From the East Kingdom Seneschal

Hello East Kingdom!

My time as seneschal is getting closer to being over. As such, interested parties need to email myself and the Royalty (Royals and Heirs) to express their interest in the role. You should include an SCA resume to aid in making the selection!

My term ends in April, and I look forward to helping whoever is selected next transition into the office at Coronation!

Cheers,

Effing Thomas
East Kingdom Seneschal

From the East Kingdom Brigantia Herald

Greetings from Alys Brigantia to the good gentles of the East,

I stepped up into the office of Brigantia in January from having been Emergency Deputy. I thank my predecessor, Mistress Kirska, for her service and wish her all the good fortune.

I would ask anyone currently serving as a local branch herald, regional deputy or substantive deputy to Brigantia to get in touch with me at brigantia@eastkingdom.org if you have not done so already.

My mission is to improve communications within and among the College of Heraldry of the East Kingdom. So many people are doing good work in insolation, without others knowing about it and being able to benefit from it.

If you are a herald or want to be a herald, my virtual door is always open to chat and lend a hand or point you in the right direction.

In service,

Mistress Alys Mackyntoich, OP OL OD

The Cusp of Spring Schola, March 14, Barony of An Dubhaigeainn (Shirley, NY)

As the nights begin to shorten, and the days begin to grow long, the ducks of the Barony of An Dubhaigeainn awaken, excited for the new year. Spring Schola is a great time to learn, and participate in a variety of activities!

There will be classes, an A&S display, A&S competition, Bardic and more! The schedule will be posted closer to the event.

Classes:

TBA
We have a limited number of class spots remaining, if you want to teach a class please fill out the form here: <https://forms.gle/L8JbnsqbXagorr4JA>

A&S Display:

Have a project you're proud of that doesn't quite fit the theme, or don't want to compete for the championship? You can display your projects instead! Please contact the event steward if you are interested so we can ensure there is enough space.

A&S Competition:

An Introspective. Be creative in showcasing your inner duckness as art. Dapper drake? Mysterious mallard? Heroic hen? Gothic goldeneye? Wicked waterfowl? The choice of format and expression is yours. An actual duck need not be the center of the artwork but should at least be subtly represented.

Bardic Competition:

For all of recorded history, and likely before, people have passed on stories that cause unease and strike fear in the hearts of the assembled crowd. What tales are told vary, depending on the fears and beliefs of those telling the story. Perhaps an undead creature, back to torment the living, or a beast under the sea, sinking ships who dare enter its territory. Tell one of those stories at An Dubhaigeainn's Spring Schola. Whatever format goes, tell a harrowing tale of a walk through the dark woods, a poem about what lurks under the waves, a song about that which hides where the fire's light won't reach.

Additional information will be posted on the Baronial website at <https://andub.eastkingdom.org/wordpress/spring-schola-2026/>

Site is DRY
No live steel

Stonemarche Garb Schola III, March 21, Barony of Stonemarche (Gilford, NH)

Greetings again, to the well-garbed and the wanting-to-be-well-garbed populace of the East Kingdom!

Welcome to the next reprise of our very well loved Stonemarche Garb Schola! The event is held in the beautiful Lakes Region in the heart of the Barony of Stonemarche. Many folk were sad to be missing a Garb Schola in 2025, we all had such fun and learned a whole lot the last 2 times, so here we are again, at popular request, for round III.

As garb is such an integral part of how we play and represent our chosen time period, our persona and our personality, we know now that it deserves its very own schola. Not everyone feels ready to tackle the Iron Seamstress challenge but everyone, to different extents, wants to look good and feel comfortable in their garb, be it for a stroll down the aisles at Birka, a steamy summer day at GNEW or around a chilly Bardic around a fire at Harper's. And so, we are collecting some of those in the Kingdom for whom sewing is a passion and teaching is a joy to share their knowledge and get us on the track to sartorial respectability (looking real good in garb)! FYI, the term resplendent comes from the Latin resplendentem: "brilliant", the present participle of resplendere, "to glitter or shine". Synonyms include glory, radiant beauty. Sound like a goal?

As always, we will strive to have something for everyone, no matter where you are on your journey from beginner onward. We have tracks for beginner sewists from basic T-tunic construction to how to pick and know your fabrics, for intermediate and expert sewists around more specifics of patterning, construction, sewing, finishing, by machine and or by hand, your period appropriate garb. We have had a request for a footwear track this year, so if you have experience or a pattern you've used that you think you could help folks get going on, Please let us know. If you have a class you are dying to teach, or classes you are wishing to take, please let us know at the contacts below so that we can work on bringing you on this year and/or next years as we build.

One of the most fun highlights of last years Garb Schola as the "Fashion Show and Tell" over lunch, where teachers and attendees are encouraged to display and explain a bit about their garb. (Reprises from the Birka Fashion Show welcome!) The order is arranged from very early to very late period, and from all over the known world. We also plan to have a consultation table where some of our teachers will volunteer to sit and answer questions if you have a garb idea with which you are not sure where to start or garb in process where you've reached a sticky point and need some coaching.

We will have expanded spaces to work with this year, and hope that our numbers will be even better than they already have been, so bring your friends! Bring a newcomer or curious stranger! There will be Gold Key for folks who have yet to build their first garb so it is a great beginning event for newcomers who wonder how this whole "dress up like it is 1467" works!

This is a respectfully wet site. Please plan accordingly.

There will be a light dayboard made for us by the fabulous Iride Corsellini of Stonemarche (menu pending), and attendees are asked to bring something day-board-ish to fill that out as we share in a partial pot-luck. Foods can be period-ish, or modern, no shade either way.

There is also a nice sandwich shop right down the road if you would rather purchase a lunch off site. Their website with menu is linked here: <https://www.thegilfordvillagestore.com>

Many of us shop at Amazon for a wide range of products. Alas, smile.amazon.com is no longer providing a portion of your purchases to a non-profit group chosen by the buyer. Should any new ways to help the SCA pop up, then that info will appear here! If you find something, please send an email to Chronicler@Eastkingdom.org so I can list it.
