Eastern Fall Crown Tournament, November 1, Barony of Carolingia (Topsfield, MA)

The Barony of Carolingia is pleased to welcome the populace of the fierce East Kingdom to the Crown Tournament of Donovan Shinnock and Chatricam Meghanta. Join us for a day of fighting and pageantry as the next heirs for the kingdom are chosen.

The site is the Arena at Topsfield Fairground! If you remember the Fall Crown Tournament in 2023, then you'll know the site. This is an indoor turf area with extensive bleachers. The central turf is only for foot traffic, with minimal exceptions. Please note that while this is an indoor arena, it is a metal building in New England in the early winter - warm layers are encouraged. Something soft to sit on is also encouraged.

The bleachers are wheelchair accessible via a ramp, and there is space to park a wheelchair or mobility scooter on the lower level. We also plan to have limited space on the field (using carpets to protect the turf) for people who are mobility impaired and will have trouble getting into the bleachers. If this is you, feel free to bring a chair and sit in that location. Please do not plan on using this space unless you need it, so we have enough space for those who do.

The list of combatants will be made available here.

Details on the tournament format are below. Please direct any questions to Donovan and Meghanta.

- 1) Round Robin: Probably four pools, subject to change based on number of entrants or other concerns. Bring your best, single pass, refight doubles until clean. If necessary, ties will be resolved first by comparing who beat who in the pool, with fight-offs as needed.
- 2) Sweet 16: Double elimination tree. Bring your best, single pass, refight doubles until clean.
- 3) Semi-finals: Winner's list vs loser's list. Winner needs one victory to advance to the finals, loser needs two. Bring your best.
- 4) Finals. These will be best 4 of 7. The first pass will be greatsword, subsequent passes will be rotating non-repeating weapon forms. The loser of the previous pass chooses the form for the next pass. If the combatants reach a 3-3 tie, the combatants will each bring their best form for the final pass. If you are planning on choosing a particularly specific weapon form (Dane axe, 6' spears, something that nobody has thought of) consider bringing a matched set to ensure that your opponent is able to meet you.

Food and Drink on Site: The site does not allow outside food inside the arena due to town Board of Health restrictions. They will be operating a snack bar with typical sports stadium food available for purchase, such as muffins, pizza, hot dogs, candy, and sodas starting at 9am. They accept electronic payments through Venmo, but suggest bringing cash as a backup because of possible connectivity issues. They are OK with 'tailgating' if you want to bring your own food and eat it outside. Fighters may bring appropriate snacks and drinks to consume while competing. Attendees may also bring water bottles.

No alcohol may be consumed within the facility or visibly in the parking lot, and there is no smoking or vaping in the facility. They ask that food and drinks other than plain water be kept off the turf to protect the field, even if purchased from them. There is ample space outside the turfed area for eating.

Merchants Welcome! There is no additional fee for merchant space, and there is ample space for multiple merchants. We encourage you to reach out to our merchant coordinator for more information.

See the EK website for the tentative schedule.

Youth Activities: Youth Point at Crown Tourney will be open 10-3 during the event. Feel free to drop by. Please know that parents / guardians are expected to stay with their youth to help maintain the 2-deep leadership. Stay tuned for the Activities List!

The Inn of the White Cat, November 8, Shire of Owlsherst (Mechanicsburg, PA)

"Sing for the White Cat, sing for the hall, that's all that we ask of you here!"

Come one, come all, to The Inn of the White Cat, a jolly tavern event hosted by the Shire of Owlsherst! The Inn is haunted by the ghost of a white cat who howls unless she is appeased by music or entertainment! Thus the entire time the Inn is open, tavern-goers are encouraged to sing, make music, or perform stories and poems, to prevent her dreadful, bloodcurdling yowls.

The Shire of Owlsherst promises an entertaining day in the tavern, with music and entertainment, dice and card games, an indoor axe-throwing competition (special axes provided), hearty and simple tavern-style food served all day, and all the fun and camaraderie you could ask for!

Brewers and makers of potables are invited to bring tasty beverages to try, and attendees are welcome to bring their own beer or wine (follow PA liquor laws and drink responsibly). Contact Maol-Mhuire at 301280@members.eastkingdom.org to participate in the Potables Tasting Barre. We are seeking brewers to provide a sample of their beverages as well as to sign up to work a shift at the Potables Tasting Barre.

Musicians and performers! Contact the Event Steward, Linette de Gallardon (info below) to get on the schedule for a full set of music, or just plan to perform spontaneously when the White Cat howls!

Please note: the tavern atmosphere will mean the hall will be lit by artificial candlelight. Please bring your own electric candles to add to the lighting!

PAYPAL IS LIVE!! Reserve now to be sure to attend this fun event!

Artifacts of a Life VI, November 8, Barony of Beyond the Mountain (South Windsor, CT)

The Barony Beyond the Mountain invites the populace of the East to join us on November 8, 2025 for a unique opportunity to recreate the past.

Have you ever thought how cool it would be to walk into a museum or an archive or an archaeological dig and see the things that your persona left behind? This is your chance to create that experience! Depending on the culture and time period, these could be grave goods buried with you, recreations of items mentioned in your will or probate inventory ("my second best bed to my wife..."), documents such as charters, indentures, or receipt books, or items that might be found in an excavation of your life context -- all the ways that we know about the material culture of the past and can reconstruct a plausible life. Examples can include votive gifts found in a bog, the tools found in your workshop when they dug up the old town to put in a parking garage, and the cookbook passed down for 8 generations. In short, the things that could have ended up in a museum that were associated with your life, or the life of a persona that you wish to recreate (it doesn't have to be your current SCA persona).

To add spice, there will be a contest and rich prizes will be given -- goodies from artisans of the East, as well as materials for future projects. The rules for the contest, as well as information about registering your entries, can be found at the event website: <https://bbm.eastkingdom.org/events/artifacts-of-a-life/>

See EK Website for info on scheduling.

St. Andrew visits Bavaria, November 8, Barony of An Dubhaigheinn (Middle Island, NY)

Come join Barony An Dubhaigheinn as our patron saint, St Andrew, visits Bavaria for a fall volksfest in the biergarten. Biergartens came about due to seasonal limitations on when beer could be brewed, which were in the Bavarian brewing regulations by 1539. The cool seasons were chosen to minimize the risk of fire when boiling mashed grain into wort. Numerous conflagrations had occurred, which resulted in the prohibition of brewing during the summer months. In response, large breweries dug cellars in the banks of the River Isar to keep their beer cool during storage. "Beer cellars" for consuming beer on premises naturally followed. This expanded outside the cellars where benches and tables were set up for people to enjoy themselves in the shade of trees in what would become biergarten.

HEAVY LIST TOURNAMENT

The tournament to determine the next Baronial Rattan Champion will be part of the festivities!

10/07/2025 UPDATE:

Their Excellencies have declared that on St. Andrew's Day, we find a new rattan Champion. So fighters come and play! As Baronial Champion it is my quest to be relieved by a fighter who is proven the best. I have machinated, planned and schemed to create a tournament that will decide your fate. Some trees and rope, we got us a tomb a glorious labyrinth of impending doom! Fighters beyond our borders, join us with weapons and shield, though the Champion's Sword, Baldrick and Title is only for An Dub's taking the field. Come to witness or compete, you don't want to miss... The Glorious Dungeon of the Black Abyss!

Bjorn's Ceilidh, November 8, Barony of Concordia of the Snows (Scotia, NY)

SITE IS BONE DRY!!!!

Another year has come and gone and Valhalla has called some home, and with the veil between the world of the living and dead at their thinnest, Concordians both past and present, come and join us for our annual Ceilidh.

As a bit of an experiment this year, we're looking to make this lightly themed event...in this case, leaning into Nordic and Viking style. People are encouraged (but not required!) to dress accordingly.

Highlights of the day:

-Baronial Bardic Championship hosted by Master Robert Tytes : this years topic.....

Greetings Bards of Concordia,

Our annual Baronial bardic competition fast approaches and we are pleased to announce the format.

The competition will be over three rounds of performance where you will be judged on the skill of the performance, the complexity of the piece, and your ability to demonstrate the breadth of your skills. Each competitor will have a maximum of 15 minutes combined performance time across the three rounds.

Participants are encouraged (but not required) to show off the wholeness of their art by competing with a musical piece, a spoken piece, and a piece they have not competed with yet. Please be aware that by winning the competition, you should plan to attend Baronial court at our local events and organize the competition for your successor. You may also be called upon at times by their Excellencies to entertain the populace of the Barony as needed. Please direct any questions to Robert Tytes who will attempt to answer them promptly.

-Silent Auction for Charity: This year, in honor of Toki Redbeard, all funds from the auction will go to Capital Pride. (Cash or check only)

-A&S Display by Thais the Weaver 164791@members.eastkingdom.org.....Something Old, Something New: This year's display honors our history, our journey, and our present. Bring your oldest A&S project that you can find and your newest project (completed or at least displayable) and tell us the years each one is from. No documentation is necessary, but feel free to bring it if you have it! There will also be a memorial display section if anyone wishes to include a project made by a Concordian who is no longer with us. Folks are welcome to email with any questions

-Activity Lounge: come and draw your own Norse Rune or color some pretty Norse pictures.

-Traditional games...and some less traditional ones.

100 Minutes War, November 22, Shire of Rusted Woodlands (Sparta, NJ)

As winter's woeful song begins to sweep across our beautiful shire once again, our thoughts turn to friends, a warm fire and War! The very beautiful Shire of Rusted Woodlands is delighted to invite the valiant warriors, learned artisans, and good Gentles of The East Kingdom as well as her beloved cousins from far off lands as well as close neighbors to test their mettle once again at the glorious battle we call The 100 Minutes War.

Pets are not allowed on site. Service animals (licensed, and vaccinated) are, of course, permitted. The main hall and immediate area are accessible. Attendees are allowed to bring their own adult beverages (i.e. this is a wet site).

* Masks continue to be absolutely welcome in the Hall and grounds if you feel more comfortable wearing them. We do implore you, if you are feeling unwell to please stay home. Testing before attending is encouraged if possible. We would love to see you but would also celebrate seeing you some other time when we are all well.*

We ask that you park at a safe distance from one another. There is plenty of parking available. A limited number of spaces near the hall will be set aside for those cars displaying valid handicapped license plates or placards. Please be considerate of your other parking friends and mindful of your decisions. The parking lot is a grass lot and may have muddy spots due to weather. Sadly we have no control over the myriad different types of weather we may or may not have this time of year in the East Kingdom, so we respectfully request using your best and most considerate decisions.

Schedule times may shift depending on attendance levels and warriors present. Site opens at 8:30. There will be a marshal's meeting at 9:00 (see details below). Morning court is between 9:30 and 10 AM, and there may be traveling courts as well depending on Royal preferences.

A 9:00AM meeting has been scheduled by the honorable Sir Reinhart Basarab Draculesti, EK Earl Marshal, for marshals of all martial disciplines. Location TBA. The site is opening early to accommodate this meeting; pre-registering will speed your entry. Thank you for your time and cooperation.

Due to the popularity of this event, we do ask that all combatants be armored and ready to fight at the scheduled time. We also ask that you get in as early as possible and get inspected before making your way to the list and the MOL. If you're not properly inspected, you will not be able to fight. As traditional people may troll in at the main hall or near the parking lots. This field troll is co-located with the MOL to efficiently check heavy weapons authorizations.

Please see the EK and event websites for marshal activity schedules and additional information.

Event website: <https://rustedwoodlands.eastkingdom.org/wordpress/events/100-minutes-war/>

Harts & Horns , November 29, Shire of Hartshorn- dale (Douglassville, PA)

Welcome all to the Shire of Hartshorn-dale for our annual Harts & Horns! Like previous years, we will have rapier and armored combat, a delicious afternoon feast, dancing, gaming, and Arts & Sciences.

The theme for this year's John Marshall atte Ford food competition will be bread! Details posted below.

Feast

The full feast will be at 2:00 in the afternoon to allow gentles to enjoy feast without going late into the evening. There will NOT be a lunch style dayboard, but 'Elevenies' will be on a side table in the main room with coffee, tea and snacks throughout the morning. Attendees are encouraged to contribute a snack to the table.

Tournament

Anyone is welcome to enter the tournament. If you do not wish to serve as Shire Champion please indicate that when you enter. We ask that our Champion be ready to represent Hartshorn-dale when called upon to do so at regional events. We will be looking for both our Rapier and Armored Combat champions.

John Marshall atte Ford food competition: Bread! The third annual competition in honor of Magister John Marshall atte Forde will be held. This year the theme is "Bread." Entrants are asked to bring two loaves, or approximate equivalent of smaller bread items. One will be used by the judges and one will be for the populace display. If a loaf, please do not cut one of the loaves, but feel free to cut the one for display.

Minimum documentation required will tell the judges what you made, what ingredients you used (vital, bread will not be judged without this information), your process and any period inspiration or sources you may have used. We know, however, that there are not a lot of sources and that will be considered during the judging process. Judging will be done using plain butter that will be provided. Please feel free to provide additional spreads for the populace presentation. As with last year, the exact categories will be determined by the number and kind of entries. At minimum there will be Judges' top and populace top. Prizes will be items from the collection of John Marshall.

Feel free to contact Elizabet Marshall (123583@Members.Eastkingdom.org) with any questions just to let her know you're planning to enter.
