To the People of Calontir,

As February arrives, it brings with it a moment We have carried in our hearts since the day We first took up the crowns. With gratitude, humility, and hearts that ache even as they overflow, We write to you now as We prepare to step down as your King and Queen.

Serving Calontir has been the greatest honor of our lives. You entrusted Us with your Kingdom, your traditions, and your hopes, and We were never alone upon the throne. Every cheer, every act of service, every shared challenge and triumph reminded us that the true strength of Calontir has always been its people. Any good We accomplished during this reign was made possible by you.

To the Kingdom: thank you for your trust, your patience, and your love. You taught Us, supported Us, and stood with Us in moments of joy and in moments of strain. You showed Us again and again what it means to serve something greater than oneself, and We will carry those lessons with Us always.

To Our beloved household: We owe you more than words can express. You were the steady hands and watchful hearts that ensured this reign ran smoothly and with grace. Your loyalty, sacrifice, and devotion carried Us through this journey, and Our reign was stronger because of you.

Leaving the throne is not easy. A part of Our hearts will always remain upon it. Yet We step aside with pride in what We built together and with deep confidence in Calontir's future.

As We lay down Our crowns, We ask you to turn your love and support toward those who follow Us. Welcome them as you welcomed Us. Stand with them as you stood with Us.

Please join Us in joyfully welcoming Our heirs to ascend the throne of Calontir, with our full blessing, our confidence, and our enduring love.

From the depths of Our hearts—thank you, Calontir.

*In service and in love,
Emerick the Stormblessed
Kolfinna the Wise*

Calontir!

We have solidified Our long lasting friendship with Our allies the Outlands! We have met with Our allies of Vindheim! Our blood intertwines. Our futures are one. As peace time continues, art flourishes. Our Artisans traveled the roads and presented their wares. Love begins to swell as Our Kingdom sees the end of upstanding era. We look to Our forefathers and foremothers for guidance as We see Our opportunities begin. War still wanes, yet We are strong. As winter breaks, Calontir stands united. Together we will sow the fabric of our future story. Together we create history, but only together we may do it justly. Move forth Calontir, spring together, reborn from winter into the life of war and revelry.

Calontir, prepare yourself, as Our Allies await us!

In Service to the Dream!

Xerxis and Andromir

Princes of Calontir

Welcome to 2026 Calontir!

It seems like yesterday we were at Lilies, under the shade fly wondering where the breeze was and asking ourselves if we had enough ice. Coronation is right around the corner and soon we will be welcoming our new Majesties.

With the new year comes opportunities to volunteer within the Kingdom! We are seeking someone to fill an advocate position, as Mistress Giovanna will be stepping down shortly. Please see the excellent article about this valuable office in this issue of the Mews. If you know someone that would be a wonderful fit for this office, please encourage them to apply, or if you feel that this is for you, then, please apply. Letters of interest need to be sent to myself, Their Royal Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses by February 14th, interviews TBD.

I am still on the hunt for a Background Check Deputy. This person would be responsible for managing the email request for background checks, replying to emails in a timely manner, letting the individuals know what information is required for the background check and then processing the request when returned. This position does not require a massive amount of time and would be great for someone who is looking to be involved with the Kingdom. Applications for this position are now being accepted. Please send letters of intent to me at, Seneschal@calontir.org

Even as the snow falls, Calontir's 4th company is planning for warmer days of Gulf and Pennsic. Their Majesties, Their Highnesses, and Mistress Genevieve, (the head of the Soup Kitchen) are seeking a 4th Company Water bearer to help keep not only Calontiri but the Known World hydrated while they are away from home at war. Please send your letters to Crown@calontir.org, Heirs@calontir.org and Seneschal@calontir.org Deadline for letters is February 14, 2026, interview times are still being determined. The 4th Company water bearer works with the head of the soup kitchen to provide supplies and a water station to support Calontir water bearing efforts away from home. This is a Royal Appointment and not a warranted position. If you need more information, please reach out to Mistress Genevieve or HL Anne von Weingarten.

Finally, I want to extend my thanks to HL Jorunna Refsdottir, our outgoing Kingdom Reeve. She has done a wonderful job reaching out to groups to encourage them to submit bids for Royal Events. She is a strong advocate for our smaller groups hosting events like Crown and Coronation and has offered multiple times to help groups pool resources to host larger events that they might shy away from. She has been a marvelous resource and if your group thinks they might have a good site for a Royal event please contact our new Kingdom Reeve, HL Randlar Tokesson. Together, they can put their heads together to help you determine if your group has a suitable site and navigate the bidding system.

*HL Anne von Weingarten
Seneschal-Kingdom of Calontir*

Greetings!

I am pleased to announce that Oddný Óttarsdóttir has agreed to take on the position of Eyas Herald. We will begin to transition to her over the next few months, but please continue to send heraldic submissions to eyas@calontir.org.

I would also like to announce a joint Heraldic and Scribal Symposium hosted by the Midrealm on August 22, 2026 in Collinsville, IL. It will be a full day of classes and activities, with space set aside for armored combat as well!

If you're interested in helping out, or teaching a class, please reach out to the Midrealm's Dragon Herald, Kyrios Kallinikos Gavras, at herald@midrealm.org.

I am looking forward to seeing many Calontiri there!

*In Service,
Dýrfinna Tonnudóttir
Gold Falcon Herald*

Greetings Calontir!

We are still seeking candidates for the office of Kingdom Webminister. This role does not require computer programming skills, however candidates should be "tech-savvy" and willing to learn. The office is responsible for building and maintaining the kingdom's web presence and for supervising the local group webministers. These technologies include Wordpress, Google Workspace, Google Sites, and interfacing with our web-host. If you are interested in this position, please send your letter of intent to webminister@calontir.org. Include any relevant experience and explain any goals you may have for your prospective term.

We are also in need of a new Lilies War webminister as well as webministers for several local groups. If you are interested in these roles, please also send me an email at webminister@calontir.org.

*Sincerely,
Gawin Kappler, OoD
Calontir Webminister*

The Role of the Advocates

Baroness Fionnghuala inghean Fhearghuis, OL

There has been quite a bit of confusion regarding the role of the Kingdom Advocates' Office in recent months. Part of that confusion stems from the fact that the job description is ever evolving and is based on both populace needs and rulings from the Board of Directors, the Society President and Society Seneschal. This article is an attempt to clarify some of the misconceptions that people may have regarding the position and purpose of the Advocate's Office.

First, the job of an advocate is to advocate for victims. When someone comes to us with an issue, understand that it is not our job to investigate or punish the perpetrator. We are prohibited by the BoD from doing an active investigating of the incident ourselves. The reasoning for this is that we are involved in advocating for the victim, so there is potential for bias.

Secondly, we are there to guide and support the victims through the reporting process. We will listen to your report of what happened and discuss what your options are, answer any questions you have, and stay in contact with you to communicate what's going on as we are able.

There are three options when someone reports an issue to us. All these choices are made by the victim, and we cannot and will not try to influence them to either escalate or de-escalate their choice.

1. The victim may just want us to write a report to have on file in case the perpetrator offends again to show a pattern of behavior with the perpetrator. This is the basic, "Hey, you guys need to know about this" option.

When this option is chosen, the victim should realize that they may be asked about what happened to them again if the perpetrator hurts or goes after another person, and that victim has decided to pursue more serious consequences for that second issue.

2. The advocates can be asked to mediate issues. The victim can either be present or not for this. If there is a member of the populace that has been hateful to you, and you make a report to the Advocates, we can sit with the you the victim, and the perpetrator and mediate the issue to reach some sort of agreeable conclusion between the two parties. If you don't want to be present, we can go to the perpetrator and present them with what occurred, discuss why what they did was inappropriate, and outline the consequences of continued bad behavior.

After the fact, we will write a report that will go into the Advocates' file. Again, if the person who had the complaint made about them reoffends against another person, you may be asked about the incident you reported. This is to enable a pattern of behavior to be recognized if needed.

3. The third option is the "heavy" option. The victim has decided to pursue a sanction, banishment, or R&D. The victim reports to the Advocates and states they wish to make a formal complaint. The Advocates will take a written report that goes to the Kingdom Seneschal. The Kingdom Seneschal appoints an outside, impartial investigator. That person will talk to all parties involved, including witnesses, and then make a report of their findings. That report will be read by the Kingdom Seneschal and will be discussed with the King and Queen. Together, the three of them will decide on what will be done. Some things, like sanctions or banishment (exile), can be decided by the Crown. However, to have someone's membership revoked and prohibited from playing in the SCA altogether, the matter must go before the Board of Directors, and they may do their own investigation to make that determination.

When the Advocate takes a report, we have the responsibility to be honest with the victim regarding what they can expect. The Advocates may explain that a victim's complaint may not meet the criteria for the corrective actions the victim may want, but that is only to prevent the victim from being disappointed. There are also things that the S.C.A. has no authority to oversee, and the Advocates will advise you what other options you have, if that is the case in your situation.

Some points to remember: The Advocates CANNOT solicit any reports. For instance, if I hear through the grapevine that you had an issue with someone, I cannot come up to you and say, "Hey, I heard you had an issue. Wanna make a report?" The Advocates must be approached by the victim, not the other way around. A witness to an incident can report that occurrence to the Advocates, and we can inquire with the victim about the incident to verify, but we cannot ask the victim to file a report. We can only document what the witness has told us.

Everything the Advocates have reported or told to them is confidential. Who has complaints against them, how many complaints, if they've had complaints against them before... The Advocates are prohibited from discussing those matters by the Kingdom and the BoD, with anyone other than the Kingdom Seneschal, the other Advocates, and a special investigator, if appointed.

If you are involved in a situation and aren't sure if you should reach out to the Kingdom Advocates and make a report, we invite you to contact us and explain your issue. We can help you by clarifying what the Advocates can and cannot do in your situation, walk you through the reporting process, and give you support as you navigate the procedures necessary to bring your issue to a hopefully satisfactory conclusion. You can send a report or reach the Advocates with your questions by e-mailing us at: advocate1@calontir.org , advocate2@calontir.org , or advocate3@calontir.org .

Deadline: The Chronicler must receive event copies no later than the 1st of the month THREE MONTHS PRIOR to your event. For Example: If the event is in November, the flyer must be received by August 1st for the September Mews. Refer to the Calendar at the front of the Mews.

If there is an issue with meeting the deadline, please contact the Chronicler ASAP. There is no grace period. The deadline is final and non-negotiable. The earlier a flyer is received the better!
