From the Kingdom Officers

From the East Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of the East,

I know we have many skilled photographers and artisans in the East and I would love the opportunity to showcase your work to the Knowne World (yes, anyone can see our newsletters online).

I have spoken with a few photographers and they have been gracious enough to allow me to use their photos on the cover of this newsletter. I am always looking for more, though, so if you would like your photos to have a chance of making it onto a future cover, please send me an email granting this office permission to use your photos and post anything you feel meets your own standards in the unofficial Facebook Group called "East Kingdom Photography".

Original works of art are always welcomed as well! If your talents lie in this area, please feel free to email your work to me noting that you grant permission to use that work on the cover of a Pikestaff.

On a different note, I would like to remind all Chroniclers serving Baronies, Provinces, and Pricipalities that your groups require a newsletter and that an electronic courtesy copy to my office is required (quarterly at a minimum). An electronic courtesy copy sent to the Society Archivist is also required. There are still several groups from whom I have not received copies since April 2022, when I took office. Full details can be found here: <https://chronicler.eastkingdom.org/localpolicies/index.htm> - also see the second box on the right!

Second emails have now been sent to all group Chroniclers, and their Seneschal, who are still not meeting the requirements of their office.

Though no action is yet planned with regard to warrants, groups that require a Chronicler, and whose current officer is not performing their required duties, could be at risk if they lose their warranted Chronicler.

In Service,

THL Antony Martin of Sheffield

Southern Region War Camp June 2-4, Barony of Carillion (Manalapan, NJ)

Once again the mighty Tyger Army prepares for War!

All are welcome to join the Southern Army at this year's War Camp. As in the past there will be heavy combat, fencing, archery, and thrown weapons.

We will also be having a "Plague Sale", and a Silent auction to support Runnymede 50! To support the effort we will host an artisan silent auction. If any of your fine artisans would be willing to donate a piece to help us raise funds for an evening of entertainment and merriment for the Barons and Baroness. We would like to post the objects prior to the event with starting bids so people can come prepared for the auction. I would request items (or good photo) of item by May 26. Questions, comments etc can be sent to baroness@eastkingdom.carillion.org

Merchants are always welcome.

Childrens activities will be organized by Mairghread Knox

Attention all OGRs, MoDs, and White Scarves: We will be holding a fencer style "speed dating" meet and greet similar to what GNEW runs. It's an opportunity for new fencers to come out, have a couple passes with someone they not be familiar with, get some feedback, and move on to the next. Notebooks and pens will be available for everyone to provide feedback so individuals don't have to try and remember everything they've been told.

This will start at 10:00 am on Saturday on the fencing field. If you are interested in participating please contact Gracie (mka Cathy Griswold).

The Southern Region Cavalry is proud to once again host a mounted archery event! Schedule to be provided soon!

If you are attending SRWC with your horse, please email Duchess Kiena Stewart (163328@members.EastKingdom.org) with your arrival and departure dates and time. I am still working out if equestrians will be on-site all weekend or just Saturday. Out of state (NJ) equestrians will need to provide proof of negative coggins. Please feel free to send that via email ahead of time.

Registration fees:

Adult: $20 for non-members / $15 for members

Children under 18 are free.

Crofters Moon Schola June 9-11, Shire of Anglespur (Melrose, NY)

The Strawberry Moon in June is the perfect time knock the dust off your camp gear and dig back into weekend medieval outdoor activities! The rolling hills in the Shire of Anglespur are the perfect place for our first Crofters Moon Schola. It is a 2 day event located at Lui na Greine Feirme's dedicated 40 acre medieval backlot. The event will run from Friday June 9th at 5pm to Sunday June 11th at 3pm. The activities will be focused on hands-on exploration of the skills a medievalist would have needed to thrive in a village. Communal medieval projects will be the backbone of this event to help hone early building skills. Not into building? No problem! The fiber arts will be well represented here as well. Our A&S minister is excited to showcase the amazing teachers and talent that we have in the Shire with a variety of different workshops. There will be youth activities centered around our theme, opportunities to forage the forest and fields for the cook pot, chances to build fires and loads of opportunities to make new friends and meet up with old ones! Thrown weapons, archery, youth fighting and rapier are happening as well! A bardic bonfire will be hosted on Saturday night.

Check the Shire of Anglespur website for more detailed information about events happening in our Shire <https://anglespur.eastkingdom.org/events-and-meetings>

Novice Schola
June 10, Barony of Bergental
(South Hadley, MA)

This year's event will be a little bit of a twist on our classic day of learning and shenanigans. We're focusing on turning our eyes to the East (and we don't just mean the East Kingdom). This year's schola will offer classes that focus on Eastern Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa. Our goal is to provide tracks for youth, newcomers, and even our veteran players.

PiXiu's Hunt – This treasure-focused Team Scavenger Hunt is open to all ages.

Arts & Science Display - Have you made something you would like to share but don't necessarily want to enter in competition? We would love to have you display what you've been working on. New and experienced players are encouraged to participate. The more displays, the bigger the opportunity to help someone discover something new.

Bardic Quest - Lady Isabelle has returned from her long travels overseas. While there she longed for the music and stories of her friends. She challenges all our would-be bards to bring their new "Old Favorite" to share. This can be music or a story that you have discovered, rediscovered, or just wish to put your own spin on.

If you would be interested in teaching or running a workshop we have indoor, outdoor, workshop, and virtual space. Please contact Lizbette St Michael for more details. (email address)

21st Annual Penn-Mar Irish Festival Demo June 17, Shire of Owlsherst (Glen Rock, PA)

This is Owlsherst's annual Demo event at the PennMar Irish Festival. Our volunteers are given free admission to the festival, which features great music, food, and merchants. This festival is very family-friendly and is easy to get to - only a few miles off I-83 in Shrewsbury, PA.

We are given a large amount of space to fill - come help us fill it! We typically have a lot of fiber arts and food/cooking representation, plus decent scribal arts representation at this demo (but more is good!). We welcome practitioners of all arts and sciences - we just ask that if your discipline involves fire or other safety hazards, please contact us in advance so we can clear that with the festival organizers.

We are especially seeking rattan, rapier and youth fighters for the martial arts demonstrations, and we also find ourselves short on marshals for rattan and rapier this year.

Return to The Markets at Shrewsbury with the gentle folk of Owlsherst to show the skills that we've enjoyed over the long dark winter. Educate festival goers on the modern middle ages through working your craft, trivia games, or just letting children fight you in front of a crowd. Enjoy traditional and contemporary Irish musicians, dancers, food, and a wide variety of vendors.

This is a demo, so there are no fees.

Potted Arms and Fancy Faire June 17, Canton of Hawke's Reache (Huntington, NY)

Join the Canton of Hawke's Reache for our annual event, "Potted" Arms and Fancy "Faire"! Spring has flowered into summer and Prefect Titus and Baroness Sorcha travel the lands of An Dubhaigeainn to collect their tithes on the way to the Pennsic War. The Canton of Hawkes Reache welcomes them with a Summer Faire complete with a tournament to select the new Baronial Fencing Champion. There will be a hearty day board served throughout the day. No feast will be served but fear not, for none shall leave hungry! We will have a repeat of the always lively "Hat Auction", where the populace can bid for a fencer represented by their hat, with the proceeds benefiting the Canton of Hawkes Reache. If that rapier fighter wins the Hat Tournament, the bidder wins a prize! The Baronial Fencing Tournament will help Their Excellencies decide on the next Baronial Rapier Champion based on demonstration of skill, courtesy, and pageantry. The format will be chosen by the current Baronial Fencing Champion, Demetrio Antelini da Lucca. All may enter; only a Duck may serve as Champion. Each entrant to the Baronial Tournament must have their introduction to the list prepared for a herald to read, and entrants are strongly encouraged to bring their own "over the top" Herald (like in "A Knight's Tale"). There will be a prize and recognition for best Heraldic entrance performance! So bring your chairs and blankets to take respite upon the lawns and watch the fencing and silly games. Merchants are most welcome to help us get in fine shopping form for Pennsic! Please contact the Event Steward to register to merchant. Additional activities will be announced as they are confirmed.
