Words from the Crown

Unto the radiant Kingdom of Atenveldt do We, Your Crown, send warm greetings beneath the ever-burning Sun.

The month of July settles fully upon our lands, and with it comes the true strength of the Aten Sun. We bid you take care in its embrace. Seek shade when needed, share water freely, and look to one another with the same care that sustains both body and spirit. For it is not only the land that we tend, but each other.

As the season turns, so too does the great cycle of Our Kingdom. With August on the horizon, We look toward the choosing of heirs to the Aten Throne. Crown Tournament shall once more be held within the Barony of Granite Mountain, where valor, honor, and purpose will be tested upon the field.

Let all who would stand make ready. Fighters and Consorts are reminded to submit Letters of Intent no later than August 20 to both the Crown and the Seneschal. We further advise that updates to the requirements have been made; all are encouraged to review Lex Atenveldtus, found upon the Atenveldt.org homepage, to ensure readiness in both word and deed.

Additionally, let it be known that all combatants will be expected to remove any tape from their helms prior to entering the field. The format shall follow recent tradition: a procession of honor, challenges declared, and each bout fought as best two of three...so that each contest may be met with clarity, skill, and purpose.

In all things, remember who we are. We are Atenveldt...tempered by the Sun, strengthened by unity, and sustained by the choices we make each day. Carry your shovel as you have always done, not as a burden but as a reminder: that we clear the path together, that we choose what remains, and that we build something worthy upon the ground we share.

And for those who read with care, should you cross Our path in the days to come, greet Us simply with: The Sun is high in the Aten sky.

Given with affection by Our hands, beneath the blazing Sun of Atenveldt and in quiet trust of those who walk this path beside Us.
