Royal Message

Til lýðs Lochacs senda Þórvaldr ok Amabilia sínar hlýjustu kveðjur ok þakkir

Unto the folk of Lochac do Þórvaldr and Amabilia send their warmest greetings and thanks.

We crossed the breadth of the sea to Mordenvale, where destiny awaited us in the form of our Heirs. There we beheld the victors of the lists: Count Aonghus mac Griogair mhic Raghnaill, proven and steadfast through many a tourney, standing resolute for Contessa Magnifica Ginevra Lucia di Namoraza, whose grace and brilliance shine like the morning sun upon the sea-cliffs. In their bearing we saw both strength and promise, a union of skill and radiant spirit worthy of the trust placed in them.

Under the glow of the hall-fires, we gave ourselves to rejoicing and feasting, celebrating all who had taken part in the day's noble labours. Warriors and companions alike were honoured for their courage, skill, and good fellowship upon the field, where shield rang on steel and resolve was truly tested. Laughter rose with the music, cups were raised in thanks, and stories of valour were shared long into the evening, binding all present in camaraderie and shared purpose. Thus, did we mark not only the victors of the lists, but all who strove, making the day one of great joy and worthy remembrance.

TRM: Þórvaldr and Amabilia
Konungr and Drottning of Lochac

From thence we took wing and travelled by air to St Sebastian's in Cluain, within the Barony of Ildhafn, where the pace softened and spirits were renewed. There we found welcome respite in leisurely hours, tabled with amazing food and easy laughter, and the deep joy of renewing bonds with treasured friends. Upon the fields we witnessed a stirring testament to the strength of the Dream, as great numbers of keen-eyed archers stood ready together with heavy and rapier fighters. In fellowship and shared purpose, we were reminded that our strength is ever magnified when many come together as one.

We also marked milestones of joy across the Kingdom, celebrating the gatherings of kindred hearts and shared history. Though we were unable to attend Torylon's Pride as it marked its 30th year, those celebrations were close in our thoughts, and we rejoice in the strength and continuity of that beloved community.

We were privileged, however, to stand in person with the Barony of Southron Gaard as they celebrated their 30th Baronial birthday, sharing in the warmth, pride, and fellowship of the occasion. In both near and far celebrations, we are reminded how deeply these bonds of community and history enrich the Dream we all serve.

As we set our course onward, our thoughts turned to Rowany Festival, toward which we now travel with eager hearts. We look forward with great anticipation to the days of revels, challenges, and companionship that await, and to sharing once more in the pageantry, joy, and fellowship that so brightly embody the Dream. May the road rise to meet us, and may the coming festivities be filled with laughter, valour, and memories to be cherished long after the fires burn low.

Þórvaldr and Amabilia

Kingdom Missives

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the wonderful populace of Lochac!

My Name is Elizabeth Haworth of Sherwater and I am your new Kingdom Chronicler (the first one from the Crescent Isles). I am relatively new to the SCA having joined five or so years ago, but I have found it to be a wonderful organisation with very friendly people who are so generous with their knowledge. I delight in herbs and cooking and, while I am still learning, I also enjoy archery and textiles, all of which I will continue to do as I fulfill this role.

Like Lady Magdalena af Husum before me, I will endeavour to make Pegasus as informative as possible, so please do not hesitate to contact me at chronicler@lochac.sca.org if you have anything you would like included in our Kingdom's newsletter. Moreover, please do not hesitate to contact me if you spot a mistake so I can correct it in the following edition.

I wish to take a moment to thank Lady Magdalena who, despite our tyranny of distance across the ditch, has not only provided me with an endless amount of help in getting this edition of Pegasus out on time, but has chosen to stay on as my Deputy Chronicler.

And to our Seneschal Hlæfdige Mildryth Thomaswyf for this opportunity, the SCA has given me and my family much and I hope to return the favour as your Chronicler.

Yours in Service
Elizabeth Haworth of Sherwater
Kingdom Chronicler

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Lochac,

Just a quick note from me this month.

I would like to thank our amazing outgoing Pegasus editor Lady Magdalena af Husum, for all her hard work putting together so many Pegasi for us. And thank you to new editor Elizabeth for stepping into the role. I hope you enjoy your tenure!

I am very busy (as are many of us, I'm sure) with Festival preparations. I will be there for the whole event, so if you'd like to have a chat, please feel free to come and say hello!

Yours in Service,
Mildryth

From the Crux Australis

Unto the heralds and populace of Lochac does Gwyn Cantor send greetings.

This month's resource highlight is OSCAR.sca.org, the system by which submissions of names and devices are tracked and reviewed. Previous submissions can be accessed without a login. You can find out how other submitters have drawn your suggested device element (but please don't substantially reproduce someone else's art without permission), see if we've recently registered a charge or device element and what it's usually called, and better still, access prior documentation for device or name elements (please credit original submitter if you use it).

Congratulations to the following gentles on their successful registrations! Usually I abbreviate the commentary (the original can always be found at heraldry.sca.org/loar/), but this month we have a useful pronunciation note, and one summary of commentary that Wreath clearly had a lot of fun writing. We also have no less than six 'Nice!' The College of Arms thinks we have good taste. And two populace badge registrations!

* Alazais Escoffier de Verdun. Name change from Alazais de Chainebrigge and device. Azure, two lions combattant tails nowed and in chief a shamrock, a bordure flory Or.

* Alot de la Bro. Device. Sable, an opossum statant regardant contourny, on a chief nebuly argent the Roman capital letters X and L sable.

* Ambroso Angelo da Prato. Alternate name Arturo Paladin.

* Ayla Rosendorn. Alternate name Camelia Cockarell. Nice English name for circa 1600!

* Gavriil Slotkovich. Badge. Argent, a Maltese cross sable and a mount gules.

* Gawain Cockbain. Name and device. Per fess gules and sable, a sword fesswise reversed and a monkey rampant maintaining a grenade and a tankard argent.

* Heinrich von Stahlberg. Name and device. Per pale gules and Or, in saltire a handgun and a sword sable.

* Henry de Croydone. Name and device. Vert, a rabbit rampant argent and on a chief Or three crocuses affronty purple. Nice mid-13th century name!

* Joanna of Braidwood. Alternate name Joanna of Broadwood.

* Leo of Achaia. Device. Azure, four lions passant two and two Or. Nice canting device!

* Maude atte Weylete. Name and device. Per pale vert and argent, a saltire parted and voided counterchanged. Nice English name for the late 13th century!

* Oliver Hawkins. Name and device. Argent vêtü ployé vert, a hawk proper. Nice English name from 1582! Nice cant!

* Oliver Hawkins. Badge. Argent vêtü ployé vert, in pale a death's head and two swords in saltire sable.

* Razin al-Basir ibn Ja'far ibn Ma'bad. Alternate name Fa Qiu. [...] this name is correctly pronounced as faa chu [...]

* Runa Ivarsdottir. Name and device. Argent, a wolf sejant, in chief a rermouse sable.

* Saint Christina the Astonishing, College of. Badge for populace. Or, a duck rising to sinister, wings displayed vert maintaining in its beak a dagger sable, a bordure embattled gules.

* Saint Monica, College of. Badge for populace. (Fieldless) In saltire a pen azure and a pen argent.

* Siegfried Jaeger von Lunz. Name and device. Quarterly embattled argent and sable, two ravens sable and two crosses of Santiago argent.

* VÉRÚN Geirsdóttir. Name.

* Winifred de Flundrepool. Name.

Commenters circled the waters over whether Flundrepool is a reasonable constructed placename. The name is clearly meshed together from the sense of a pool or estuary where flounder are found, which seems perfectly on porpoise. We have plenty of examples swimming around in the historical record of placenames formed with the pattern [animal] + pool. These include Froggepol (1320), Endepole (circa 1300, where Ende means duck), and Fishpool (1550). Given this shoal of evidence, the construction of Flundrepool is neither fishy nor a red herring, but a thoroughly plausible name that fits neatly into documented streams of topographic place names.

Any herald who assists with submissions should have an OSCAR account allowing commentary at Kingdom level (the first month after submission), which also allows our heralds to assist submissions for most other Kingdoms if they choose. Prolific, well-informed, helpful commenters who are interested in commenting at Laurel level (for all submissions in the Known World, after Kingdom commentary concludes) may be invited or ask to do so.

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Lochac!

It is with sadness that I must report that impending conclusion of Master Diego Alonso Moreno's warrant as Keeper of Lists (Crescent Isles), however, this warrant comes at an exciting time for the incumbent officer as Lochac's lists have just been launched well past the 16th century with the introduction of more clouds and less paper.

Therefore, Lochac needs a new Keeper of Lists (Crescent Isles) to harness this new power! This role is vital in ensuring that combatants can safely take the field and participate, and joins a team of dedicated Kingdom officers who are passionate about their martial streams, and of whose work I am very proud.

Key requirements:

- You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older
- Reliable and responsive access to email and internet connection
- Access to an office setup, or home office to print and process authorisation cards
- Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks

Key elements of the job:

- Receiving authorisation paperwork from the crescent isles.
- Entering new and updated authorisation details into the authorisation database.
- Printing and sending out crescent isles authorisation cards in a timely manner (assistance available for any equipment required to perform this).

Please send your applications by 5th of April 2026 to marshal@lochac.sca.org. Do please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, and any relevant experience, along with any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in receiving this warrant.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Yours in Service,
Gilbert Purchase

Note: the Office of the Keeper of Lists (Continental) is also open.

From the Kingdom A&S Officer

Greetings, Lochac!

For A.S. 61, we are going to trial a system of (optional) online submission for entries to the A&S Championship.

Benefits:

With this format, I hope to provide a better, more streamlined (and more modern) opportunity for those entering from far afield, or for such entries as research papers which don't fit the five pages/five minutes guideline. Judges will be able to assess more complex works at greater leisure than is possible under event conditions.

Submitting a digital entry also makes it easy for your work to be published in Cockatrice, or shown on the website and social media. The path from permission to publication has been rather meandering in the past! Over time, it would be great to build an online archive of arts and sciences from around the Kingdom.

New and Old for 2026:

Old: the competition setup at Crown events will be conducted as usual. Find the A&S table as early as you can on the Saturday, and leave your entry and form for the judges to examine.

Old: Local early judging is still available for those who can't get their entry to the event. Contact your local A&S officer to arrange this.

New: Use the Google form to upload your entry electronically. KMoAS will organise judging. Links below.

The Details:

Entry forms for Youth and for General entrants are available on the KMoAS Google Drive. You will have to sign in to a Google account to use them - apologies to those who can't do this, but Google ended up being the best current solution. Also, there is a limit on the upload amount for responses, so please be sensible about large images or videos. You can always host these elsewhere on the internet, and include a link to them in your submission.

Digital entries should be submitted at least three weeks ahead of the event judging day, just as we have been doing for local early judging. This timing allows for volunteer judges to examine them, and have their responses ready to be bundled with the on-the-day entries.

The early-submission period for the Autumn Coronation round (whether online or for judging in your local group) is open until the end of 9th May 2026.

The general Entry Form is here <https://forms.gle/aUETJxqu5dotnnpD7>

The youth-only Entry Form is here <https://forms.gle/3ajk29TfwRCp7wP38>

Of course this is an evolving system, and I'm sure there will be hurdles and glitches as we go along...that's why it's a trial. ;) Please let me know if you spot problems, or have useful suggestions to make it work better.

In service,
Dame Joan Sutton
