undertaken both at the corporate level and across the organization. It is through sustained commitment to action that these changes will be realized. As part of this continuing work, all Directors are currently undertaking a DEI in the Workplace Certificate Course, complementing any previous SCA education they have participated in.

As part of the Board's enduring commitment to deliver on the SCA's vision, mission, and values, the Directors continually evaluate the outcomes of its strategic initiatives. While excellent foundations have been established, it became evident that the Board's initial direction would not deliver its intended outcomes. As a result, the Directors have begun the process of strategic course-correction to bring us all closer to the better and more inclusive Society that we all want and deserve.

Work has continued on a refocused DEI strategic initiative which will be discussed in more detail at the upcoming January Quarterly Meeting. Strategic initiatives must always be reviewed to ensure ongoing relevance, and this is particularly important for DEI. You can register to attend the January 22, 2023 Quarterly Board Meeting at 10:00 AM PST/6:00 PM UTC at the following link:
<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8277582458347987545>

Once registered, you will receive confirmation with the details for the meeting. Attendees will have an opportunity to submit questions for the Board.

Once again, we thank everyone who has reached out already to the Board and other officers to share your comments and feedback on the importance of a diverse, equitable and inclusive Society for all of us.
