From the East Kingdom Brigantia Herald

To all who hear these words, warm winter greetings.

I would like to reach out to the heralds of the East, of all varieties, whether current, past, or future. If we haven't yet met, I am Duchess Thyra Eiriksdottir, newly appointed Brigantia Herald. I'm looking forward to meeting you, whether online or (carefully!) in person. If we have met, hello again! I am happy to be here with all of you in this part of the SCA.

I have started to meet with various deputies of the office, to get my bearings and to identify what needs help. I am looking forward to talking with many of you in the next few weeks!

I have spoken this oath at EK 12th Night, and now put it forth in writing, that I may be held to it during my tenure in this office:

I will serve the heralds of this kingdom to the best of my abilities, by recognizing and developing their abilities.

I will listen and learn.

I will foster dialog and create transparency.

I will use my privilege to support those who need a voice.

I will provide advice and counsel when needed.

I will work always in the best interests of the people of the East.

Yours ever in Service,
 Thyra Eiriksdottir

From the East Kingdom Minister of the Lists

Greetings unto the Populace!

It is with great pleasure and honor that I announce to you the newly selected East Kingdom Minister of Lists, Mistress Ellesbeth Donofrey!

A huge thank you to those who applied for the position. It was a difficult decision for the Majesties, I'm certain.

Mistress Ellesbeth, a former East Kingdom Minister of Lists, is vastly experienced and I'm certain is an excellent fit for this role.

The exchange of office will take place on March 18th, 2023, at High Nobility and Low Stakes, in the Barony of Concordia of the Snows.

Congratulations and many thanks, Mistress Ellesbeth!

From the East Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of the East ,

I have spoken with a few photographers and they have been gracious enough to allow me to use their photos on the cover of this newsletter. I am always looking for more, though, so if you would like your photos to have a chance of making it onto a future cover, please send me an email granting this office permission to use your photos and post anything you feel meets your own standards in the unofficial Facebook Group called "East Kingdom Photography".

Additionally, original works of art are always welcomed. If your talents lie in this area, please feel free to email your work to me noting that you grant permission to use that work on a cover of the Pikestaff.

I know we have many skilled photographers and artisans in the East and I would love the opportunity to showcase your work to the Knowne World (yes, anyone can see our newsletters online).

Due to the recent maintenance on the Corporate website, Gentles have been unable to view Kingdom Newsletters. This will be resolved soon.

On a different note, I have had a chance to fully review the 'rules' of my office, I would like to remind all Chroniclers serving Baronies and Provinces that your groups require a newsletter and that an electronic courtesy copy to my office is required (quarterly at a minimum). A paper and electronic courtesy copy sent to the Society Archivist is also required. There are several groups from whom I have not received copies since April, when I took office. Full details can be found here: <https://chronicler.eastkingdom.org/localpolicies/index.htm> - also see the second box on the right!

In Service,

THL Antony Martin of Sheffield

From the East Kingdom Chancellor Minor

Greetings unto the populace of the East from the office of Chancellor Minor!

Much planning and thought has been taking place the first half of this year in how to best serve the youth and families of the East and action is finally under way! My goal is to focus on the holistic experience of our youth, inside and outside of the family activities pavilion. After all, youth do not stop existing once Family Point closes, just as adults do not stop existing once the battlefield, A&S, feast hall, etc. close.

To that end, I am retiring the use of regional officers for the Office of Chancellor Minor. Our awareness on the need for coverage for youth activities in the form of background checks is much more pervasive than it has been in the past and, given the needs of the populace, no longer make sense. I would like to personally acknowledge and thank Lady Eleanor Grey, Lady Toi Poisson de Mortagne, and Mistress Sheherazada al-Zahira for their work as Northern, Central, and Southern Region Deputy Chancellor Minors as well as the deputies that have come before them. Without their work, there is no way that my office supporting our youth and families could run.

However, in lieu of regional officers, I am pleased to introduce Age Ranged Deputies. After all, this work cannot be done alone. These deputies will be tasked with assisting in creating and orchestrating the resources our families need the most based on stages of childhood and adolescent development. Some things are universal challenges like keeping little ones hydrated and clothed (garb swaps for the win!) but there are some specific challenges that each group faces. :

Young Families And New Parents (Newborn - 4 years) - Maternity garb, nursing garb, babyproofing a camp, etc.

Childhood (5-12 years) - SCAdian basics for kids, simple crafts, much of the current purview of youth activities

Adolescence (13-17 years) - Life beyond family point, integrating with "adult" society, SCAdian civics, coming of age and transitioning into adulthood

Please note that I'm giving rough estimates of the ages of youth that these deputies will serve, but it's all up to interpretation as we all know that children develop at their own pace. Ideally, with these resources in place, we can work on developing a road map for youth and their families of what they can expect their trajectory to be as they reach their majority.

Lastly, I do have another deputy position that needs to be filled for our beloved Principality of Tir Mara! This position is vacant and I look forward to making sure that our Tir Maran children are looked after by one of their own. Many thanks to Lord Eighnard d'Aix la Chapelle for his service as Chancellor Minor!

If anyone has any interest or questions about these deputy positions, please let me know.

As always in service,

Lady Cecily Graham de Inveresk
East Kingdom Chancellor Minor

March 9, Bailiwick of Ivyeirust
(Philadelphia, PA)

In Gargantua, Rabelais describes the Abbaye of Thélème as an utopian place of free learning. For one day, the Rare Books Library of the University of Pennsylvania will welcome the free learners of the SCA. As previously please come and talk about your research, your failed attempts, your successes and get feedback on those and ideas for future projects.

The exact space available is still under discussion but we expect a repeat of rooms with lecture-style presentations (question-and-answer session at the end) in parallel with a poster session.

There will be three tracks for the oral presentations:
- the book as object (covering all aspect of book making and materials involved)
- SCA musical research
- heraldic research

The poster session will be any topic you have researched on and want to share with all.

More details will be available once we receive confirmation of how many rooms will be available.

For more information see:
<http://www.library.upenn.edu/kislak/> and
<http://www.library.upenn.edu/collections/rbm/>

Breakout area and lounge space are available for conversation and further exploration of topics that caught your interest during one presentation or another. Also feel free to bring your favorite reference books to show others.

Because we will be presenting our research with all the modern tools of the presenter's art, this demo is in modern dress. The interested general public is encouraged to attend.

Registration fees: The event is free.
Feast fees: There is no feast. We do not plan to serve food but the University of Pennsylvania is surrounded by eating places (restaurants, food court, food trucks).

Site address: Kislak Center for special collections, rare books and manuscripts at Van Pelt Library, University of Pennsylvania
3420 Walnut Street

Philadelphia, PA 19104

Directions

The main entrance to the library faces the inside of the 3400 block below Walnut Street. From the intersection of 34th & Walnut, there's a path that leads southwest into campus. As soon as the path opens up into a green space, you'll look toward the right and you'll see a sculpture of a broken button (<http://www.library.upenn.edu/exhibits/pennhistory/art/button/button.html>) that is in front of the stairs into up to the library's main entrance.

Once you go through the glass doors, you'll present a photo ID to the security guards

Driving Directions:
From WEST via 76 East - exit at 30th Street Station, at the light turn right, curve around the train station to the left. At the third light, you'll want to be in the right lane to go straight across Market Street. Turn right onto Walnut Street - after 33rd, start looking for a parking spot or follow directions to the parking lot of your choice (<http://www.facilities.upenn.edu/maps/parking/parking-garage-chestnut-34> recommended)

From EAST via Benjamin Franklin Bridge to 676 West. Exit at 30th Street Station and follow directions above.

Public Transit Directions:
If coming by Train - 30th Street Station is equally close to the library as the University City station that usually requires switching SEPTA trains and getting off at 33rd & South (OTOH, it's right by the University Museum of Anthropology and Archaeology, if you'd like to include that in your visit) From 30th Street Station it's three-quarters of a mile to walk to the library. Or you can leave the building and head to the entrance to the subway at 30th & Market. Take the subway-surface trolleys (11, 13, 34, or 36 - but NOT the 10) west to the 36th street & Sansom Avenue stop. Then walk south (toward the bookstore, Cosi, and Urban Outfitters), cross Walnut Street, keep walking south into campus, until you cross a wide path off to your left. Follow that path until you see the broken button sculpture and the library behind it.

If coming by Greyhound or Peter Pan bus, ask directions to the 11th street entrance to the Market-Frankfort Line (<http://www4.septa.org/maps/transit/mfl.html>). Get off at 34th street. Head south to Walnut street, and then follow the walking directions in the driving directions.

Within the city - Aside from being convenient to the MFL and trolleys, the library is also easily reached by the 21 and 42 buses, both of which stop at 34th & Walnut.

High Nobility & Low Stakes
March 18, Barony of Concordia of the Snows
 (Scotia, NY)

High Nobility & Low Stakes is an immersive SCA event. Our immersion is not centered around a particular place and time, but around social status and respective entertainments. Upstairs, you will find the Reverdie Revels, a masked ball in celebration of Spring, featuring delicate nibbles, exquisite clothing, and courtly manners. Downstairs, you will find "The Golden Serpent," a casual and even raucous tavern with hearty foods, gaming, and the general rabble. While courtly manners reign upstairs, tavern disputes can lead to fencing knife fights or outdoor dueling (weather permitting).

Participants are highly encouraged to "sneak" between the spaces using whatever disguises they wish. Some may simply remove regalia & don a simple cloak to visit the tavern. Others may add a fancy mask and cape to sneak into the ball. All attendees will be given a simple mask if they require one, but people are highly encouraged to bring their own fancy masks for the day.

We may have door guards to remind you of the tone of each space & to encourage a spirit of play in our day. However, a game is only good if everyone is having fun. Therefore, if you wish to have a spirited argument, a dramatic declaration of a courtly love poem, a duel, or any immersive action that relies on another attendee playing along, you must be certain that the other party consents to be part of the game. Anyone who fails to do so will be banned from the overall competition, their tokens forfeit.

Participants will also receive a bag of twenty coin tokens*. Each token is worth one point. Tokens can be used for gaming downstairs in the tavern, tipping musicians, rewarding service, etc. The event staff will also have 5 point coin tokens to be given at their discretion for acts that add to the overall spirit of the event. This could include particularly graceful dancing, a splendid tavern argument, a dramatic fencing death, a creative disguise, etc. The individual who has won the most overall points at the end of the day will receive a special prize.

This is a dry site. However, we are in conversations with the site liaison for permission for our local brewer's guild to make non-alcoholic drinks (0.5% ABV) such as homemade soda, or possibly kvass. All beverages will be fully labeled as to even small alcohol content. We will also be providing alcohol free beverages including mock red wine, and possibly something like sbiten.

*Attendees will also have the option to receive an additional 20 coins in exchange for their donation to the Concordia Fire Recovery Fund. Minimum donation of $5.

We are looking for people willing to run gaming tables for the following games: Primero, Shove Ha'Penny, Glückhaus, Hazard, Dreidel, Ace & Thirty.

Stonemarche Garb Schola
March 18, Barony of Stonemarche
 (Gilford, NH)

Greetings to the well-garbed and the wanting-to-be-well-garbed populace of the East Kingdom!

Welcome to the first ever Stonemarche Garb Schola held in the beautiful Lakes Region in the heart of the Barony of Stonemarche!

As garb is such an integral part of how we play and represent our chosen time period, our persona and our personality, we thought it certainly deserved its own schola. Not everyone feels ready to tackle the Iron Seamstress challenge but everyone, to different extents, wants to look good and be comfortable in their garb, be it for a stroll down the aisles at Birka, a steamy summer day at GNEW or around a chilly Bardic around a fire at Harper's. And so, we are collecting some of those in the Kingdom for whom sewing is a passion and teaching is a joy to share their knowledge and get us on the track to sartorial respelndence (looking real good in garb)!

As this is a new event, we will see what the response from teachers and attenders is. At this point, we plan to have tracks for beginner sewists from basic T-tunic construction to how to pick and know your fabrics, for intermediate and expert sewists around more specifics of patterning, construction, sewing, finishing, by machine and or by hand, your period appropriate garb. There will also be an accessories track for things like headwear, shoes, undergarments etc. If you have a class you are dying to teach, or take, please let us know so that we can work on bringing you on this year and/or next year as we get to build on this year's beginning.

In addition to classes, there will be a sign up to participate in a fashion show over the day-board lunch where teachers and others may display and explain a bit about their garb and where it fits into period history. There will also be a consultation table where some of our teachers will volunteer to sit and answer questions if you have a garb idea with which you are not sure where to start or garb in process where you've reached a sticky point and need some coaching.

This is a respectfully wet site. Please plan accordingly.

Although the SCA complies with all applicable laws to ensure the health and safety of our event participants, we cannot eliminate the risk of exposure to infectious diseases during in-person events. By participating in the in-person events of the SCA, you acknowledge and accept the potential risks. You agree to take any additional steps to protect your own health and safety and those under your control as you believe to be necessary.

It is important to note that we will continue to support those who wish to continue masking. Similarly, we support those who wish to no longer mask. These are personal decisions and will be treated as such. We expect the entire populace to be respectful of the choices of others.

We encourage the populace to vaccinate and get boosted as you are able, and remember the social responsibility of not attending an event should you have any symptoms of illness regardless of whether they are COVID-related or not.

There will be masks and hand sanitizer at stations around the event and we encourage attendees to avail themselves according to their choices.

Registration fees:

Adult Members: $15.00
 Adult Non Members: $20.00

We are working on finding someone to work with children at the event, but at this point, any children attending are the sole responsibility of the parents or guardians and should be under supervision at all times. Thank you.

Feast fees: Day-board is included with site fee.

Make checks payable to: SCA NH Inc. - Barony of Stonemarche

Mudthaw
March 25, Barony of Settmour Swamp
(Hackettstown, NJ)

* MUDTHAW IS AT A NEW LOCATION (AGAIN)*

As winter turns to spring, their Excellencies Orlando and Charis, Baron and Baroness of Settmour Swamp, invite all and sundry to join in celebration of the Thawing of the Mud!

In keeping with the flavor of our new site, our theme will be Viking-era Scandinavian. Has the ice cleared enough to safely travel the whale-roads? Is the mud thawed enough to plant barley? We hope so, because the site is largely outdoors! There is a heated hall, but fighting, court, and most activities will be outside, unless the weather is truly dire. We do encourage you to bring tents, pop-ups, and shelters - there is plenty of space, and we are allowed to stake into the ground. (No open fires are permitted.)

There will be no feast this year, but there will be a simple, hearty dayboard provided by Lawrence Vaughan (menu forthcoming).

* Martial Activities *

Armored: The armored combat tournament will be fought in the traditional Mudthaw double elimination format, outdoors on grass/earth.

Rapier: There will also be a double-elimination rapier tournament, outdoors on grass/earth. (In case the mud is not just thawed but squishy, list fields will be moved to the outdoor pavilion, which has a cement floor.)

And, for the first time in a long time, there will be archery!

* A&S Display/Competition *

Calling all artisans! We invite you to display a collection of 1-3 items relating to your first sea-voyage of spring. Maybe you're going a-viking, maybe to visit relatives in Jorvik, maybe you'll travel the river-roads all the way to great Miklagard. The winner will be judged on their tale as much as their artifacts.

* Youth Activities *

There is an adorable viking-themed playground, weather permitting. We are also hoping to have youth combat and a scavenger hunt.

Registration fees:
Adult: $20 ($5 discount for members)
Youth (age 6-17): $5
Infant (5 and below): FREE

Many of us shop at Amazon for a wide range of products. Did you know that the SCA can benefit from each purchase you make at no additional charge to you?

Here's how: Go to smile.amazon.com. Sign into your account and a "pop up" page will appear. On the right side of the page, at the bottom is a "search" window. Type in: Society for Creative Anachronism and click the search button. Click on the top one and you are done. Your donations will be automatic for any purchase within the Amazon Smile program (which is most merchandise).

Amazon donates 0.5% of each purchase to the non-profit organizations of your choice and the Society for Creative Anachronism is one of those organizations. This is a painless way to support the SCA.
