With December comes a return to feasting, all that lovely fancy garb, and a chance to celebrate with our chosen family. If you're one of those who doesn't usually stay for feast, challenge yourself to participate - it's a great way to relax with friends and find new medieval moments. Decorate tables, help your friends with dietary restrictions by bringing or making food they can share, play a new game from your period. Save an open seat at your table for a stranger, and invite them to sit with you.

It's easy to get caught up in online drama. Take a moment, look around you, and find everything that is running smoothly. Please take a moment and thank those people. Everytime we sit in on a Kingdom meeting, we are wowed by the many quiet hands that help our kingdom thrive. If you want to see it first hand, volunteer to help, and be welcomed into a new group who toil to create those beautiful moments we enjoy.

Yours in Love and Service,

Simon and Aria

Unto the Great Kingdom of the Outlands do We, Hrothgar and Ingriðr, Crown Prince and Princess, send Our warmest greetings.

We write today to express the incredible joy and pride We feel in the Outlands upon witnessing the tremendous turnout at Crown Tournament in October. We were humbled by the incredible displays of honor, talent, skill, and hospitality shown throughout the weekend. Dragonsspine holds a special place on Our hearts, being both the birthplace of His Royal Highness and a Barony full of dear friends and happy memories.

Crown Tournaments and Coronations are wonderful opportunities to come together and celebrate as a Kingdom. Seeing so many friends, from new ones made the day of Crown Tournament to those We have known for many years, truly warmed Our hearts. The most magical moments are found in the times spent as a group, and witnessing the populace of this amazing Kingdom coming together in celebration is a memory We will treasure forever.

We hope to see the enthusiasm continue through the seasonal feasts and celebrations being held throughout the Kingdom over the coming months. We look forward to spending time with the populace as We travel throughout the Outlands and will update Our Progress frequently in hopes of encouraging all who are willing and able to join Us in Our travels.

We remain, as always, in service to Crown and Kingdom,

Hrothgar and Ingriðr

St. Brigid's Day Feast

Shire of Bryngolau

Brigit was a pre-Christian Celtic Goddess and was celebrated in late winter with Imbolc, loosely translated as “ewe’s milk” and indicates that the sheep are lambing and a new season has begun. St. Brigid was a 5th century Irish woman adopted as a patron saint for dairy workers & farmers, blacksmiths, poets and midwives & healers.

We will make St. Brigid’s crosses, have games, and ask the populace to entertain during feast with a song or poem. A feast will feature spring foods. A menu will be published to social media and our website once it is settled on.
