NEWS From the Knowne World

It's rare that a book of SCA'dian history is published.

That happened recently with the publication of "St. Hildegard Coppers," produced and edited by Arion the Wanderer (Dave Peters), Minister of the Moneyers Guild of An Tir and once the apprentice of the late Ian Cnulle (Gregory Paul Franck-Weiby) who produced the dies from which the coppers were struck.

https://www.amazon.com/Hildegard-Coppers-Gregory-Cnulle-Frank-Weiby/dp/B0FX-1Q96VL/ref=sr_1_1

Cnulle, together with Watt Kidman (Walt Patrick), produced the St. Hildegard Coppers, or folles, also well known as "baraks," as trade tokens accepted by merchants largely in An Tir but that remain popular with gaming enthusiasts and collectors throughout the Society.

You may already know that the St. Hildegard Coppers are the hot-struck 1-inch diameter, 1/8-inch thick coppers, each weighing in at about 14 grams, that gave a satisfying heft and jingle in the hand and pouch and enjoyed circulation throughout the kingdoms. Outside the SCA, the coppers feature in multiple volumes of Krause Publications' "Unusual World Coins" as "Coinage of the Realm" and their collector base is international.

However, there has been little available to explain where the coppers came from, who designed them and what part they played in SCA'dian history.

Until now.

"St. Hildegard Coppers" provides that history and, for the first time anywhere, high quality images of the copper types and descriptions written by Cnulle himself.

[Information provided by Cnulle's widow, Karin Georgsdottir (MKA Karen Kidd), a contributor to "St. Hildegard Coppers."]

Do you delight in old houses, especially those grand Sea Captains' homes that have found new life as Masonic Lodges in historic whaling cities? Of course you do!

Our event site is one such gem, full of character and charm. Please note that it is located in the heart of the city, and as such, parking is primarily on city block metered spaces (no fees on Saturdays). We are currently in negotiations for access to a nearby parking lot to provide additional space. Carpooling is strongly encouraged.

The building's layout has a certain "Fawltly Towers" charm, with narrow staircases and winding corridors. We kindly ask for everyone's patience and cooperation in keeping foot traffic moving smoothly throughout the day.

An elevator is available and has access to all floors for those who require it; further details can be found in the Site Accessibility Checklist: <https://smokingrocks.eastkingdom.org/accessibility-porter-checklist/>

2026 Carillion A&S Championship: The Journey

A journey begins with a single step. Or stitch. Or stroke of the pen. Sometimes a journey begins without warning, and without a full grasp of the mountain you are about to climb. There are even times when a journey is undertaken by those who feel under-qualified and ill-prepared for the task at hand. But in the Barony of Carillion, we know and understand that these can make for the greatest journeys and stories of all.

For this challenge, showcase a work that tells one such story, of your own A&S journey. Perhaps a piece of pottery that demonstrates how much your techniques have improved since you first began. A dress that you are proud of completing despite the unforeseen challenges. Or even a poem or scroll that tells the story of a journey itself.

If you have any questions or would like inspiration or support in your journey, please feel free to reach out to current A&S champion Sabine di Sandra of House Carpathia at sabinedisandra@gmail.com

~Bardic~

We call upon the bards of this land to come forth from the cold and warm our tavern with story and song! This year we will select our new Baronial Bardic Champion. Performers

The contest will have two rounds. For the first round, please prepare a piece inspired by some element of the Bhakail coat of arms – whether it be our dancing salamander, its burning flame, our beautiful trees, or the elegant quills. DESSERT CHALLENGE:

Brigitte has issued her dessert challenge! Entrants should bring a dessert (or desserts, you may enter more than once) to fit into:

Foxes: Foxes know a little about a lot of things. They are also tricksters, so entries in this category with less than authoritative documentation, and perhaps not fit into a particular pre-17th C period.

Hedgehogs: Hedgehogs know a lot about one thing. These entries will be held to a higher degree of scrutiny, and should have full documentation and come from a particular pre-17th C period.

Please remember, the absolute goal of this challenge is to have fun while stretching your abilities and bringing delicious enjoyment to the masses!

Brigitte and her panel of judges will sample all entries, but desserts will be shared by all guests of the event! Questions may be directed to Brigitte (as listed below.)

DRESSING THE FOX:

Yes, for those who like to fabricate fancy finery, a faux fox will be provided along with fabric of all types, and you will get to design persona stories and garb for your furred friend and enter a fashion show at the end of the day. (You may bring your own fabric, etc.) We are asking that, should you desire for your new friend to go home with you, we hope you will make a $10 donation to help defray the cost of supplying plushies. The winner will get a special surprise from the autocrat! (Children must have an adult supervise them in the dressing the fox area.)

CLOTHING MAGNUS VULPES:

Follow the link to measurements of Magnus Vulpes! He loves his finery. Folks are challenged to create new attire for him. For this challenge you may begin work at home with your own material and finish at the event, or create the item totally at the event with your own materials or materials we supply. There will be an accolade for the best outfits! See the diagram for the great fox's dimensions. <http://nordenhal.eastkingdom.org/events/fox2015/fox-diagram2.jpg>
