Unto The Outlands and Her most wonderful people, does Mordygan and Ymanie, Dread Lord and Lady of All Argonia, send happiest of greetings!

This past month saw the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable host a most wonderful Crown Tournament. The generosity of time and effort made for a wonderful event and We cannot be thankful enough. We look forward to this opportunity to serve The Outlands in this capacity.

As we move through the end of spring and into summer many events begin to fill the calendar. We had a wonderful time seeing the happy retirements of Their Honors Seamus and Angel and the investiture of Maistir Turlough and Magistra Adelaisa as the new coronet of Dragonsspine! And what a Grand Outlandish Tournament! Thanks for all the hard work that went into making the event fun and exciting.

June sees many events, such as Quest for F's in the Shire of Windkeep, the Barony of Citadel is hosting a halfa in the beautiful white sands of the southern Outlands, and Caer Galen will find their new champions at their Defender. We will be visiting Our cousins and friends in Calontir at War of the Lilies, where many fun adventures await. At the end of this month will see the return of BATTLEMOOR! Come join Us when and where you can and we will share in the bounty that is The Outlands. On Saturday evening at the hafla hosted by the Barony of al-Barran, We invite you to join Us as We celebrate Our birthdays!

As We begin to put Our Royal Household together, We would ask any that might wish to join Our House, please contact Us through the heirs@outlands.org email address.

Ever in service to The Outlands and Her people,

From the Office of the Seneschal

Greetings,

This will be my last time addressing you as Kingdom Seneschal. I would like to think that we are in a better place than we were when I first stepped into this position. I would like to think those Kingdom Officers, and friends who have helped me through COVID, reopening of SCA activities, and now transitioning into a new normal.

I would like to specially thank Mistress Melodia, Master Jethro, The Honorable Lord Edric, Baroness Diana and Master Carlos. Without all your work we would not have been able to keep moving forward through a very difficult time. There are many more I would like to thank, but do not have the band width.

The future of the Kingdom is looking much brighter. Battlemoor is coming this summer! We are holding regularly scheduled events and practices. I am leaving the Seneschal in the capable hands of Her Excellency Ayse and her team Sir Hrollief and Countess Connel.

I am looking forward to retirement and hope to see many of you soon.

Yours,

Mistress Christine Woyade
Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Outlanders!

I am honored to step up into the office of the Seneschal at Grand Outlandish Tournaments. As the chief administrative officer and legal representative for the Outlands, I hope I can bring my modern skills to the roll and exceed the expectations of the Crown and the populace. Please join me in congratulating Mistress Christine Woyade for her Service to this kingdom in leading us through the Plague Years and into the return of in person SCA activities. Mistress Christine has a passion for See Something, Say Something training and she will be staying on as my Emergency Deputy as she continues to use her modern skills to educate and inform the populace and assist with any investigations that may result. The Office of the Seneschal works closely with all other kingdom officers and I look forward to making new relationships and strengthening existing bonds with my Kingdom partners.

I will be hosting a "Seneschal on Duty" table at GOT in town square on Friday and Saturday. Think of it as a Kingdom Help Desk. Please feel free to stop by and introduce yourself and have a chat. Do not hesitate to contact me with any insights, feedback, or questions that the Office of the Seneschal may be of assistance.

In Service I Remain,

Baroness Ays,e al-Rumiyya, CSO

From the Royal Outlands Interkingdom University

Greetings, Outlanders, on this First Day of Anno Societatis LVIII, and the Feast of Saint Sigismund of Burgundy, Patroness of Book-Lovers!

I am honored to have been appointed by Their Majesties and by vote the Regents to the position of Dean of the Royal Outlands Interkingdom University (ROIU). I am deeply indebted to my predecessor, Bantiarna Gráinne Shocair, for her many years of dedication and service to the University. I hope that I will be a worthy successor to the office.

The ROIU exists to promote teaching and learning, and to connect teachers to students, across all areas of focus in the SCA. We are in the process of upgrading and updating to fulfill this role even better in the future. Look for articles online and in the "Outlandish Herald," as well as on the ROIU's Facebook group and, most importantly, the University website: <https://roiou.outlands.org>.

The University is managed by a Board of Regents. Our three current Regents (beside myself) have served for multiple years and they are due a well-earned retirement. Serving as a Regent is a fun way to help shape the direction of the University and does not require any particular rank or skill related to the Arts & Sciences-- just an interest and the ability to attend quarterly meetings online. If you are interested in more information on being an ROIU Regent, please email us at roiou@outlands.org.

Lastly, the ROIU website is jam-packed with information for both teachers and students, including online courses and, in the near future, classes at upcoming events.

Outlanders, the ROIU is your University! Please feel free reach out to us with your thoughts and suggestions.

Timothy O'Brien, OP
Dean of the Royal Outlands Interkingdom University

In ancient times, when mountain winters were colder than cold and desert summers were hotter than hot, wise leaders of Atenveldt created a winter festival called Estrella where frozen northerners could come warm up in the gentle rays of the southern winter sun. Guests were welcomed with open arms and hearts. Alliances were forged, gifts were exchanged, and feasts and revels abounded.

In due time, with great delight, the wise leaders of the Outlands created a summer festival called Battlemoor, in the cool mountains where sun baked southerners could find surcease. Alliances are strengthened, hospitality is joyfully returned, and feasts and revels abound. Battlemoor has become the gathering place for the all the widespread peoples of the region to meet old friends and new, to exhibit valor, and to have fun in a myriad of ways.

The spring winds did blow, heralding the thaw in the lands to the north. The Kingdom of the Outlands' distant mountain shire prepared to host friends and revel in the summer with meat and mead. Yet, great insult did come in the form of plague and thinning manpower. Now as spring once more approaches and the fires of pestilence burn a low ember the north thaws once more and the company of beloved friends are sorely missed.

At the edge of the world in unmapped and unexplored lands were the illustrations of fantastic beasts, monsters and dragons. Here at the edge of the kingdom stands lands lonely and wide. Hic Svnt Dracones. Come let us revel in good company at the edge of the map. Let us pay satire to our divine insult and chase away such affront with laughter and mockery of our own.

Heavy Tournament, light tournament, archery rounds and night bardic are all planned as with an arts tent for those that wish to craft. Fun and jokes are most welcome.

See Something Say Something

In this game we call the SCA, we like to think that everyone is always on their best behavior and abides by chivalric values and courtesy. In fact, at the Society level, we have a Code of Conduct which we should all abide by. Unfortunately, sometimes people have bad days, or misbehave under the influence, or bad things just happen.

In these situations, do we truly know how to respond? I certainly do not know how to respond all the time. In minor situations, say one overhears unkind words said, it does not hurt to talk to the person and ask them what they mean or if they mean to be hurtful. Other times we may observe something that just doesn't seem right to us. In these cases, it does not hurt to ask someone what is going on.

If you see something that you don't quite feel is right, please reach out to the person involved, or if you don't feel comfortable talking to them, reach out to a friend. Get them to help. If you think it is serious, please reach out to the Event's Autocrat, and your Local Seneschal. If it is illegal or someone is hurt and requires medical attention, please contact the mundane authorities immediately. Your local Seneschal or Autocrat should then be notified that the authorities are called.

These situations can be very confusing. To help you feel more comfortable taking action, we will be holding open discussions as to how one can deal with various situations. The most important is to remember if you see something, please, say something.
