From Their Royal Majesties

As We look forward to the coming year, a great deal of travel lies ahead of Us, and Our hearts are filled with anticipation. Our kingdom is blessed with so many anniversaries to celebrate, and We eagerly look forward to seeing dear old friends and making new ones as We journey throughout this great land We all call home.

We ask this of you, our populace: please come and speak with Us. Share your thoughts, your ideas, and your concerns. It is Our greatest wish to meet you, to listen, and to truly know you.

This reign will also see Us upon the fields of war. His Royal Majesty Wilhelm, will attend War of the Phoenix in Atenveldt this February, while Her Royal Majesty Lorissa, will be present at Rapier War here in Wintermist. In March, We will travel together to Gulf Wars, before returning home to stand with you once more at Our own Potrero War.

Finally, We extend Our deepest thanks and heartfelt appreciation to the Coronation staff and the Queen's Champion staff. Your dedication, labor, and tireless efforts made these moments possible, and We are profoundly grateful for your service to the Crown and the Kingdom.

We look forward to the road ahead and to sharing it with all of you. In service to you and the Kingdom of Caid.

Wilhelm

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

As the echoes of our most recent Coronation resonate through the halls, it is a joy to reflect on the grace and pageantry that ushered in our new Crown. Transitioning from the regal splendor of the investiture to the warmth of our Twelfth Night celebration, we found a perfect moment to toast to the previous reign's fellowship and the enduring spirit of our Society. As winter retreats, I feel a keen sense of anticipation for the upcoming tournament season, as combatants and consorts alike look forward to displays of prowess and chivalry that grace our tournament fields.

In the coming months, tournaments abound! Thus, it is time to put away those winter coats and get ready for another spectacular tournament season. As your Kingdom Seneschal, I am deeply moved by the tireless dedication of our stewards and volunteers who ensure these events run so well; your service is the bedrock upon which our dream is built.

I hope to see you all at an upcoming event.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom and Society,
Sir Philip
Kingdom Seneschal

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

It seems that yet again the new year has opted to start off strong. Hitting the ground running, so they say.

With Twelfth Night under our, if the holidays have anything to say, well-tightened belts, it only seems fitting that we continue barreling towards warmer weather with the expectation of more and more events to come.

The wheel of life continues to roll on. But, for now, in this month, we mundanely celebrate love in all of its forms. And I do so love my chosen family here. So, why not take this time to show someone you care. Share with a hug, or a story, or a homemade treat, sweet, or stew. Or even with an acknowledgment. An "I see you". Write a letter about all the amazing things your friend and loved one has done. Maybe things that are behind the scenes like stewarding events or volunteering at Gate or with Lysts. Maybe things not so behind the scenes, like with set-up or tear-down. Things that we don't usually think about but are very much important.

Let us celebrate one another, because you all are awesome!

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdottir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid

Tri-Kingdom University

On the weekend of February 6–8, 2026, the Universities of the Kingdoms of Drachenwald, Atlantia and Lochac are coming together to create a 27-hour online University. It will be an opportunity for teachers and students from all Kingdoms of the Known World to come together to share knowledge and companionship in a way never before seen.

Information on the event, including how to submit class proposals, can be found on the event web site: <https://sites.google.com/drachenwald.sca.org/tri-kingdom-university/home?authuser=0>

Brief History of the St. Hildegard Coppers

By: Karin Georgsdottir (contributor to "St. Hildegard Coppers")

Ian Cnulle, the moneyer who created the dies for the St. Hildegard coppers that today are among the Society's most collectable tokens, was a native of Caid.

Not many people, gentles and otherwise, know that Cnulle (Gregory Paul Franck-Weiby) was born 10 March 1950 at Harriman Jones Clinic and Hospital in Long Beach, today in the Barony of Lyondemere. He attended Long Beach-area schools and graduated from California State University, Long Beach with a degree in Philosophy.

He produced many, many tokens in the SCA but, for better or worse, Cnulle is best known for the St. Hildegard coppers. The $1 trade tokens were first minted in AS 27 (1992), issued regularly for years after and continued to be redeemed until AS 43. The coppers have long-since been hoarded out of circulation by collectors and other enthusiasts, but remain highly recognizable for their obverse bearing the emblem of a medieval abbess; and reverse struck in honor of kingdoms, royals, households, merchants and, on occasion, organizations outside the SCA. However, the origin and history of the St. Hildegard coppers has, for most, been something of a mystery.

"St. Hildegard Coppers," published in November, has been produced and edited by Arion the Wanderer (Dave Peters), Minister of the Moneyers Guild of An Tir and once apprentice to the late Cnulle.

Cnulle, together with Watt Kidman (Walt Patrick), produced the first St. Hildegard coppers in November AS 27 (1992). Hot-struck on 1-inch diameter, 3/32-inch thick copper blanks, each copper weighs in at about 14 grams. Their size gave a delightful period heft and jingle in the hand and pouch. The coppers quickly became informally popular among populace and merchants, a way to shop, trade and wager forsoothly at events, merchant booths and gaming tables. The coppers' circulation quickly spread throughout the kingdoms and they regularly turned up at the society's larger events such as Pennsic and Gulf Wars.

The front of each copper bears the emblem of the University of St. Hildegard, named for the 12th Century German Abbess Hildegard of Bingen, with its highly recognizable "+H" surrounded by inscription "SANCTA HILDEGARDENSIS." The University of St. Hildegard was an educational institution, organized in the SCA as a household, dedicated to studying the arts and sciences of medieval life.

The St. Hildegard coppers often are called "baraks" in honor of Barak Ravensfuri, the Lion of An Tir - as well as a Knight, Pelican and Royal Peer, one of the 11 Ravensfuri siblings - for whom the first coppers were struck.

Cnulle created the die for type No. 17, the "Caid Kingdom Badge Type," in January AS 33 (1999) for the reign of King Altomuki and Queen Luciana. "The Caid token proudly displays the main charges of the heraldic device of the Kingdom of Caid, three crescents in sensuous relief," Cnulle later described in a letter to his father. "The inscription bears the names of the King and Queen and reads ALTOMVKI+LVCIANA.CA'I'D."

The following October, Ian produced the St. Hildegard copper type No. 23, "The Golde Lemon," in honor of a well-known SCAdian merchant. This type first entered circulation during the following month's Great Western War.

Other St. Hildegard copper types include type No. 16, "The Caravan of the High Silk Road," minted in AS 33 (1998), for an association of merchants trading in the lands east of the Mississippi river; and No. 43, "Lynn the Weaver Lucets," minted in AS 38 (2003) also in honor of a well-known SCA merchant.

Among the most poignant of the coppers was that struck for the Midrealm in AS 33 (1998) to commemorate "Count Sir Jafar al Safah," who won the Midrealm Crown Tournament in the Fall AS 32 (1997). The kingdom looked forward to Jafar's coronation, his second, the following spring but he died unexpectedly that December after a brief illness. The kingdom grieved and Jafar's Consort, Kenna, was crowned and she reigned alone in his memory. For this copper, Cnulle said he attempted "a real portrait" of Jafar, inspired by a late Roman/early Roman solidus, and incorporated the kingdom's badge, a dragon, into the shield on Jafar's shoulder.

The final St. Hildegard copper, No. 45, the "Mjolnir Heatherlands/Thor's Hammer" type, a memorial copper struck in memory of a Seattle Knight's member, was minted in AS 40 (2005).

By the time the last St. Hildegard copper was struck, the price of copper had spiked to the point that the metal content in each copper was worth more than its redeemable value of $1. That outer-world development helped along a desire by both Cnulle and Kidman to move onto other projects. Those included Cnulle producing dies and tokens for Arkansas-based Shire Post Mint, such as for the HBO series “Game of Thrones.” Those include “The Faceless Man” token, still used in gaming today, and Cnulle’s “Daler of New Dale.” Cnulle also continued to produce tokens for SCA events and his “mint” became a must-stop-by place for many SCAdians.

Brief History of the St. Hildegard Coppers

The outer world also recognized the uniqueness of the St. Hildegard coppers, which feature in multiple volumes of Krause Publications’ “Unusual World Coins” as “Coinage of the Realm.” The St. Hildegard coppers’ collector base today is international.

Cnulle continued moneying in the SCA and redeemed the St. Hildegard coppers until his final event, An Tir September Crown AS 43 (2011) in the Barony of Glymm Mere. Cnulle died unexpectedly the following November.

The coppers quickly fell into SCAdian memory. Today's collector base is international, despite so little available for so long to explain where the coppers came from, who designed them and what part they played in SCAdian history.

“St. Hildegard Coppers” provides that history of the coppers, written by those who knew Cnulle, and also provides, for the first time, high-quality photos of each type, along with lightly edited descriptions written by Cnulle himself.

Angels Melee Tournament & Harnischfechten Deed

WHEN: Saturday, February 7th, 7:00am – 6:00pm

WHERE: Kuns Park, 1600 Bonita Ave, La Verne, CA 91750

Angels Melee is back again and will include Armored and Rapier lists. Combat will take place in a round-robin format using melee rules. Assemble your 5-person team either ahead of time or on-site and sign up on lists for a fun filled day of melee combat. Unfortunately, we cannot accommodate combat archery, thrown weapons, or rubber band guns at this site.

For those able and interested, there will also be a Harnischfechten deed of arms. This will be one-on-one combat, not melee, and will follow the SCA Harnischfechten Experiment rules based on the Dekoven Concord. Harnischfechten, a modern reconstruction of historical armored fighting techniques, is an ‘armor as worn’ and ‘weapons as effective’ combat system. Prior experience is not required. For more information, contact the event stewards.

We will be hosting an Arts display with the focus on Martial Arts through history and through the history of the SCA. We welcome everyone to bring any art/armor/heraldry to be displayed with a description of the item and its history.

If your Barony/Shire would like to reserve space along the eric, please contact the event stewards by February 4th.
