Words from the Crown

Greetings Atenveldt,

We, Khalil and Emma cannot begin to express Our appreciation for the continued love and support We have received as We ascended to the Atenveldt thrones. We would especially like to thank the Barons and Baronesses of each of Our glorious baronies for the welcome gifts and encouragement they have bestowed upon Us, as well as the wonderful autocrats that made Our coronation a success. Our court is full, and most of Our champions have been named. However, there is always room for those who want to volunteer their time and talents. We are honored to be your canvas and represent your arts, highlight your martial specialties, and display your talents in any way We can. Please contact Our Chatelaine, Head Lady in Waiting, Captain of the Guard, Largesse Coordinator, or Mistress of Robes if you wish to contribute and make your talents known throughout the kingdom. We are approaching Our reign as a position of service to the populace, and therefore, We thrive on the opportunity to share the many talents of Our populace.

Over this past month, We were proud to represent Atenveldt at Great Western War in the Kingdom of Caid, where we joined forces in battle with the West, Outlands, An Tir, and East Kingdoms. We spent Thursday at the Archery and Thrown Weapon's range as well as attended a couple of classes including Leather Hardening Techniques, and Period Pigments for Painting. On Thursday and Friday, We spent half of Our day in Heavy Combat to test Our skills with Our mass weapons, and the other half on the Rapier field where We had the opportunity to battle with a rubber band cannon! The Atenveldt welcome We received on both fields was truly heartwarming. We also took every opportunity to promote War of the Phoenix and secured the attendance of many of Our royal cousins with the promise to promote Our war in their home kingdoms. We spent the next few weeks attending practices in the southern and central baronies, and preparing for Our War.

Lastly, We hope that each member of Our populace took the opportunity to share expertise, teach a class, or learn something new at the Online New-Comer's Symposium. His Majesty taught a class called 'SCA, on a Budget', and Her Majesty taught a class on Fighter Support and Consorting. Bringing in new members and adapting to the needs of Our younger populace keeps the SCA and the Medieval Ages alive. Remember this as you approach Our reign challenge to try something new. Throughout Our reign, We challenge every Atenveldter to discover something new. Venture into a new corner of the SCA and attempt something you have never done before. Allow someone to share their passion with you, and invite someone to learn yours. It is also Our fondest wish to recognize the extraordinary accomplishments that make the Atenveldt sun shine. We encourage you to assist Us in celebrating your community by submitting award recommendations on the kingdom website.

We look forward to seeing you all at the Northern, Southern, and Central Yule celebrations in December, as well as at the Melee and Combat Archery practice on December 14th. We look forward to the increase in combat archery participants at war this year to fight side by side with Her Majesty.

Please be aware that We will be calling for the following peer circles in the upcoming months:
Order of the Pelican - Northern Yule 12/6
Order of Defense - Southern Yule 12/13
Order of the Chivalry - Southern War Practice 1/4
Order of the Mark - Archery Summit 1/10

Feedback Request -Proposed addition to Corporate Policy

To the membership and participants of our organization,

Thank you for your patience as we address the error in the initial proposed Confidentiality and Responsible Information Use Agreement policy addition announcement. We apologize for the original omission of the necessary information for you to provide commentary.

Our goal is to protect our membership throughout difficult circumstances by protecting confidential information, to the best of our abilities, from being shared outside the scope of any necessary investigations or sanction deliberations. We hope this clears up some of the confusion that was created with our initial announcement.

The intent of this proposed change is to ensure that our officers are actively aware of their responsibility to the security of our membership, particularly regarding private personal information, sanction-or investigation-related matters, and other sensitive information as an official member of the SCA leadership. This proposed policy addition focuses on Royals, but Members of the Board of Directors, Corporate Officers, Employees, Corporate and Kingdom Investigators, Kingdom Seneschals, and Kingdom Exchequers will be expected to execute the agreement too. While we have clear policies for officers in their respective handbooks, we seek to ensure that royals, who are also officers of the corporation, understand their responsibilities, too.

We have drafted the proposed policy addition as a starting point. With your input, we will either move forward with the current version or revise it accordingly. We value your opinions and ideas as you are the foundation of our organization. We look forward to reading any alternatives you wish to recommend.

The proposed addition and agreement can be found below to read:

Proposed addition to Corporate Policy, item XXI:

- "Execution of the Confidentiality and Responsible Information Use Agreement by Royal Heirs
- Each competitor and prospective consort in a Royal List must be prepared to execute the Confidentiality and Responsible Information Use Agreement, hereafter referred to as "the agreement", should they be victorious. Within ten business days after being declared victor in a Crown or Coronet Tourney, the Victor and Consort must individually execute the agreement and present it to the Kingdom Seneschal, unless they have previously executed the agreement within the last ten years. The Kingdom Seneschal shall confirm to the Society Seneschal by email that the Royal Heirs have executed the agreement at their earliest convenience and shall send the properly executed agreement to the corporate office within 10 business days."

Please email us at SCA-Comments@sca.org and use the title "Confidential Information Draft" in the subject line. This ensures that your response is sorted correctly and received immediately. Thank you for your willingness to be a part of this process with us.

NOTE: Do not use attachments in your commentary. Attachments will cause your message to be marked as spam, and it will be bounced.

Commentary regarding this proposed Corpora change must be received by the Board no later than December 23, 2025.
