From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Caidans!

His Majesty and I are excited for the start of Fall Tournament Season and the anticipation of Great Western War on the horizon. We know that we will see many displays of honor and chivalry on the field throughout the end of Summer and Fall.

Our journey to Pennsic was incredible. It was an honor to represent Caid to the Knowne World and We are so thankful to everyone who joined Us on the field and in camp. We would like to give a special acknowledgement to the household of Copper Hill and all the work they have done for the Caidan camp at Pennsic for many, many years and to the Embassy of Carraig Ban who's members helped swell Our guard. We look forward to continuing to build Caid's presence at Pennsic moving forward and encourage anyone who has ever dreamed of making the journey to watch for updates starting in January.

Fall Crown Tournament is almost upon us. We can't believe We will soon have heirs and We know that whoever emerges victorious will fight with honor and have a heart for Caid.

Great Western War is also coming up quickly. We look forward to celebrating with all of Our friends from far and near on the new November dates. Please keep your eyes open for event announcements and don't forget to pre-register!

These past few months, We have been speaking on Chivalric Virtues. This month, We would speak on Kindness. Some days, it is so easy to think that kindness no longer has a place in today's world. Sometimes, we feel that giving truth with empathy is weak -- that the vehemence of an argument is critical to its power. It is easy to believe that it is impossible to say hard things without being cruel or that it is better to not say anything at all. Or that any kindness we give is an opportunity for someone else's gain. But kindness is about building community. Making a new person feel welcome is kind. Offering to teach a new skill, ensuring that a fighter has had enough to drink, sitting with someone when they need a moment to collect themselves, having a heartfelt, difficult conversation with a friend-- these are all examples of kindness that we can give to others. And each kindness we show builds another connection, bringing us closer as a community. Even if the world is cruel, we can make a different choice. We can choose to lift others up and celebrate kindness as strength, not weakness. We are greater together.

Thank you Caid for being Our home. We look forward to each event as an opportunity to meet and befriend so many more of you.

In Service to the Dream,

Bjorn

Konung

Róisín

Cwene

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

This October, we get to celebrate Their Royal Majesties' heirs (Crown Tournament is 4 Oct) and final preparations begin for our – hopefully cooler – Great Western War (4-10 Nov). We also begin the final stretch of this year's tournament season with several territorial anniversaries, and I hope to see many of you at these wonderful events. The Society has also been busy with changes of their own to note.

- Three corporate offices have been filled: Corporate Communications Officer, Corporate Office of Inclusive Programs, and Society DEIB officer.
- The Society Earl Marshal published a new rattan armored combat handbook. The update is currently under review by the Caid Earl Marshal for implementation.
- The society published a consolidated reference for conduct and behavior in the SCA (<https://www.sca.org/conduct-behavior-in-the-sca/>)

Regarding the last bullet, the conduct and behavior publication is not a new policy; it is a single point of reference that more concisely communicates important expectations, ensuring that all members and participants conduct themselves in accordance with our core values and policies. Non-compliance with SCA policies may result in an investigation by my office and action by the Crown. Thus, if you are unfamiliar with them, they are well worth a read.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
--Sir Philip

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

I am thrilled to present this edition of The Crown Prints to you. This month has so many great events going on and I am very excited to participate in as many as possible. And I am anticipating seeing many more of the wonderful photos and stories you have all been sharing. With how many each of you shared over the past month, I have more than enough to fill these pages with artistry and craftsmanship 3x over. But alas, I only had enough space for a handful. Therefore, my plan is to trickle them through the next few editions and include any others that are shared. But I do feel like this is a good problem to have; showing off some of what this Kingdom can do. (I still have to figure out how to add more bardic.)

This feels like this will be just the start of a busy end of year. And I, for one, look forward to it all.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdóttir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid

DIRTY DOZEN LARGESSE COMPETITION:

There will also be a Dirty Dozen Largesse Competition this year. The winner will be announced at closing court and prizes to be disseminated afterward. Each participant will be able to pick a prize in the order of their ranking. Entrants are advised to create 12 items based on a theme that is suitable for largesse. For example: 12 needle books, 12 hats from different (or the same) period(s), 12 items suitable for a specific time period, 12 children's toys, etc. Note: items that traditionally are used in pairs should include twelve pairs, so 12 socks are not suitable as it is only 6 pairs.

All entries should be tagged with the item type, artisan's name and province, and be ready to be given the day of the competition. Items do not need to be documented as this is not an Arts and Sciences competition. Items should not have heraldry on them as they are meant to be presented in other areas.

Judging will be done by the populace in the following manner: Each entrant display will have a cup placed next to it. During the event, anyone may put a provided token into the cup accompanying their choice. Once voting closes, and all votes have been tallied, the entrant with the most tokens in their cup gets the first choice of 3 items from any of the entries as a prize. Each subsequent entrant then chooses from the remaining entries in order, according to the popular vote. Each entry may only be chosen once as a prize. The remaining 11 items from each entry will be given to Their Excellencies for use as largesse.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION: There is no Registration cost for this event. Donations are welcome.

SITE INFORMATION/RESTRICTIONS:

- ◇ This is a dry site—sharp projectiles and alcohol do not mix.
- ◇ Children must be supervised at all times by parents or guardians.
- ◇ Pets must be attended and on leash at all times, but are not allowed near the firing line.
- ◇ Pavilions and pop-ups are allowed and encouraged. Extra long stakes are needed for the soft soil.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT:

We will begin in the morning with a Round Robin Forester tournament, where archers will shoot in pools against other archers. The top eight will advance to the afternoon's single elimination tournament to determine the Champion. Between the pools and single elimination will be lunch and a team novelty shoot.

CROSSBOW TOURNAMENT:

Format will be determined based on the number of participants. Crossbows will also be part of the team novelty shoot.

THROWN WEAPONS TOURNAMENT:

This is still pending due to site restrictions under negotiation. Please remember to bring closed toed footwear if you wish to participate. If we cannot hold it here, our Thrown Weapons championship will be held at Great Western War.

COOKING CONTEST:

Altavia is pleased to host our Fretted Fork cooking contest. Bring your favorite dishes incorporating the ingredient of the day: mint. We will have a combined competition for both period and non-period recipes to choose the Baronial Champion. Documentation is not required for period entries, but is appreciated. Ingredient lists are strongly encouraged for safety of persons with allergies. Champion will be chosen by populace vote.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES: Altavia welcomes children, and we will have activities for them.

EVENT STEWARDS: Lady Vivienne de Chauvigny & THL Merlin Wynn

EVENT EMAIL: Agincourt@altavia.sca-caid.org

DIRECTIONS: (NOTE: If you're using a navigation app, please enter your destination as "Woodley Park Archery Range" rather than the street address. We checked; it's better this way.)

The site is located in the Sepulveda Basin Recreation Area west of the 405, between Burbank Boulevard and Victory Boulevard.

From the East: 101 Fwy North (which is actually heading west), transition to the 405 Fwy North, then follow the directions above.
