Royal Message

Til lýðs Lochacs senda Þórvaldr ok Amabíla sínar hlýjustu kveðjur ok þakkir. Unto the folk of Lochac do Þórvaldr and Amabíla send their warmest greetings and thanks.

Across the rolling seas we came at last to Rowany Festival, and there found such welcome and wonder as can scarce be set to ink. We delighted to greet so many of the populace—some long-cherished friends met again as though no time had passed, and others newly known, whose kindness and bright spirits made swift comrades of strangers. In every camp and hall, we found laughter, shared labour, and generous fellowship, and so our hearts were gladdened, knowing the Dream thrives wherever such good company gathers.

Most shining among those joys was the celebration of four worthy souls, whose steadfast service and excellence were recognised in their elevation to the Orders of the Laurel and of the Pelican. It was our honour to witness such well-deserved moments, as the assembled company gave acclaim and their peers set upon them the tokens of high regard. Nor were these the only triumphs of the week, for many others also were called forth and celebrated for hard-won successes, receiving awards rightly earned through skill, labour, and devotion. In each name proclaimed we heard anew the strength of our Kingdom, and we rejoiced to share the hall with all those so honoured.

TRM: Þórvaldr and Amabilia Konungr and Drottning of Lochac.

Next upon our calendar comes the Baronial Changeover for Ildhafn, a day ever worthy of note, as the Barony sets one hand from the helm of Baroness Maerwynn and Baron Domenego and another takes it up in steadfast care in THL Eleanor Hall and Baroness Isabell Winter. There shall we gather to give thanks for labours past, and to pledge support and good will to those who now take up the mantle of leadership. We look forward also to honouring William Marshall, who shall add yet two more most worthy gentles to the Order of the Pelican, and so increase the number of those recognised for lifelong service to the Dream.

As we now look toward the end of our reign, our hearts are filled with anticipation for the days to come. We look forward to celebrating our Heirs, Count Aonghus and Countess Ginevra, as they take up the helm in their turn, and to marking this changeover with due ceremony and glad company. Most especially do we rejoice that we shall share this moment alongside our newest Shire, Shearwater, and we pray their beginning be blessed with strong hands, good cheer, and many fair endeavours.

In service to the Dream,
 Þórvaldr and Amabilia

Kingdom Missives

From the Kingdom A&S Officer

Greetings, Lochac!

We are about to start a new SCA year - A.S. LXI - and with that comes a new A&S Champion, and a new competition for their successor!

The first round for the year will be judged at Autumn Coronation in Sherwater (May 30).

Instructions for early entries have already been published, and the options now include local early judging and online submission through a Google form. Please ask if you need any assistance with the process.

The cutoff date for early entries (either to your local officer, or online) is May 09 2026.

Themes are:

- A Clerical Document
- Silk
- Following the Crown

The new Arts and Sciences Champion will be announced by Their Majesties at Autumn Coronation. In the meantime, happy crafting, and best of luck to all for the new championship year!

In service,
Dame Joan Sutton, KMoAS Lochac

From the Crux Australis

(THL Lowrans Wilyamson)
SCANZ Secretary

SCA Ltd (Australia) BoD Chair

Dear Populace,

It is an exciting time of year, as people are still enthused about their time at our signature event, Rowany Festival, and preparing for various end of year (SCA year) events. Here at the Board, we are preparing for our Annual General Meeting. Our esteemed Treasurer, Master Cristoval has toiled long and hard with the Auditors, and has achieved nicely balanced books. Huzzah! You will soon receive notice of the AGM, and we will be calling for new members, particularly to represent the fine states of Victoria and Queensland.

A seat on the Board is not terribly onerous. We meet once a month, over Zoom, and occasionally have to pass a motion out of session. I have been a member for slightly more than a year, and I have found it to be rewarding. We may lurk in the shadows, but it really is where the rubber meets the road. We are the contact between our Game and the Mundane world. We make and amend policies that affect the way our Game is played. We liaise with SCA Inc in the United States. We have input into the Financial management of the Society. If you have an interest in serving your Society. If you want to learn about How Things Work. If you have been told by someone "you would be fabulous on the BoD", then you will be. Please consider putting your name forward.

Fond Regards,
Catherine Connor (Baroness Catherine James of Glastonbury)
Chair of the OziBoD

SCA Ltd (Australia) BoD

Secretary

Greetings from the Board of SCA Ltd (Australia),

The Society for Creative Anachronism Ltd (Australia) Board of Directors wishes to advise that the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Company will be held on Sunday 17th May 2026 at 11.30AM Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) via Zoom.

Click Here for the AGM information page, where the Agenda, Chair's Report, FY25 Financial Report, Proxy Voting Form, the Draft Minutes for the 2025 AGM, and a guide to Zoom AGM etiquette and polling functions are available. If the link doesn't work copy and paste: <https://sca.org.au/meetings/aggm-notices/> into your browser.

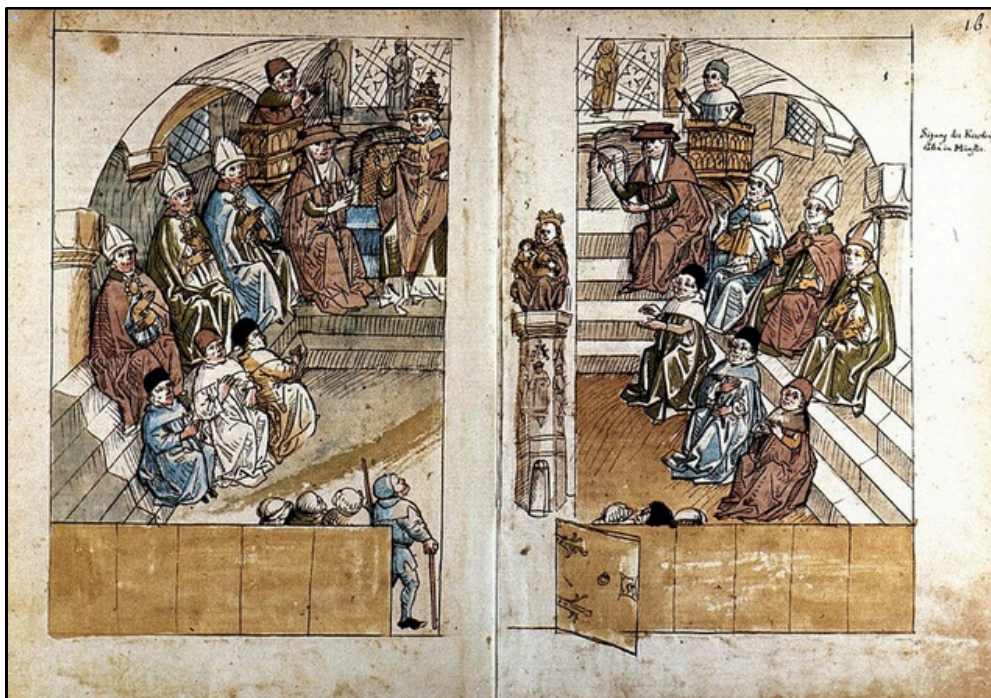

The Board has also included on the AGM information page a link to the draft Constitution for SCA Ltd which has undergone amendments. A PDF of this draft is available with marginalised notations as to the Boards reasoning behind these changes. The Board asks it's members to read this and send feedback by EoB (5pm) May 10th 2026, to the SCA Ltd Secretary (secretary@sca.org.au) so that it can be edited and finalised for voting on at the AGM.

The Board also asks that anyone willing to step up as a General Member of the Board to contact the Secretary. Board terms last 3 years on average and require some basic administrative and business knowledge. For additional information about what you need to do to nominate to the Board, contact the SCA Ltd Secretary. We hope to see as many of you at the AGM as possible. Those who cannot attend are welcome to lodge their Proxy form for voting in accordance with instructions on the form.

For any questions regarding the AGM, how to nominate to the Board or the draft Constitution, please contact Nicole Hellessey (SCA Ltd (Australia) Secretary) on secretary@sca.org.au.

In Service to the Kingdom,
Nicole Hellessey
Secretary
SCA Ltd (Australia)
