THE SCA PROHIBITS HARASSMENT AND BULYING OF ALL INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS.

The SCA prohibits bullying and harassment of all individuals and groups. Bullying is systematic and unwelcome behavior which involves the use of influence, threat, intimidation, or coercion to cause hurt or harm to another person or group of people. When the bullying behavior is based on a protected class (1), that behavior is defined as harassment.

(1) race, sex, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability.

Bullying and Harassment may be overt, as in the following non-inclusive list of examples:

- Verbal abuse, including using racial, homophobic, transphobic, ableist epithets, etc.
- Non-consensual physical contact, violence, or threatening gestures.
- Displaying material that is offensive, degrading, or threatening to a protected class.
- Consistent demeaning remarks or malicious teasing - Stalking or predatory behavior

Covert:

- Spreading rumors or innuendo with malicious intent
- Deliberate exclusion, isolation, or alienation of an individual without just cause
- Using rank, title, or office to intimidate others

Provided that the behavior does not rise to the criteria listed above, bullying and harassment is not:

- Single episodes of social rejection, dislike, tactlessness, or forgetfulness.
- Mutual arguments, disagreements, or fights.
- The termination, mutual or not, of a romantic relationship or friendship.
- Reasonable constructive feedback or critique.

The test for bullying is the reasonableness of the behavior and the impact of that behavior on the recipient. Participants engaging in bullying/harassment are subject to appropriate sanctions. If an individual believes they have been subjected to or have witnessed harassment, bullying, or retaliation, that person should contact a senechal, the President of the SCA, or that kingdom's Board Ombudsman.

From Their Majesties Andreas & Kallista

Unto the Populace of Fairest Æthelmearc, Greetings from Andreas and Kallista, King and Queen of these Sylvan Lands!

Our Crown tournament was Glorious! The pageantry and excitement of the day were a wonder to behold. The fighting was a stellar example of the virtues that we hold dear. At the end of the day, we were given heirs. Please join Us in celebrating the success of Prince Gareth and Princess Julianna. The future of Æthelmearc is secure!

With event season in full swing, We have had many opportunities to visit with so many old friends and make many new ones. We have already witnessed so many great things that you all do. The works of our fine artisans, the valorous deeds upon the list fields, the feats of skill upon the ranges have filled us with awe. We are humbled by the selfless service of so many that make this all possible. You all are shining examples of what make Æthelmearc a kingdom of magic and beauty. For all of your efforts, We thank you.

Looking ahead, war looms on the horizon! Our army has not been idle over the last several months and now more than ever there is no time for rest. Our adversaries have had a taste of what this kingdom brings to the field. Let us continue to prepare and hone our skills for when war ultimately comes to our lands.

As Always In Service To The Dream,
King Andreas and Queen Kallista

Officer Reports

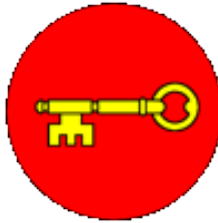

Announcement

At the April 23, 2023 quarterly meeting of the SCA Board of Directors, the Board voted to lift the Temporary Removal from Participation on Amy Simeister.

From The Seneschal

Greeting from Illadore!

We had a slight mix up with the background checks forms recently - so this is a good time for everyone to check to make sure you have background checks if you need them - as well as making sure your auth cards and blue cards are up to date. If you're missing a background check, please email this office.

We also still need bids for Twelfth Night and Fall Crown. After June 1st, if we don't receive bids from the rotation regions, these events will open up to the entire Kingdom. If you are a group that feels they need more help or more resources, but want to put together a bid, a good idea may be to see if your neighbors would like to put in a joint bid. This is a great way to build camaraderie and fellowship - and do something great for the Kingdom.

Hope to see you all soon!

From The Chronicler

Hello Æthelmearc,

My ongoing reminders, I continue to encourage people to contribute to their local newsletters when they can. Contributions for the Æstel are welcome but space is limited, and the needs of local publics is far greater. If you live in an area that does not have a newsletter but are interested in contributing material feel free to reach out to my office and we will help you get in touch with Chroniclers who need content.

Please remember the deadline for the Æstel is the 5th of each month (unless a notice is sent to the Official Kingdom Mailing list indicating an earlier date). It is important to note that this deadline is for the following month's issue. For example, the deadline for the April issue of the Æstel is March 5th. The finalized newsletter must go to Corporate by the 10th of each month. Why is this important? When submitting events to the calendar if you submit event information after the deadline it is not going to make it into the Æstel for the proper month. Any updates to a current event submitted after the deadline will also not make it into the Æstel. Life happens and we will always work to accommodate people, but if your group can meet and decide on information, and meet Æstel deadlines, that is appreciated (looking at you Kingdom officers as well).

Magnus de Lyons

Officer Reports

From The Kingdom Equestrian Officer

Greetings from the Kingdom Equestrian Officer,

My name is THL Gesa van Wellenstein and I reside in the glorious Barony-Marche of the Debatable Lands. I was entrusted with the KEO position in April 2023 and will strive to be worthy of your faith in me to uphold this position.

Over the last few weeks, I have been asked what my goals are, or what I would like to achieve while in this office. After some time thinking about it, here is what I propose:

“I will continue promoting our equestrian activities within our Sylvan Kingdome of Æthelmearc and beyond our borders.”

This means supporting baronies and shires with starting their own equestrian activities. In past years, most equestrian activities were hosted around the greater Pittsburgh area, and we got a nice group of riders together. Yet, our Kingdom is big and now it is time to awaken other areas to host equestrian activities. Given this, I was so happy and pleased to hear that the Dominion of Myrkfaelinn in New York is holding an equestrian practice in August and an equestrian event in September this year. Way to go!

I understand that including horses at an event may be overwhelming, especially if you are less familiar with all the rules and preparations. For this, I am here to help. Contact me and I will work with you to find a local EqMarshal in your area and to support you with the needed paperwork and site requirements. You don't have to do it alone!

I am working on creating documents that will help you navigate the jungle of autocrating an event with horses present. I am also working on educating the non-riding populace about horse safety, with the hope to bridge the gap of knowledge and apprehension. With increased knowledge and understanding about equines, equestrian events will be safer and more frequent. At the end of the day, I would like it if everyone can play and have fun, while remaining safe and merry!

Yes, I would like to emphasize having fun! Again, safety first, because without safety the fun is short lived. Fun for all: riders, drivers, mounts, and spectators; riders and drivers being confronted with interesting challenges for their abilities, while having safe ground for their mounts. And for the spectators, as well.

I want to keep on improving the medieval experience with banners and regalia flying high, while watching horses dressed up in their finest barding competing for their victory in games or joust. Heralds will have a prominent role announcing the activities and helping the populace cheer. We can add betting and voting opportunities, if your heart fancies. Bottom line, I want to offer something for all participants while “living our dream”.

If you would like to know more about the equestrian program in our kingdom or if you have questions on how to include horses in your next event, please feel free to contact me.

Better yet, come to an event and watch, or simply ask me or one of our many equestrians. We will be happy to describe or show it to you.

Growing our program, increasing equestrian awareness and activities in our kingdom can only be done with your support. It does not always need to be elaborate equestrian activities. We can work together to support a mounted procession, a grand opening ceremony with riders and banners, or taking over your reign on horseback.

How can I help and support you to include horses? What would you need to feel comfortable being around horses? Feel free to reach out to me and ask or provide suggestions for future classes or events.

I am here to help and support, while keeping the ponies in line.

THL Gesa van Wellenstein
KEO of Æthelmearc

Kingdom Events

The following statement is required to appear on all event notices, flyers, online announcements, and advertisements, as well as being posted in multiple locations, including Troll [Registration], at all events:

“Although the SCA complies with all applicable laws to ensure the health and safety of our event participants, we cannot eliminate the risk of exposure to infectious diseases during in-person events. By participating in the in-person events of the SCA, you acknowledge, and accept the potential risks. You agree to take any additional steps to protect your own health and safety and those under your control as you believe to be necessary”.

Important Reminder
COVID and its impact on events remains a concern in our Society.

Due to the natural pause between publishing deadlines and the decision making process for postponing or canceling of events, all event information in the Æstel is subject to change.

There is no way to avoid this. The Æstel will make every effort possible to publish current event information, but please always check other sources (websites, Kingdom event calendar, Facebook event pages, etc.) for the most up to date information on events.

Scarlet Guard Inn VIII

June 2nd to June 4th, 2023

Hosted By: The Shire of Hunter's Home

Scarlet Guard Inn VIII
June 2, 2023, 3pm
June 4, 2023, 3pm
Fraternal Order of Eagles #965
1050 Eagle's Nest Road Brockway PA 15824

The Shire of Hunter's Home is reestablishing The Scarlett Guard Inn Archery Festival. This will be the first time our Shire and the Scarlet Guard have teamed up to bring you the premier archery event of the year. Nowhere else in this great Kingdom of Aethelmearc will you find more archery in one location, and we daresay not even at Pennsic. As well as archery there is food, camping, music, games, campfires, and of course good friends.

Archery:
Come and enjoy more archery than you can shake a stick at. On average we have about a dozen different ranges to help keep you occupied and happy. On Friday evening we have a flight shoot and night shoot. During the day Saturday we have many novelty ranges and a few roving ranges so make sure to wear your walking shoes and bring plenty of arrows. In addition to all the spectacular and creative ranges and shoots, the Scarlet Guard has issued a challenge to all Shires, Baro-nies, and Cantons to send their best archer to compete. To enter an individual must have a signed letter of entry issued by their group's seneschal declaring you as their representative in the competition. They also ask the competitor to add a small item or token to the prize basket for the winner. In addition to the prize, the victor will walk away with the annual competition banner to display throughout the year. Each year the winner's and group's name will be added to the banner to create a legacy of great archery and ultimate bragging rights (members of the Scarlet Guard are not allowed to enter). If you have any questions regarding the challenge please e-mail the archery coordinator Juan Miguel Cezar at scarletguard_clerk@aethelmearc.org.

Notes:

Your equipment will need to be inspected before you can shoot. If you are day tripping make sure to be there early enough to get it out of the way so you and our inspectors can enjoy a full day's activities. Inspections are at the small building near the pavilion.

Don't forget sunscreen and tick/bug spray, this is an outdoor event and some ranges take you through deep woods.

Thrown Weapons:

Since there will already be plenty of arrows flying through the air we might as well set up some thrown weapons butts too. Bring your axes and knives, maybe a spear or two and give them a throw.

Merchants:

Hunters Home invites merchants to set up their wares at no additional charge. We had many great items for sale at our last event.

Classes: Please contact Maggie Rue firewaterpro@gmail.com if you are interested in teaching something.

Camping:

Camping is free! Please feel free to stay Friday and Saturday night. There is plenty of camping space and some already have regular spots but it is first come first serve. There is space for RVs but it is limited and there are no hookups and no dumping allowed, please contact the autocrat ahead of time. Enjoy your own campfire or be sociable and join us at the common fire. We will have the main fire provided for socializing, feel free to join in front of the pavilion or have your own fire. But please leave the site as you found it.

Kingdom Events

The Tavern: The Food: There will be no feast at this event, however there will be a modest sideboard open through the day on Saturday in the tavern.

The Games: Want to compete off the field as well? Two gaming tables will be set aside in the tavern with an assortment of games to choose from. We welcome any additions.

The Bards: We are also inviting the bards of the kingdom to come share their talents. Please add to the atmosphere and join us in the tavern and around the common fire day and night!

Japanese Iris Festival and Baronial Equestrian Champs

June 10th, 2023

Hosted by: Barony Marche of the Debatable Lands

Additional notes on Wheelchair Accessibility: There are handicap accessible restrooms.

Additional Notes on Alcohol Policy: Alcohol permitted, but not glass allowed Additional Notes on Pet Policy: All dogs must be on leash at all times.

Additional Notes on Flames: There are grills at the site and only flames must be in grills or propane stoves

In less than 3 months the Barony Marche of the Debatable Lands will host its second Japanese Iris Festival. "What is that?" you may ask. In Japan it is also called Tango no Sekku or Ayame no hi and was one of the five festival held at the Japanese imperial court. Originally it was on the fifth day of the fifth month or moon in the Chinese lunar calendar. When Japan switched to the Gregorian calendar the date was set to May 5th. Our festival is in early June due to the busy May calendar. Other countries in Asia have a similar festival on the same day. The festival marks the beginning of summer rainy season. Formerly the festival was known as Boys' Day and the corresponding Girls' Day was March 3th. After World War II, the two holidays were combined to be Children's Day and was renamed to Kodomo no Hi. You will typically see carp-shaped banner displayed, one for each child. Treats that are traditional on this day are rice cakes called mochi rapped in oak leaves called kashiwa. The kashiwa-mochi are filled with red bean paste. Another traditional treat is chimaki, which is a sweet rice paste wrapped in an iris or bamboo leaf.

Our festival will include demonstrations and classes of various Japanese arts and skills. The demonstrations and classes include taiko drumming, shibori make-and-take gift cloths, kumihimo, and tea ceremony. All are welcome to come watch and learn. If you would like to teach a class, especially about Japanese things or run a demo, use the following link to sign-up and provide information about your class. <https://forms.gle/5Bnmw25aygpWDCtw6>.

If you have questions about teaching or running a demo, please contact the class coordinator Gwendolyn the Graceful, gwenlygrace@gmail.com. An event schedule and class schedule will be posted closer to the event.

The traditional festival name Tango no Sekku has meaning in Japanese. Tan means beginning and go is the simplified character for horse. Horse is the Chinese zodiac sign for the fifth month. Sekku means festival. So the basic translation would be first day of horse month festival. But in Japanese go is the word for five so the double meaning of go means it's the fifth day of the horse month. Well then, horses are the perfect addition to the Iris festival. We will be holding a the Baronial Equestrian Champs for the riders and the horses. This will include the garb potion of the competition. Riders are encouraged to assemble an appropriate medieval Japanese equestrian outfit. In addition to the Baronial Equestrian Champs, there will be a number of games. Come watch the horsing around. There will also be a joust, weather permitting. Equestrians must contact THLady Gesa von Wellenstein at gwellenstein@yahoo.com or by phone at (724) 991-0917 to discuss equine logistics.

The event will be held on Saturday, June 10th, from 9 am to 7 pm at the Horse Arena at Bradys Run Park, 121 Bradys Run Road, Beaver Falls, PA, 15010. The autocrat for this event is Hara Kikumatsu, aka Sharon Booth, 1105 Shady Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15232. The email address is sbooth@sbooth.net, phone 412-441-1607. This is a land-line with answering machine. Please leave a message. No calls after 9pm.

Blackstone Mountain Day in the Park

June 10th, 2023

Hosted by: Barony of Blackstone Mountain

Additional notes on Wheelchair Accessibility: The Picnic Shelter has a sloped paved road down to it, but the restrooms are 100yards away, in the main Lodge building (elevator access).
Additional Notes on Alcohol Policy: This is a WV State Park, and drinking at the Picnic Shelter would count as Public Intoxication.
Additional Notes on Pet Policy: All Pets on Leash. Clean up after your pets.
Additional Notes on Flames: The Midland Trail Picnic shelter has a charcoal grill, gas-grills should be watched carefully.

Come join us June 10th 2023 and enjoy a day of food, fun, and fighting with the Barony of Blackstone Mountain at Hawk's Nest Park Lodge, 49 Hawk's Nest Park Road, Ansted, WV 25812.

Starting at 10am, spend a relaxed day of BBQ and Potluck at Hawk Nest's Midland Trail Picnic Shelter, and catch up with old friends or meet new ones. We'll be partying until 7pm, so stop by for the day, or just a few hours!

Besides the party at the Picnic Shelter, guests have full access to Hawk's Nest Lodge's Overlooks, Gift Shop, and for more refined dining, their Restaurant. Rooms may be rented by contacting Hawk's Nest Lodge at 304-658-5212 if you wish to make a weekend of it!

The Lodge's lawn gives over a football field of room for melee practice before we go to War, as well as any last-minute authorizations that might be needed. Our Knight Marshal is already making plans how best to use this opportunity!

The best part? There is no site fee! (although donations are welcome, as is a dish for the Potluck)

So come join the Barony of Blackstone Mountain and enjoy our hospitality at our Day in the Park this June 10th, 2023!

All questions may be sent to the Event Steward, THLady Kathryn MacLuing

(Kathy Kemmish) at her email: ladykathrynmcluing@gmail.com. Cellphone is 304-206-8270, calls accepted between 11a=11p. Snail-mail: Kathy Kemmish PO Box 329 Ansted WV, 25812. She is also easily found on the Book of Faces.
