Words of the Crown

Krake and Beatrix, most humble majesties of the Black Dragon Thrones,

Greetings Drachenwald, once again your most humble Majesties Beatrix and Krake bring you news and tidings from around our Kingdom!

Spring is very much upon us and we have just spent a warm, sunny and beautiful weekend in the prosperous Barony of Aarnimetsä, celebrating learning and knowledge.

But as always there is no rest for the wicked and we have barely returned home to our castle until it is time to start planning for new adventures! Double Wars is drawing nearer and we are thinking hard on how to make this event the most magical for all of us!

There will be courts! And plenty of them! There will also be great tournaments, a glorious market, two exciting wars, fantastic classes, late night parties and tasty foods. We will have plenty of time for crafts, hot tubs, hanging out on a blanket in the sun, meetings, sauna and all the other things that make Double Wars the amazing event that it is!

And for all of this to happen we do ask you all to please sign up for a shift or two to help out! For the dream to be as great as possible, we all need to do what we can to help. We would also like to ask those of you who enjoy making small things to help us with award tokens, to ensure both we and our heirs can give away a small token for the awards you all deserve. It is especially tokens for Ordo Cygni, Ordo Hirundinis and the Order of the Silver Guard that we are running low on.

Thank you all for participating and working hard for the society and the dream! We look forward to seeing you soon in a sunny glade in the forest
Your most humble King and Queen.

Greetings from the Seneschal

Dear Drachenwald!
Greetings!

The number of events in our Kingdom Calendar is impressive. I want to attend all of them!

To have all events digital is really useful and makes it easy to find them and for the autocrats to update information. However, to make an event official it must also be published in the Dragon's Tale.

When the autocrat adds an event to the calendar, our talented Kingdom Chronicler Dafydd will get a copy which he then can print in the newsletter. If there is missing information to make it complete, the autocrat will receive an email about that.

Drachenwald is still looking for a bid for 12th Night 2024

Tova av Attemark
Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings from the Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of our wondrous Kingdom of Drachenwald,

The SCA has a number of announcements recently, including an announcement for applications for the position of society marshall. Membership cards seem to be progressing with the new systems and a limited newsletter archive (March & April 2023) is now available at:

<https://sca.app.neoncrm.com/np/clients/sca/neonPage.jsp?pageId=8&>

As stated before, I will update you on the state of the full newsletter archives as soon as I receive further information on that myself.

Finally, I would like to highlight the various webforms we have available on the Drachenwald web pages, specifically the event submission, and regnum submission forms. They automate a part of the bureaucracy and make life significantly easier for those of us who need to handle that aspect of the kingdom. An especial thank you to all of you who make use of them.

Yours in Service,

Dafydd Myfyrgar

Court Reports

Mynydd Gwyn Eisteddfod
11 Mar 2023 - Mynydd Gwyn

Ruling Royals: Prince Alexandre and Princess Eularia of Insulae Draconis

Court Herald: Maredudd ap Gwylim

Order of Ffraid

Eleanor of Alvechurch - scroll given, token given (scroll by Maredudd ap Gwylim)

Furthermore

- The Eisteddfod having been held to determine (by choice of Their Highnesses) the second Bard of Mynydd Gwyn, the Chairing of the Bard ceremony may only occur when there is peace in the land. The herald asked three times “A oes Heddwch?” (Is there peace?) and each time the sword carrier partially unsheathed the ceremonial sword (in case the answer should be negative). Each time the populace replied “Heddwch!” (Peace!) and the sword was firmly slid back into its scabbard. Peace being confirmed, Their Highnesses announced Their Will that Lady Cecily of Okynfirth should be seated beside them in the silver Bardic Chair as the new Bard of Mynydd Gwyn. A scroll to commemorate her winning (by Maredudd ap Gwylim) was presented.

- Their Highnesses welcomed those for whom this was their first Insulae Draconis Court (one completely new to the Known World), and then also those children present.

- Ysabella-Maria the Lazarene was commanded to appear where, Their Highnesses being much pleased with the horoscope presented at Their ascending to the Coronet, They were pleased to confirm the said Y-M as Their Court Astrologer, for the duration of Their Reign (or until some prediction should prove either false, or in some way displeasing to Their Highnesses).

- The Event team was thanked for their work.

Arts in April - the March edition!
18 Mar 2023 - Turmstadt.

Ruling Royals: Baroness Katherina of Knight's Crossing

Court Herald: Dominic Beniamin

Gesellschaft der Sterne

Hedwig Webersdotter - scroll given, token given (illumination by: Kazariyya al Wahid & Mathilde de Rouen; calligraphy by: Ellisa von Berenklaw; token taken from Her Excellency's dress)

Order of the Golden Book

Celestria de Cerdren - scroll given, token given (illumination by: Bridget Greywolf; calligraphy by: Ellisa von Berenklaw)

Furthermore

- As the herald began the procession, he was scolded for being too loud by those present, because they didn't want him to awaken Victoria the Goblin of Turmstadt. They seemed to fear disturbing her slumber as one might fear awakening Albion. It should be noted that this was the least disruptive Victoria has ever been in Her Excellency's court, despite her occasional snoring. I do not understand why she has been tolerated.

- Her Excellency called forth Magistra Anna Syveken to recognise her and her helpers for putting together a wonderful event. She was not present and had to be requested from the kitchen, because Pelican.

- Court was ended soon after and a hasty exit was made and certainly not because the herald had said anything about Their Excellencies' age or wrinkles and greying hair, while reminding those present of the upcoming polling.

- During feast, Her Excellency gave personal thanks to Agilmar Martell von Sevelingen for being an overall swell guy.

- I also learned why so many feared waking Victoria the Goblin. At every opportunity, she seemed compelled to present her entry for the Dragonvision Bard Tourney. It has been described, rather accurately, as a cross between the sound of two alley cats in the throes of passion and angry goats screaming.

Bootcamp
18 Mar 2023 - Knights Crossing

Ruling Royals: King Krakke

Court Herald: Lief Wolfsonne

Order of the Dragon's Jewel

Elric Fitz Jon - scroll and token given

Order of the Pelican (Backlog)

Aelric of Battle - scroll given (illumination and calligraphy by Maestra Ellisif Gydasdottir)

Orden des Lindqustringes (Backlog)

Giles Gyllott - scroll given (illumination by Maestra Ellisif and calligraphy by Hedwig Webeisdotter; presented with the assistance of the ghost of Queen Cornelia)

March Lune-acy
25 Mar 2023 (not 30 Dec 1899) - Depedene under Wychedwood

Ruling Royals: Prince Alexandre and Princess Eularia of Insulae Draconis

Court Herald: Ari Mala (from inside a very dark scallop)

Order of the Fox

Lena the Red - scroll given, token given (scroll by Viscountess Valda, words by Viscount Joel Ben Stuart)

Furthermore

- Children and newcomers were welcomed.

- Yannick of Normandy was named Royal Cartographer.

- The A and S competition winners were announced: Lady Afridr (there should be an eth (crossed D) in there) won with a lovely blue fur-lined hat. Mistress Maria Harsick won the people's choice with her basket of “beginners' braids”.

- Their Highnesses created Lady Elen Benet their champion of arts and sciences.

- Lady Amphelise and Master Yannick announced that the long summer event henceforward shall be known as Ormthing. (That, too, should be an eth, not a TH.) They unveiled a banner for the event that the good lady had made. At this point there was speculation that perhaps Master Yannick should just be called up for every item, as this was the fourth or fifth time he was called into court—and he was already being a pelican-in-waiting to Their Majesties! He wrote the story, read eloquently by His Highness.

Adventures to and fro (Part 2)

- Penned by Keldor, translated by Kareina

The day of the tournament had arrived.

Breakfast, a solid one: coffee, and a hardboiled egg.

Gear up, fix a thrusting tip, and find someone to warm up with.

We were 14 participants, from former kings, future kings and queens, and some who mostly wanted to see how they do playing at this level.

The tournament started with a procession and presentation, usually a boast of some sort.

Kareina provided ours:

“I, Kareina Talventytär, Viscountess of Oertha by right of Inspiration, bring to the field of honour today my might and prowess:

I have been recognised by the Crown of the West with right to bear a wreath of laurel for my skill with needle and thread. I have been honoured by the Crown of Drachenwald with feathers of Panache for the love and enthusiasm with which I enhance the Kingdom with my contributions to the bardic arts, dance, and acrobatics.

With these great skills, and by entering the tournament today, I shall change the course of history, for, in every round of the day's the list I will change by plus or minus one the total count of victories for all of our dear friends who contest for the right win the Crown of Drachenwald for the one whose favour we bear.

I am inspired today by my love, Keldor of Skellitta, a smith of renown, who enhances the beauty and the sharpness of Kingdom with the blades he forges, and whose skill in the kitchen has nourished the Kingdom. His presence in Drachenwald strengthens the Kingdom, not only through his own skills at arms, which are formidable indeed, but also because he has helped to grow the Kingdom's armies by crafting armour for so many people. He has been teaching fighters in the North for so many years that more than one of Drachenwald's Kings has gained their skill, in part, from the wisdom Keldor has shared.

Therefore, with your Majesties permission, we would like to fight for one another in your tournament.”

We were granted permission.

(You can read the boasts on Drachenwald's FB page, under the boast thread, they are well worth reading.)

Kavalahti Camping Site (Björnvikintie 109, 10230 Inkoon as), Inkoo, Finland. About an hour from Helsinki by car, and 90 minutes from Turku. There is also public transportation that comes rather close (bus on Route 51, train to Karjaa).

If you require transport from Karjaa train station to the site please inform the event stewards no later than 16th of June about this. Rides will only be organized for foreign guests and only if preordered. The price for the ride is 10 eur each way so if you require a ride both ways the price is 20 eur.

The event is foremost a tent camp. Some indoor accommodation in shared houses/cabins is available. The site has drinkable tap water inside and proper toilets. There are showers in the saunas. Meals

Three meals are served daily: generous breakfast, light lunch and a warm supper. We serve two feasts during the event, the first is on Wednesday and other on the second Saturday. There are also two small kitchens for those who want to cook for themselves.

We will not be able to serve meals or feasts for everyone due to the small kitchen, so please reserve early.

All meals are low lactose. There will also be a vegetarian option. Unfortunately we may not be able to provide meals for people with any other dietary requirements. Please consider that there is always a risk of contamination, because we don't have a separate kitchen for the allergy foods.

Announcements - Feedback received by SCA Inc.

Recently the following statement occurred on the personal Facebook page of the Board's Executive Assistant, Leslie Luther-Fulton
My husband is a very wise man. He reminded me that 125 of 25000 is one-half of one percent. And that is my vague booking for the day

The statement was removed after approximately 20 minutes.

While it is not normally the practice of SCA Inc. to comment on the personal posts of its employees, the statement has been interpreted as a sign of disregard or contempt for the feedback SCA Inc. receives from participants.

Mr Fulton's full quote which was paraphrased by his wife is as follows:

'Over the last five years the 125 or so people removed from the Society do not represent at all the vast numbers of the members let alone those who participate and are not members. Maybe one half of a percent of everyone who is just a member.'

Ms Luther-Fulton apologizes for the impression her post created.

All feedback that is received by SCA Inc. is read and actively considered. Changes and improvements to how the Society and the corporation works have been made based on previous feedback received and will continue to be made.

We thank everyone who cares enough to take the time to share their thoughts and ideas for the future.

Announcements - Accidental Release of Business-In-Confidence Info

On January 29th, 2023, SCA Inc. Information Technology was notified by concerned members that the archives of the SCA-Comments list serve were accessible to the public. Although it is not the designated reporting channel, the comments email address has, at times, been used as a harassment and discrimination reporting vehicle. Subsequently, the breach had the potential to jeopardize a victim's right to privacy and SCA Inc's responsibility of protection for them. Upon receipt of this information, my team immediately acted to shut down the breach. However, data had been exposed long enough that several search engines had crawled and archived the data. The extent of this security breach was emails sent to along side of comments@lists.sca.org/SCA-Comments@lists.sca.org between March 2020 and January of 2023.

The initial exposure was contained within a few hours of notification. Over the next couple of days other avenues of exposure to the same and similar data were found and locked down. My team began the process of getting the search engines to remove their archives of the information. At this point, we believe all access to that data has been removed and we feel that publishing this information will not cause further risk to any individuals concerned or the organisation.

The root cause of the breach was a misconfigured archive setting when the email address for comments was changed last year. To prevent further similar occurrences, SCA-comments has been moved entirely off the list serve system. The correct email address for comments is "SCA-comments@sca.org" (although the 'lists.sca.org' address will still work for now). This has been active for some time.

SCA Inc. Information Technology apologizes for any alarm or inconvenience anyone may have suffered because of this breach. Particular thanks go to Matthew Simon Ryan Cavalletto (Mathghamhain Ua Ruadháin) for initially alerting us to and helping assess the scope of the issue.

Anyone wishing to further discuss this matter should contact me (it@sca.org) and John Fulton, SCA Inc. President (president@sca.org).

Announcements - Membership Card Update

I am pleased to announce that Membership Cards are back! If you've renewed your membership during the past quarter and elected to receive a paper membership card, keep an eye on your mailbox. The files are at the printer and all cards will go out via USPS beginning Wednesday, April 19. Going forward, membership cards will be printed and mailed twice a month to ensure that people who select the physical card option will receive it in a timely fashion.

A new fully-digital option for your SCA Membership Card will shortly be available. Proof of membership details will also continue to be accessible through the Membership Portal.

Transferring from our old system to a completely new type of CRM certainly presented some unique challenges from a data import perspective, but I am happy to report that nearly all issues affecting member profiles have been resolved. Thank you to everyone who has patiently assisted us with discovering and resolving these bugs so far.

As you may know, this significant systems upgrade coincided with some extremely severe winter weather in the San Francisco Bay Area, where the Corporate Office is located, and our small staff is now working through a significant backlog of requests and communications. We have temporarily taken on additional resources to address this, and it is anticipated that membership processing will return to a more regular cadence from late April onward.

The need to find new software also presented us with the opportunity to reduce related costs. Our new member software represents an 83% annual savings compared to our previous system. This is part of our ongoing drive to find appropriate corporate savings wherever possible.

Thank you once again to everyone for their kindness and patience during this time. I continue to investigate opportunities to improve the portal experience based on your feedback and can be contacted at membership@sca.org. Please note that due to the high volume of correspondence we have received there may be some delays in response time.

Yours in Service,

Louise Du Cray
Vice President for Corporate Operations & Member Services
