Royal Message

Til lýðs Lochacs senda Þórvaldr ok Amabilía sínar hlýjustu kveðjur ok þakkir. Unto the folk of Lochac do Þórvaldr and Amabilía send their warmest greetings and thanks.

We extend our deepest gratitude to all who journeyed across land and sea to stand with us at our krýna (the ancient word for crowning) thus weaving a new chapter in the Saga of Lochac.

We also thank all in River Haven and those from afar, whose endeavours made our krýna a memory we shall cherish for many years.

Whether you graced the halls of the arts, strove upon the field of battle, or stood within the courts of our hall, it was our honour to recognise all who, in deed and spirit, uphold the living Saga of our realm.

We also rejoiced in Southron Gaard's Golden Flight, graced by the presence of Drottning Amabilia. It was filled with delightful feasting, warm fellowship, and a splendid display of archery skill that brought honour and joy to all who attended.

Our heartfelt gratitude to Epistrategos Ariston (Duke) and Graff Jochen (Count) for their love, their steadfast support, and their wise stewardship of the Kingdom. May they now enjoy a well-earned and peaceful rest.

As we set these words to parchment, we prepare for Fields of Gold and, thereafter, Rowany Yule, where we eagerly anticipate meeting many among the populace.

Though we cannot be present at every hall or hearth, we rejoice in the strength of our Kingdom as folk gather to celebrate Springtide and the coming of Yule in the weeks ahead.

Know that we are with you in spirit, eager to hear the tales, the joys, and the celebrations that shall arise from your feasts.

And when these feasts and revels have passed, our gaze turns to the horizon—towards Canterbury Faire in January and the many worthy and wondrous events that await us beyond.

Until then, know that you remain ever in our thoughts and hearts. May your paths be bright, your halls ring with laughter, and your deeds be worthy of the Saga we weave together. We look forward to standing beside you in the months ahead, as Lochac flourishes in strength, honour, and joy.

In service to the Dream,

Þórvaldr and Amabilia

From Lochac Seneschal

Greetings fine gentles of Lochac!

I hope that you are all staying cool in this hot nearly-Summer Spring weather, and well-hydrated too. As you hear often near the fighting fields, "Drink water!"

There are several Kingdom Office roles being advertised at the moment. Have you checked the Announce email list recently? Do you feel a burning passion for Lochac and a desire to make everyone's game a little better? Now's your chance! Not sure what you can do, but want to help? Feel free to reach out to me and see what's happening. Teamwork makes the Dream work!

Speaking of hot Spring weather, do you know when your local group last ran a Crown event? We still don't have events locked in for Spring 2026, nor Autumn 2027. Think of how far that is away, you'll have so much time to prepare for your event! If you're keen, reach out to me or the Crown Events Deputy with your ideas.

Oh, and congratulations to the Shire of Sherwater for their successful Autumn 2026 Coronation bid!

That's all for me this time, see you next to the fighting field, being bullied into drinking water.

Yours in Service,

Hlæfdige Mildryth Thomaswyf

From Crux Australis

Greetings Lochac!

I look forward to continuing to support heraldry in our good Kingdom as Crux Australis Lochac Principal Herald.

We have a wonderful, enthusiastic, incredibly knowledgeable community of Heralds in this Kingdom: we have many gracious and articulate Voice heralds; expert and tenacious Name and Device consulting heralds; research heralds increasing our understanding and access to information; and last but absolutely not least, heralds who keep everything going, including the Crux Deputies and group Heralds. I am very glad to have met many of you and hope to meet many more.

Congratulations to the following gentles on their successful registrations:

- * Adeline de Montfort. Device change.
Per chevron argent and ermine, on a chevron azure three fleurs-de-lys palewise argent.
- * Ambroso Angelo da Prato. Name.
Nice 16th century Florentine name
- * Angus de Sommerville. Device.
Azure, a saltire between in pale two crosses crosslet fitchy and in fess two mullets, a bordure Or.
- * Edith Penrose. Device change.
Azure, a raven rising maintaining in both feet a pen and on a mount argent a rose azure. Nice cant!
- * Elßlin Krummen. Name change and device change. Per pale purpure and argent, two calygreyhounds combattant counterchanged maintaining between them a water bouget counterchanged Or and azure.
- * Leo of Achaia. Name.
The locative of Achaia is the lingua Societatis form of the Greek locative Achaïos.
- * Leylan de la Haye. Name.
- * Lucrezia di Speranza Cafferelli. Name change.
Nice 15th-16th century Florentine name!

* Mary Catesby. Name and device.
Or, a pair of scissors sable. Nice device!

* Robin Goblin. Name and device.
Or, a tower fracted palewise gules, on a chief embattled sable a rose fesswise slipped and leaved Or.
Submitted as Hob Gob-Lin, this name cannot be registered under SENA PN4C - Claim of Powers. A hobgoblin is a creature in English folklore with supernatural powers that can be mischievous or helpful, depending on one's source.

* Rowany, Barony of. Reblazon of device.
Argent, in fess two rowan trees fructed and eradicated proper, on a point pointed dovetailed vert a laurel wreath argent. Blazoned when registered in December of 1984 as Per chevron dovetailed argent and vert, two rowan trees fructed and eradicated proper and a laurel wreath argent, the green section doesn't reach the midpoint of the field, so is better described as a point pointed.

* Saulo Fortunato. Name change.
Nice 16th century Italian name!

* Ulrich de Porthau. Name change.

* Willow Wren. Name and device.
Per fess sable and vert, on a fess between a wolf statant and a sheaf of arrows argent a pellet between an increscent and a decrescent sable.
Nice late 16th century English name!

Seeking a New Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the wonderful Kingdom of Lochac!

Your Kingdom needs a new Chronicler! Do you possess the ability to spread the news of events, law changes, Crown proclamations, and Seneschal exhortations via our Kingdom newsletter, "Pegasus".

Could you be the right fit for this position and make the most of your editorial and design skills?

Key requirements:

- You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older
- Reliable and responsive access to email and internet connection
- Familiarity with and access to design/editing software (eg MS Publisher)
- Attention to detail, strong use of grammar, and punctuation is a must.
- Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks

You may not think that you are the right person for this job, but if your friends forward you a copy of this notice, pay attention to them! And if you know someone who you think would be good in the job, do them (and all of us) a favour - ask them to apply.

Key elements of the job:

- Collating and conveying important and relevant information to the Populace from the Crown, the Board, and other Kingdom Officers (particularly the Kingdom Seneschal) as requested/required
- Design and edit the monthly newsletter "Pegasus", and distribute it electronically (no actual publication costs involved)
- Liaise with the Society Chronicler in relation to relevant Society information and updates for inclusion in Pegasus

- Supporting baronial & group Chroniclers, and collating their quarterly reports
- Helping with nominations to the William Blackfox Awards for Chronicling Excellence (Pegasus and Cockatrice have been recipients in the past).

You'll find more detailed information about this role on page 11 of the Officer Job Descriptions Document at <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/files/2021/10/OfficerJobDescriptions.pdf/resources#officer>

Please send your applications by Sunday, 21st December 2025, to seneschal@lochac.sca.org, with a copy to pegasus@lochac.sca.org.

Please include:

- Your mundane and SCA names
- Your membership number
- Any relevant experience
- Any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in winning the role

If you would like to learn more about the job or discuss how you envision taking it forward, I would be delighted to hear from you.

Please email me at pegasus@lochac.sca.org

Yours in Service,

Lady Magdalena af Husum
Kingdom Chronicler

From Kingdom A&S

Greetings, Lochac!

At November Coronation in Riverhaven, a Kingdom Arts and Sciences competition was held; this was the third round for the Championship of A.S. LX.

I am delighted to bring you news of the entries. As I was not present myself, I borrow from the reports of others:

There were thirteen entries, across the Beginner to Advanced categories, taking inspiration from the themes of 'Celtic', 'Medicine' and 'Hairstyles'. We had two Experienced entries, six Intermediate entries, and five Beginners.

In the Experienced Category, the gold bell went to Master Pdraig Lowther, for his Wine for a Celt. In the Experienced Category, a silver bell went to Master Crispin Sexi, for amusing the judges with his Bare Chin.

In the Intermediate Category, the gold bell went to THL Adeline de Montforte, for a Salve, with an illuminated guide on its use.

In the Intermediate Category, a silver bell went to THL Melissa Wijffels, for an Earthenware Cup.

In the Beginner Category, the gold bell went to Lord Thorbjorn Bjarnylr of Southron Gaard: for a gorgeous set of Glass Beads.

In the Beginner Category, a silver bell went to Lady Rose le Tailor, for a paper on The Treatment of Mental Health in the middle ages. Three cheers for all the amazing artisans!

My thanks and appreciation go out to all the judges, who graciously dedicated many hours of time and effort to examining the entries and providing thoughtful feedback. A little birdie even told me the judges actually enjoyed the process, which is absolutely wonderful.

I don't have their names, but in any case: Three cheers for all the magnificent judges!

I would especially like to thank Maestra Gabriella Borromei, of Stegby, who coordinated A&S for this event and did an excellent job of it.

The next competition, and the final round for this year's Chamionship, will take place in Mordenvale, in concert with Lochac's Autumn Crown Tournament. Themes for the round will be 'Buttons', 'Glass' and 'Byzantium'.

In Service,

Dame Joan Sutton,
Lochac Kingdom

Wanted, Kingdom Youth Officer!

☀ Join Us as the Kingdom Youth Officer! ☀

Do you want to help make the SCA a more family-friendly, welcoming place?

Are you passionate about helping young people and their families feel included, supported, and excited to be part of our game?

We're looking for a Kingdom Youth Officer to step into this important role.

Key Responsibilities

As Youth Officer, you will:

- Work with local groups and their Youth Officers to provide support, guidance, and encouragement.
- Help make sure that the 14% of our membership who are under 18 (and their families!) have fun activities to do and feel they belong in the SCA.
- Develop and share ideas, resources, and programs that make events and gatherings more family-friendly.
- Collaborate with other officers to keep youth engagement safe, inclusive, and in line with SCA policies.
- Be a friendly point of contact for families, helping them stay connected and excited about continuing their journey in the SCA.

About You

We're looking for someone who:

- Is enthusiastic about creating a positive and supportive environment for youth and families.
- Enjoys working collaboratively across groups and communities.
- Can listen, encourage, and help people bring their ideas to life.
- Wants to help the next generation of SCAdians feel included and inspired to stay.

Eligibility Requirements

To be considered for this role, you must:

- Be a current financial member of the SCA.
- Hold a valid Youth Authorisation Card (if residing in Australia) or be willing and eligible to apply for one before the role commences.
- Be over 18 years of age.

Why This Role Matters

Families and young members are the future of our Society. By supporting them, we ensure that the SCA continues to thrive with fun, friendship, and creativity for everyone.

And the good news:

A new Deputy role has been created for processing Youth Authorisation Cards in Australia, which means this Youth Officer position has less paperwork than before, leaving you more time to focus on supporting people and creating fun opportunities!

Applications close Wednesday, 10th December, 2025. Please send your applications to seneschal@lochac.sca.org

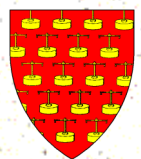

Be sure to include:

- Your membership number
- Your mundane and SCA names
- Any relevant experience
- Any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in winning the role

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

LIVE STREAM TEAM UPDATE

The Kingdom Livestream Team continues to support major events across Lochac, helping to make courts and tournaments accessible for those who cannot attend in person. Recent broadcasts included the September Crown Tournament in Stormhold and the November Coronation in Riverhaven, both delivered with strong signal quality and supported by stable on-site data.

Current team:

Team Lead - Duke Steffan Glaube
Madelaine Le Mercer
Master Magnus Thorbjarnarson
Mistress Miriam bat Shimeon
Þórbjörn Bjarnylr of Southron Gaard

Viewership Snapshot

While enthusiasm for the idea of livestreaming remains high, actual viewership numbers continue to sit on the modest end of expectations when compared to the size of the Kingdom:

- Crown Tournament (Stormhold): 728 views
- Elevation of Don Everard: 140 views
- Elevation of Orlock Handball: 180 views
- Last Court of Ariston & Jochen (November Coronation): 141 views
- Coronation Court: 111 views
- First Court of Þorvaldr inn Suðreyski and Amabilia Thexton: 82 views
- Second Court of Þorvaldr inn Suðreyski and Amabilia Thexton: 45 views
- Coronation Closing Court: 30 views

These figures show that livestreams are appreciated but still reach a relatively small portion of Lochac.

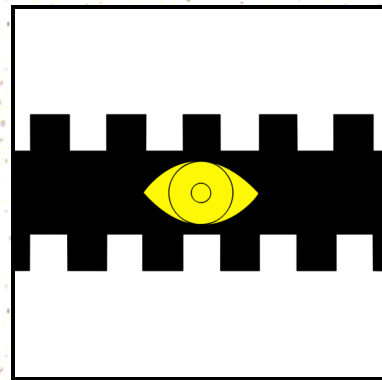

Period Presentation & Camera Visibility

The team is also actively exploring ways to integrate modern equipment more gracefully into a period environment, including:

- Tactics for discreet placement or dressing of camera gear
- Banner and pennant-based methods to show where microphones and cameras are positioned

A heraldic Livestream Badge has been passed for use, currently owned by Steffen Glaube. Although the registration sits with him, he has offered free use of the badge to the entire Kingdom. Groups may use it on banners, pennants, or markers to indicate camera zones or fields of view in a more period-appropriate fashion.

Argent, on a fess embattled counter-embattled sable an eye Or

This system is in its early stages but represents a promising way to maintain both transparency and ambience at events.

A Significant Volunteer Effort

I would like to specifically shout out the team driving the live stream efforts in the background. Their dedication to supporting the Kingdom in this way is a joy to witness. Please be sure to thank them if you have partaken of their efforts..

Livestreaming remains a major service commitment. Volunteers operate cameras, manage audio, monitor feeds, and troubleshoot issues often stepping away from participating in the event itself to ensure that the broadcast succeeds. The team remains committed and enthusiastic, but strengthening the pool of helpers will help share the load.

Call for New Team Members

To support and expand this work, we are seeking volunteers interested in:

- Learning camera, audio, and streaming skills
- Assisting with setup, monitoring, or pack-down

Small Crown Productions

- Supporting livestreams at local or Kingdom events
- Helping develop period-appropriate camera visibility solutions

No prior experience is required—training and support will be provided.

If you'd like to join the Livestream Team or learn more, please contact Duke Steffan Glaube at streaming@lochac.sca.org

Lochac Training Team Update,

The Training Team continues its long-term project to develop clear, consistent, and accessible Officer training Documents for every major office across Lochac. The team has commenced with Inductions for Officer Roles and has worked steadily to refine the induction template, gather feedback from Kingdom officers, and compile information from handbooks, policies, and online resources.

We are pleased to confirm that we have settled on a core induction template allowing us to move into full drafting for each office. Our current target is to have all major induction documents drafted by Canterbury Faire 2026, after which a coordinated review with the relevant Kingdom officers will take place. Once finalised, the documents will be hosted on the individual office websites, with a rollout plan developed in partnership with the officers of those roles.

Current Training Team

- Steffan Glaube
- Madelaine Le Mercer
- Giovannino da Vidor (Gio)
- Cara of Kilmeure
- Isabell Winter
- Trudie Beata Ollyfe Griffen
- Ysabeau Chanteuse

Acknowledgement and Thanks

We would like to extend my sincere thanks to the Training Team for their ongoing dedication to this project. Each member gives their time generously, often meeting once a month, reviewing documents, and contributing steadily behind the scenes. Their commitment, patience, and willingness to help shape resources for the benefit of the entire Kingdom are deeply appreciated. Without their continued efforts, this project would not be moving forward.

Join The Team

As the project grows in scope, we invite you to consider joining the team. Additional volunteers to assist with writing, editing, and reviewing content are welcome and it is an excellent opportunity for those passionate about supporting officers and strengthening the administrative foundations of the Kingdom.

If you are interested in contributing to the Training Project, please contact Duke Steffan Glaube at training@lochac.sca.org

SCA Ltd (Australia) Board

Dear Populace but specifically those within Australia,

At the most recent Board meeting, the directors agreed to review the Companion Card Policy.
<https://sca.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/Companion-Card-Policy.pdf>

The Board is interested in how this policy is currently utilised and the thoughts of Seneschals, Constables, Event Stewards, cardholders and anyone else this policy may apply too. The Board wants to gauge if the policy is working as intended, and has thus created a short Opinion Poll.

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfjlvU7TWT0ZC7Gf3oBVci1euHKyu9HNpYM42P7ghNeuof-1A/viewform>

We are also reviewing the Social Media Policy, <https://sca.org.au/documents/policy/social-media/> as part of this update the Board is considering adding a "Consent to Photography" section to the Event Sign-in/Booking sheets (similar to what is currently implemented in New Zealand). We would particularly like feedback on this from photographers within the SCA, and people with Youth (under 18's) attending events who would need to give permission for each individual minor and each individual photo before it could be posted to official SCA sites.

The wording for the section pertaining to Youth at SCA events to be added to Event sign-in/Booking sheets would be along the lines of:
"The use of photographs and videos of minors on official SCA sites and affiliated social media pages is restricted. Any official SCA site or social media page may not feature any identifiable minor under the age of 14 without explicit consent from the minor's legal guardian for each individual photo and usage. Photographers cannot seek blanket consent for imagery of minors aged 14-18, and consent must be obtained on an individual basis from the minor's legal guardian."

The Board would ask anyone who has experience in this field and wants to give feedback on the draft update of the Social Media Policy to contact the Kingdom Social Media Officer or the Board Secretary.

The Board also agreed at it's most recent meeting that all new policies will go through a populace commentary period of 1 month, to ensure better communication of policy updates and reviews between the Board and the wider populace of Lochac. Unless significant concerns or feedback are received during this time, the Board will then ratify policies at the first Board meeting after this time period has concluded. The Board hopes that this gives some greater transparency to the operation of the Board and what is currently being worked on.

As always, any and all feedback to the Board is greatly appreciated and humbly received. Please contact chair@sca.org.au or secretary@sca.org.au if there is anything the Board can help you with.

In Service to the Kingdom,

Catherine Connor

New Lochac Book of Ceremonies

To the diverse populace and heralds of Lochac do Lady Amanda Martel, Bombarde Herald, and Mistress Gwen verch David send long-awaited greetings!

In A.S. 52, a great Book of Ceremonies for the Kingdom of Lochac was created and presented to all the group heralds of the Kingdom, and this was a mighty work, and worthy of much praise. Yet the ceremonies of Lochac are not stagnant: new awards are created, new customs developed, and new preferences discovered. So it has been that the Book of Ceremonies created in A.S. 52 already needed amendment by A.S. 53, and that need has only grown with time. When it was presented to the College of Heralds and the populace, the A.S. 52 book proudly incorporated the new ceremony for the Order of Defense. Since then, the awards given in this kingdom have grown to include the Catkin, the Ordo Vox Coronae, the Lens, the Azure Lily, the Azure Tear, the Azure Sword, the Hand and Needle, and most recently and significantly, the Order of the Mark.

As such, Crux Australis Herald commissioned a newly revised Book of Ceremonies for Lochac, and we are proud to announce the completion of that work. In addition to the new ceremonies listed above, we have filled in certain gaps where no standard ceremony existed (such as for the Order of the Rose, and the Royal Cypher), and we have also revised all ceremonies for length, errors, changes in practice, and areas where confusion might arise. Where multiple options existed within a ceremony, we have explicit scripts for each one. Where a ceremony might reference someone's gender, we have moved to non-gendered options (such as 'good marshal' rather than 'lord marshal') or made it clear that the specifics must be chosen according to the people concerned (such as 'Long live the [Title]' rather than 'Long live the Queen'). In a few cases, ceremonies have undergone recognisable changes, but most changes have been as subtle as possible, with our concern always to maintain continuity with the traditions of Lochac.

The Book of Ceremonies is not only a set of words. It is a document that is printed, carried, held, and read at events of many kinds. We have therefore redone the formatting of ceremonies for both readability in all light conditions and compactness. We are proud to say that almost all the common ceremonies now take up only a single page each, and that many people will find them readable at A5, even in low light. For convenience of those who would print their own copies, we have made available PDFs of each individual ceremony, each section of the book, the total book, and a set we have named the 'Commonplace Book of Ceremonies'. This last set is only 43 pages long, but contains every ceremony except for the Peerage ceremonies, and the ceremonies specific to Coronation, Crown Tourney, and Baronial Investiture Events. While not included in the Book of Ceremonies itself, the website also has a PDF of a 'Combined Ceremony for Any Peerage', which greatly reduces the number of pages a herald might need to carry in order to be prepared for the extraordinary circumstance of an unexpected peerage ceremony.

Finally, as a supplement to the ceremonies themselves, we have provided an appendix of guidance documents, providing advice on such matters as a court herald, a Crown, or indeed a royal household member may find themselves needing to consider when making decisions about ceremonies and courts. This guidance section also includes a document on the options for peerage ceremonies, for the benefit of prospective peers, and a practical guide to setting up thrones, for the benefit of event teams. This guidance section is included at the end of the main Book of Ceremonies, but it is also downloadable as a separate file, as are all of the individual documents within it.

All of these files are now available at <https://herald.lochac.sca.org/ceremonies/>

The Lochac Book of Ceremonies is a living thing, and we will not be surprised if we find that this A.S. 60 edition needs amending in A.S. 61. Over the coming months, we will be adding ZIP folders with editable versions of the files for the convenience of those ceremony heralds who come after us. We will also be working on large print versions of these ceremonies, and the previous edition will be archived on the Lochac College of Heralds website.

As ceremony heralds, it is always a delight to really consider the question of what makes a good ceremony. We are grateful to Mistress Isabella de Bordeaux (the Crux Australis Herald who commissioned the project) for entrusting us with the opportunity to engage with that question so extensively. We hope that you, the populace and heralds of Lochac, will find the product of our efforts a fitting expression of Lochac's ceremony culture as it stands, and a practical contribution to the life of a working herald.

Yours in service and ceremony,
Lady Amanda Martel, Bombarde Herald
Mistress Gwen verch David
