Words from Their Majesties

Greetings Artemisia!

We are humbled by the support, wisdom, and love of Our good people. You fill our hearts with joy and pride in your prowess on and off the field. Crown Tournament was... in a word, Magic. Thank you to the Shire of Cote du Ciel for providing such a magnificent site, well-orientated to be seen by all. It was such a boon to be able to host this as a free event and to enjoy the day with over 100+ fresh faces curious about our strange little hobby. Each of you took time to introduce yourself and share a piece of your joy with another, and it spread exponentially as is evidenced in all of the images captured by our talented photographers. Thank you to those that took their time and skill to capture the day. To the combatants and their inspiration, you honored your kingdom and its people with your grace, talent, and chivalry. Each of you would have been a blessing to share our reign with. And finally, to Our Heirs, Tearlach, and Ursa. Though it is your first adventure toward the throne, you come mightily prepared. We accept and welcome you both at Our side and look forward to the journey together.

We turn our sites now toward Quest for the Boqtoq, Queen's Road, and so many events as the summer calendar explodes into activity on a nearly non-stop basis. We have refreshed our yurts and camping gear and are prepared to slay the warmer months.

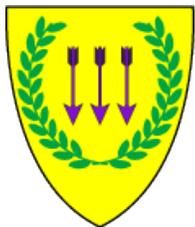

We look forward to seeing you all soon. Please spare a moment to say hello. We love your faces.

Quest for the Boqtaq Barony Gryphon's Lair

June 10, 2023 Provo UT

On the 17th of November, A.S. 55, the Mongols returned to our beloved Artemisia, and the Mongol rule will continue for the foreseeable future. Join us as we honor our Mongol royalty, and we Quest for the Boqtaq.

The Boqtaq, or The Big Red Hat, was worn by Mongol warrior women as they celebrated the defeat of their enemies. It represented the boots of their conquered foe, worn heel side up on the heads of women. This tradition found it's way to the queens, princesses, and noble women of the Mongol courts, eventually becoming a standard celebration accessory.

On Saturday, the 10th of June, Gryphon's Lair will host its annual Quest Event. Come Quest for the Boqtaq. Quest teams will be formed on the day of the event and will include at least one heavy, one rapier and one child. All those wishing to participate will be included on a team. Fighters, please remember your membership cards and fighting authorizations. Prizes yet to be determined.

The earliest proof of Europeans setting foot on the continent of Australia is 1606. So Europeans regularly visiting Australia are off the end of what we consider in-period. But what about Australians visiting Europe? The first living Australian visiting Europe happened in the mid-13th century. Who was he, and how do we know? In the De Arte Venandi cum Avibus (The Art of Hunting With Birds) from the 1240s is an image of IT, a cockatoo. These four images of a white cockatoo pre-date an Italian altarpiece embroidered with a cockatoo from 1496. It turns out that the specific species in question is a yellow-crested cockatoo, which comes from northeastern Australia. In the case of the manuscript, the particular bird was a gift to Holy Roman Emperor Frederick II from the Sultan of Egypt. One can only imagine the years of travel such a bird experienced over trade routes from Oceania to Europe. So before Marco Polo went to China, a cockatoo came to Italy. And now you know more random carp.
