Kingdom Job Opportunities

Position Available: Kingdom Waiver Deputy

The Kingdom of Trimaris is seeking a successor for the position of Kingdom Waiver Deputy.

The duties are straightforward. The Waiver Deputy collects and maintains the white copies of all Kingdom waivers: event waivers, roster waivers when serving as consent to participate, minor waivers, and equestrian waivers. Standard waivers are retained for a minimum of seven years. Minor waivers are retained for a minimum of twenty.

It's a warranted Kingdom officer position. The work isn't complicated, but it's genuinely important. Proper waiver retention protects our participants, our officers, and the Society. Someone has to do it well, and the Kingdom is hoping that someone is you.

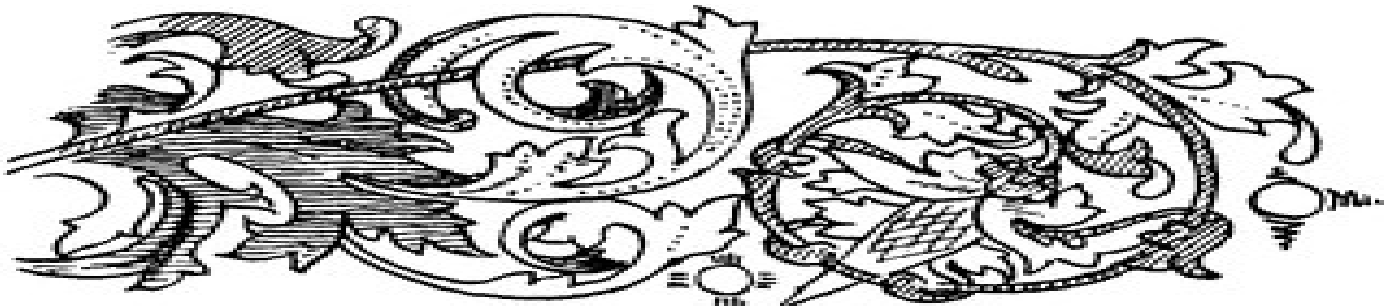

Storage materials will transfer to the incoming deputy, including two bins and additional smaller boxes.

To apply, send your SCA resume to waivers@trimaris.org by July 31st. Questions can go to the same address.

A Call to Service – Triskele Herald of Trimaris

Good Gentles of Trimaris,

The Kingdom seeks a worthy successor to take up the mantle of Triskele Herald, to guide and oversee the heraldic voice of our fair lands. The Triskele Herald stands as the steward of all heraldic activity within the Kingdom, tending not only to the words and ceremonies that grace our courts, but also to the care and strength of the College of Heralds as a whole. This is both an administrative and creative role, balancing organization, leadership, and a love of heraldry in all its forms.

Duties of the office include overseeing heraldic education, coordinating device submissions, maintaining the Order of Precedence, and guiding commentary and consultation across the Kingdom. The Triskele Herald is responsible for training, warranting, and supporting Lesser Officers and local heralds, ensuring that knowledge is passed hand to hand like a well-kept torch.

This office works closely with the Crown and Kingdom officers, providing quarterly reports and serving as a member of the Kingdom Financial Committee, helping shape and enact the annual budget. The Triskele Herald also appoints and warrants deputies and local officers as needed to ensure the smooth operation of heraldic activities throughout Trimaris.

Attendance at key Kingdom events is required, including at least one Coronation, one Crown Tournament, one Arts & Sciences Faire, and one additional Kingdom-level event each year, where meetings may be held to support and strengthen the heraldic community. Candidates must be a paid member in good standing, warranted, and must remain in fealty to the Crown throughout their tenure.

This role is well suited to one who delights in both pageantry and precision, who finds joy in teaching others, and who is called to serve the Kingdom by preserving its voice, its names, and its history. If you feel the call to take up this mantle, or wish to learn more about the office, please contact Master Gavine Armestrang at herald@trimaris.org no later than July 1, 2026 Gregorian.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,
Gavine Armestrang
Triskele Principal Herald
Kingdom of Trimaris

From the A&S Exposition Fair Deputies

As Capt. of the rangers my time is drawing near, I am looking for the next Gentle who wishes to do this important job. the requirements are familiarity with the rules and conventions of the thrown weapons and archery fields. Transport, set up and take down appropriate equipment for thrown weapons and run the range at events. Currently Archery is being handled by Baron Master Toki, I have been running the thrown weapons side. Please submit resumes to the office of Earl marshal (earlmarshal@trimaris.org)

During the day some ne'er-do-wells interfered with the delivery of tax money to the kingdom! The children of Trimaris banded together in a Merry Band of rangers (with bows!) to replace the tax money. Through quests for the populace, providing entertainment, and maybe the occasional strong arm robbery they succeeded in collecting a considerable amount of coinage to restore the kingdom coffers. Master Simon Maurus brought them to court where they presented this bounty of gold coins to the queen. They were rewarded for their...dilligence by the Queen with a chest full of delicious treats along with new quivers and arrows for their bows.
