From Her Majesty

Proclamation on the Care, Keeping, and Occasional Waywardness of the Western Sheep

GOOD GENTLES OF THE WEST, HEAR NOW THE WORDS OF YOUR QUEEN, CONCERNING THE WESTERN FLOCK:

It is known throughout the Northern Marches and beyond that Allyshia has, since time out of mind, maintained a Baronial flock of, long-suffering, oft-abducted, and much beloved, sheep. These sheep have wandered Marches events, been brazenly stolen in broad daylight, ransomed, rescued, adopted, lost, returned, embellished, and occasionally embarrassed by their keepers. This is as it should be.

Traditionally, an Allyshian Shepherd is named to guard and tend the Allyshian flock, and each year that Shepherd is called before the Barony at Heron's Pool to return what remains of the sheep and receive thanks and gentle mockery.

When We were elevated to Royal status, Her Excellency of Allyshia gifted Us some sheep to begin a Western Flock. At that time, however, there was no Western Shepherd to guard these sheep (and no – Enoch/David Bailey – one may not be both Shepherd and Pope. We believe strongly in the separation of church and state, and of crook and crozier).

OF THE QUEEN'S CHARGE

We charged Our Guard, at 12th Night, with the solemn and ridiculous duty of guarding the flock and rescuing any wayward sheep that may have become separated from their true guardians. They do this not as tyrants, but as caretakers, operating with good humor.

OF THE SHEEP THEMSELVES

- The Sheep Are Meant to Be Seen: Western sheep are encouraged to attend events, for Allyshia born sheep thrive on attention and mischief.

- The Sheep Should be "Rescued"
The populace is welcome, nay, encouraged, to test the vigilance of the guard by "rescuing" sheep when they are left unattended in public spaces.

- No entering private tents, vehicles, or homes to "rescue" sheep.

- No hidden alarms, trackers, or traps inside the sheep (it isn't funny to have your sheep alarm at 3am every morning)

- What May Be Done With a "Rescued" Sheep
A sheep may be:

- Returned to Myself
- Ransomed back to its guardian
- Sold/Rented for its mercenary or other services
- Temporarily kept and cherished
- Taken on well documented trips to exotic lands
- And other mischief...

- However, all sheep are expected to return at Beltane, where the flock is to be reckoned and the guardians appropriated thanks as is the Allyshia tradition.

- Adding to the Flock: The populace is encouraged to add to the flock, within reason and with good taste. Sheep should be safe, visible, and suitable for polite society.

A FINAL WORD

Let none take this too seriously; this is a game, not a grievance. It is a Northern Marches tradition, and a shared joke stretching back further than memory. They exist to foster mischief, laughter, and connection, not resentment or strife.

Guard the flock.

"Rescue" with flair.

And may all sheep, however far they wander, find their way home.

With Joy and Whimsy,

Zhigmun' & Lia

From Their Highnesses of Oertha

Greetings to the populace of Oertha,

This past weekend truly highlighted the incredible dedication the officers and volunteers of the SCA show in bringing our shared dream to life. Their unwavering commitment to our Principality is nothing short of heroic, and We cannot express enough our heartfelt gratitude for all their efforts. Without each and every one of them, this dream could neither continue nor succeed.

A special thank you goes out to Silvia, Melissa, and your entire team for taking on the monumental task of organizing inter Coronet. We were deeply saddened that the weather prevented this event from being held in it's planned location, but Oertha eagerly anticipates the day when we can once again revel in the beauty of Hrafnafjordr together.

Our sincere thanks also go to our Seneschal, Kinehild, for tackling the immense challenge of ensuring that Oertha could safely hold Coronet. Your efforts, along with those who assisted you, went above and beyond to make this possible.

We also want to express our appreciation to Their Majesties, Kolskeggr and Katelinen, for making the journey to Oertha. We hope to see you return soon.

The theme for Our reign is "Joy and Inclusion." We encourage all to find joy in those pursuits and skills that you practice or are learning. Take a moment to introduce yourself to someone you have not yet met or someone who is new to our group. As the days grow longer and Oertha awakens from winter to spring, We look forward to seeing you all at future events.

Soren and Clare,

Prince and Princess of Oertha
