From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Caid!

This will be the last full month of Our reign. And what a reign it has been. When We won Crown, We envisioned creating a space filled with laughter, with stories and songs, with amazing fighting and deep conversations. And I wish We could say that We did all that. But We didn't— YOU all did. You built a space where newcomers felt welcomed, where your friends were recognized for their accomplishments, where beautiful (and hilarious) songs were sung, where friendships were forged and courtesy ruled the day. And We had the absolute privilege of witnessing your achievements. Thank you, each and every Caidan, for making this Dream a reality.

We look forward to relaxing over the holiday month and enjoying spending time in camaraderie at many Yule celebrations. Even if We aren't able to make your Yule, We hope all of you have a relaxed and joyful Yule season.

We are very much looking forward to Their Highness' Coronation in January. We know that Wilhelm and Lorissa will guide Caid to even greater heights during Their upcoming reign.

In Service to the Dream,

Bjorn

Konung

Roisin

Cwene

From Their Royal Highnesses

Unto the noble and cherished populace of Our fair Kingdom of Caid, do We, Wilhelm and Lorissa, send greetings and heartfelt gratitude.

What a glorious time was shared beneath the wide skies of Great Western War! From the thunderous clash upon the field to the laughter echoing through campfires at night, every moment was a testament to the spirit and unity of Caid. We were moved by the courage of Our warriors, the artistry of Our artisans, and the generosity of all who labored to bring such a magnificent event to life. To the stewards, marshals, heralds, cooks, musicians, and countless volunteers—know that your dedication shines as brightly as any crown jewel.

As the seasons turn and the Yule festivities draw near, Our hearts are filled with excitement to journey across the Kingdom once more. We look forward to sharing warmth, laughter, and good cheer with each of you as we celebrate the joys of companionship and the strength of our Dream. Whether in courtly hall or humble hearth, We hope to see your smiling faces and hear your stories of friendship and inspiration.

Until we meet again, may your hearths be warm, your blades keen, and your spirits bright.

With love and honor,

Wilhelm
Al-Caid

Lorissa
Lady Caid

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

I have returned from Great West humbled and invigorated. Spending time with my chosen family, recharging with new knowledge, and gaining stories I might eventually share with my children—when they get older. Mostly, it was a wonderful way to start this part of the year. Remembering that we have so much to share with one another. That our worlds are much bigger and fuller than we might have previously thought. I was, once again, shown great kindness. It was another reminder that our acts of charity, our moments of sharing, mean more than we might realize to those we bring under our wings.

As we get into the Yule season, please reflect not only on the family you were given but also the family you've chosen. Supporting those around you with a smile of comfort and a neutral ear can heal many hurts. To be understood without having to go into detail is so freeing.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdottir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

This month marks the midpoint of my term as kingdom Seneschal. With that reality on my mind, I would like to announce that I am looking for those who would consider taking on the role of Kingdom Seneschal in the future. Just as I have asked other kingdom officers to do, I am not looking for 'the one' designated to take the mantle, but rather three to four people from around the kingdom who will work in support of each other. Taking this approach, I hope to lower the anxiety level about assuming such a rewarding and important position in the kingdom while also ensuring a well-prepared cadre of members who are ready, willing and able to accomplish the task.

If you believe you might be interested in learning more, please reach out to me at an event or through email to discuss further. I am open to discuss thoughts, experiences, and challenges. The conversation does not imply a decision or commitment. I am happy to demystify the role and offer my support.

With that, I wish everyone the happiest of Yule seasons. May your holidays be filled with friends, family, and memories to be cherished for years to come.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
--Sir Philip

Beware good Gentles for if thou hast been naughty, the Krampus might just come and haul you away! Join The Barony of Starkhafn in celebrating Yule with an outdoor German celebration. This is a chance to wear your warmest and finest garb, and celebrate the year with fire, festivities, and fun. Father Christmas will also make an appearance with gifts for our youngest members.

FEAST:

This Starkhafn Yule, it's not just Father Christmas who's making a list... Krampus is too.

Send a Krampus Gram to your friends, rivals, or that one person who's been extra naughty this year. Each Gram comes with a note from Krampus himself, and depending on the tier, it may also include chocolate coal or a medieval-style talisman.

Krampus Grams can be requested through this link:
