1-3 May 2026 Spring Crown Tournament Canton of Charlesbury Crossing

The Canton of Charlesbury Crossing, located within the Barony of Sacred Stone, is pleased to be hosting Spring Crown Tournament to determine the next heirs of the Kingdom. This event will be held at Camp Canaan in Rock Hill. This camp is located on a 100-acre island surrounded by the Catawba River. The camp has over 130 beds in the cabins, an additional area for tent camping, 24 flushies, 20 showers, a fully stocked Lake Canaan on the Island that you can fish (catch and release only) and multiple walking trails. More details of the event including pictures of the site will follow on the website. Note: Their Majesties have requested Their afternoon court to be a Great Court with Processional.

Website: <https://springcrown2026.com>
Site opens at 5:00pm & Closes at 11:00am

Site Info: Camp Canaan, 3111 Sand Island Rd, Rock Hill, SC, 29732

Restrictions: No pets allowed. Service dogs are allowed. All owners of service dogs must adhere to the SCA Service Dog policy. No RVs. No smoking within 50 feet of group activities or entrances to buildings. No illegal substances. No swimming in the lake, river or pool. This is a dry site.

Accessibility: All buildings are ADA compliant. The site is rocky with dirt roads and some long grass. This is a 100-acre island with sandy walking trails. Some of the trails could be a little steep and not easily accessible to those in wheelchairs. However, the majority of the activities for this event do not require any walking trail access.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

A&S: The Ambassador's Gift - Create a period-appropriate diplomatic gift inspired by the alliance between Francis I of France and Suleiman the Magnificent. Entries may represent either court and should reflect historical craftsmanship and cultural exchange. All Arts & Sciences disciplines welcome. - Populace Vote

The Enemy of My Enemy - Choose France or the Ottoman Empire and present the strategic resource your side offers against the Habsburg Empire. Entries may be a visual display or written paper explaining why your contribution (e.g., military, political, economic, or cultural) is essential to the alliance. - Peer review (Entrants will provide a thoughtful critique of 1-2 other entries)

The Courtly Introduction - Take the role of herald and deliver a spoken introduction for a person present at the event. Entrants will proclaim the individual's titles and deeds in a manner suitable for court, drawing on period-inspired style and performance. Titles and accomplishments may be fictional but must be original, appropriate, and not duplicate those historically or currently held by others. Emphasis will be placed on delivery, creativity, and the ability to present a compelling heraldic introduction.

Across Empires: An Open Display - A non-competitive open display. Participants are invited to share works of any period art or science in the spirit of learning and inspiration. Show off finished pieces, works in progress, research displays, or passion. All experience levels and disciplines are welcome.

Scavenger Hunt: Atlantian Passport - Collect signatures in your Atlantian Passport from representatives of each barony, canton, shire, or other regional group (one signature per area) during the event. The participant who gathers the most unique signatures will receive a prize. Gotta catch 'em all? Take your passport to other events throughout the year! Bring your completed passport to War of the Wings and turn it in at the Hawkwood Camp for a special prize.

Make and Take: Atlantian Passport - Personalize your passport at our all-day craft station! Use our supplies or bring your own!

Martial Activities: Armored: Coin/Ransom Tournament, and Rapier: Valhalla Melee, Hero Tourney, Speed Tourney

Feast: The feast tells the story of our return from our diplomatic mission in Constantinople. The first course is a breakfast fit for the Sultan, the second course is a lunch in Cairo, and the third course will be a supper in our estate near Paris.

Merchants: Merchants Welcome, please contact the Event Steward Rene de Binche at chatelaine@hawkwood.atlantia.sca.org

Cancellation/Refund Information: Refunds will be provided for pre-registered gate fees if a refund request is submitted to the Event Steward/Reservationist via email within 7 days of the close of the Event.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

A&S: Our popular Crafter's Green is back this year!

There will be an Arts & Sciences competition thematically tied to the event theme: Beyond The Pale. See website for details as they develop.

Martial Activities: Sword University is back to prepare attackers and defenders across The Pale with the martial skills they need to know.

Narrative armored fighting interspersed with skits as well.

See website for details as they develop.

Feast: A lunch feast will be provided for $10 for adults, $5 for youths. Lunch will contain historical English and Irish recipes. Details to come. See website for details as they develop.

Directions: From all directions: follow mapped directions to Turkey Thicket Dr. After turning on to Turkey Thicket Dr., continue forward until a branching drive appears down and to the right, opposite the Montgomery County Public School building. Once on the drive, follow the gravel path, bearing left at any intersection until the drive ends at the IWLA site.
