From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Caid!

Time is flying and We are already over halfway through Our reign. Looking back over the whirlwind of the last few months, We are so grateful to the entire Kingdom of Caid for making this kingdom such a wonderful place to rule. Every event we meet new people, see new art, hear tales from new fighters. We hear about people teaching, people learning, people helping others, celebrating friends' successes, and holding them close through struggles.

We look forward to celebrating a number of upcoming territorial anniversaries and tournaments, traveling from Dreiburgen to Calafia, from Nordwache to Western Seas. We are incredibly excited for Great Western War and We know Our warriors, archers, equestrians, and artisans will shine brightly.

We also have Heirs! Congratulations to His Highness Skalla and Her Highness Lorissa. We are so excited to have them beside Us and We know they will do wonderful things for this Kingdom.

Thank you everyone for your kind words and support throughout Our reign and We look forward to penning a few more newsletters as your Monarchs.

From Their Royal Highnesses

Greetings Caid!

We would like to thank you all for an amazing crown. The Barony of Lyondemere was an amazing host and their populace were so supportive to everyone who came.

Thank you to the combatants and their consorts for an honorable tournament and for some fun throughout the day.

And a huge thank you to the warm welcome we received from you the populace! We hope to have a great time and take you all with us on this ride.

Long Live Caid!

Your humble servants,

Wilhelm

Al-Caid

Lorissa

Lady Caid

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

Volunteering in a non-profit organization is more than just giving your time—it's a powerful way to share your talents, grow as an individual, and connect deeply with others. Before, after, and during any event, each of us has something special to offer, whether it's knowledge, skill, a creative idea, or a compassionate heart. Volunteering gives us the chance to share these gifts with others, creating a positive impact within our community, contributing to 'the dream'.

While November continues to be a full schedule of events, Great Western War stands apart as an opportunity for us to join, share, and give of ourselves as we enjoy wonderful experiences springing from the efforts of numerous others. If you're looking for a way to share, grow, and connect with your chosen family, consider volunteering. Not only will you help others, but you'll also enrich your own life in ways you never expected.

'Thanks and giving' to the Crown, Kingdom, and Society.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
--Sir Philip

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

As we grow closer to the end of another amazing year, to Great Western War's possible new spot in the calendar, to new heirs, to upcoming Yule celebrations, I want to take a moment to thank all of those people who make this game fun, exciting, relaxing, and even enlightening for all. Truly, thank you for your hard work and efforts.

I never thought when I volunteered to assist a previous Chronicler that I could or would be here; a Chronicler myself. To be an unofficial deputy, then officially a deputy, to here. Being the one to write the letters to the populace about how unapologetically unique each and every one of you are. Co-stewarding my own event, but really leaning on others who have done it all before. My point is to implore anyone out there, if you want to learn a little more about what a Seneschal does or how the office of a Chatelaine works or how to Herald or any number of niche interests you might have, please ask. The kindness and breath of knowledge in our kingdom is as deep as the oceans with fellow players who are waiting to sail you across the waters to a whole new side of yourself not previously known.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdottir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid

"M,M,M"

Dragon heart Tavern welcomes all weary travelers and locals from across Farhaven. On this night, however, the conversation may take a dark turn. Lately, there has been unrest in Farhaven and across the Stern Isles. Crime is running rampant in the city and merchant ships are being attacked on the open sea. Magic users have always been distrusted by the crown, but now an ancient family could threaten the Crown Prince Demetrius Harcourt's claim to the throne. With talk of a royal overseas mission to seek out this family, who were the protectors of the realm's dragons for centuries, there has been an air of uneasiness and whispers of war. Tonight, attempt to leave these worries behind as you head to Dragon heart Tavern ... just be wary of who you trust.
