Royal Message

Til lýðs Lochacs senda Þórvaldr ok Amabilía sínar hlýjustu kveðjur ok þakkir.

Unto the folk of Lochac do Þórvaldr and Amabilía send their warmest greetings and thanks.

Such joy and celebration have taken place around the kingdom since Máni last rode his sky-road, from Fields of Gold and Rowany Yule to all the local festivities marking the year's end.

His Majesty, Þórvaldr, attended Fields of Gold, where the folk of Politarchopolis, keepers of hearth and hall, showed fair hospitality. The gathering called Fields of Gold shone bright as Freyja's meadow, a feast of fellowship worthy of memory. It was a privilege to bear witness to and induct Master Sigmund Spelmann into the Order of the Mark. I shall bear this long, as skalds bear song in their minds; for many winters hence, this joy shall live in the saga of my days.

Reign of Porvaldr I & Amabilia I

the leadership and effort they have given the Barony during their tenure.

We wish every success and joy to Rowany's new Proconsuls, Roman and Tullia, as they continue the Barony's long tradition of service, strength, and fellowship.

We both attended Rowany Yule, where once again such fair hospitality was shown during the Baronial changeover. We humbly thank Baronessa Juliana and Shaykh Ibn Jelai for all

We also celebrated many members of the populace for their recognition and endeavours, and the surprise and joy on the faces of the recipients shall long remain in memory.

As the Yule-moon rises, we reflect upon the year's saga—woven with deeds of honour, the labours of many hands, and the fellowship that binds hall to hall and heart to heart. The old year fades like embers in the longhouse fire, and the new year stands waiting, bright as a freshly forged blade.

May the gifts of Yule—peace, joy, and good fortune—find their place at every table.

As Máni steers his silver ship into the year ahead, may he light your path.

May Freyja bring warmth, Odin wisdom, and Thor strength for the road yet to come.

We look eagerly toward the coming year, and to all the halls, hearths, and heartfelt moments that await us there.

In service to the Dream,
Þórvaldr and Amabilia
Konungr and Drottning of Lochac

From Kingdom A&S

Greetings, Lochac!

Here is a quick update on the status of Lochac's Arts and Sciences Championship:

There are currently three gentles running neck-and-neck for the right to wear a Champion's pouch, with two or three others not far behind. All of these people have consistently entered every round so far this year.

The top three contenders are:

THL Melissa Wijffels, with 274 points,
Master Padraig Lowther, with 272 points, and THL Adeline de Montfort, with 270 points.

You can see just how close it is.

The final round, to be held at the Autumn Crown Tournament in Mordenvale on February 28, will definitely be the decider, and you have to be in it to win it!

Themes for the coming Autumn Crown are "Buttons", "Glass" and "Byzantium".

Happy creating over the next few months, and best of luck to everyone.

In Service,

Dame Joan Sutton,
Lochac Kingdom
Arts and Sciences Minister

From Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Lochac,

In the next month or so, I will be stepping down from the position of Kingdom Chronicler. It has been a great pleasure to serve the Kingdom and I have learned a great deal along the way. I have met many wonderful members of the populace through my time as Chronicler.

I have very much enjoyed my 2 years of working on Pegasus along-side all the Crowns during their reigns. All of whom have been an absolute delight. I'm sad that it is all coming to an end, where did all that time go?

Being in this position has allowed me to see that there is a lot more that goes on behind the scenes, that most of the populace don't even notice, until something goes awry.

Please watch this space to see who my successor is and wish them all the very best!

Yours in Service,

Lady Magdalena af Husum
Kingdom Chronicler

Officers for Rowany Festival

Greetings Lochac,

The Festival Stewards are now looking to fill the many and varied roles that go into running Rowany Festival. We have had offers for some roles and will contact those gentles shortly to discuss their plans.

If you feel that you can run an office for Rowany Festival, please contact us at rowanystewards@gmail.com

If you would like to help, but are unsure if you have the required skills please contact us too, as we may be able to connect you with someone to mentor you through the role.

Rowany Courtly Music Recital

Greetings to Lochac,

This is a planning post for the Courtly Music Recital at next year's Rowany Festival. (This message has also been shared in the Lochac Musicians and Performers Facebook group.)

The Courtly Music Recital is an indoor event for period music and spoken word performances, which has been held each Festival for almost a decade now (time flies, doesn't it?). It's open to anyone who wants to perform, at any skill level, as long as the performance is under five minutes and suitable for a mixed-age audience. If you're interested in performing at the recital, or attending as an audience member, please read on.

At the most recent recital, I asked the people who were present for feedback about how the event had evolved over time, and how they would like it to evolve in future. The three main points that came up were:

1. Now that Sunday is FAT/RAT day, the recital should move to a different time so that it's easier for people to attend.
2. We should advertise the recital more to encourage the general populace to come and watch.
3. We should try out inviting Royal and/or Baronial guests, so that the Recital has a higher profile and performers get more visibility.

All of these are things I'm very willing to try out, but I want to make sure I'm hearing from people who WEREN'T present this year as well. Would it work to move the recital to another time? Monday morning, maybe, since there's usually heavy war that day?

Do we want to encourage a larger audience? And finally, do we want the more formal kind of activity that comes with having thrones in the room?

If we did invite Royal/Baronial guests, I feel like a good way to handle it would be to book a two hour timeslot, with the first hour for the formal part of the recital, and the second hour available for anyone who wasn't comfortable performing before the Crown. That would also allow us to maybe have advance sign-ups, with early sign-ups getting first dibs on performance slots in the first hour, so that we could tell if we needed to seek out more performers in order to have a full program, while still having extra time available for people who decided to perform after getting to the event. But the question of HOW we manage having a potential Royal/Baronial presence is one that comes after WHETHER we should do that.

So please, if you have thoughts on the three points above, as a potential performer or audience member at the recital, let me know!

Yours in Service,

Mistress Gwen verch David

SCANZ Meeting

Greetings to all members of SCANZ,

There will be a Special General Meeting for SCANZ members held at Canterbury Fair, on 18 January at 7:30pm at Canterbury Fair, in the Main Hall.

There will be just one item of business at the meeting as below.

All SCANZ members present at Canterbury Fair are invited to attend. Other CF attendees may join as observers.

(Astute readers may note that this is 3 days less than the 6 weeks notice period of a general meeting required by our current constitution. Our bad, but having the SGM on the evening before the main CF activity starts is the least inconvenient time, and much better than trying to fit it into some other time during CF. Please bear with us).

Agenda for the meeting:

Proposed that two changes be made to the 2025 constitution. These changes are a single item of business, meaning that either both or neither of these changes will be made, according to the vote at the meeting.

Change 1. Remove clause d) from section 1.6.3 under "The purposes of the society" and renumber the remaining clauses of that section.

1.6.3 But SCANZ will not operate for the financial gain of members simply if SCANZ - ...

~~d. provides benefits to members or their families to alleviate hardship.~~

Change 2. Add a clause in section 11.1 "Alterations to the constitution", and renumber the following parts of that section.

"11.1.2 No addition to, deletion from or alteration of the organisation's rules shall be made which would allow personal financial gain to any individuals. The provisions and effect of this clause shall not be removed from this document and shall be included and implied into any document replacing this document."

The background to these changes:

Inland Revenue Department has requested that we make these changes to our constitution to maintain our income tax deduction as a not-for-profit organisation. We have disputed the need for these changes since we consider that the current wording is allowed for in the Incorporated Societies Act 2022, either explicitly for the first text, or implicitly for the second text - all incorporated societies are required be not-for-profit by law anyway.

The Incorporated Societies Office are following up with IRD as to why we have been asked to removed a clause that has been provided by law. We suspect the IRD staff member who made the request for these changes was not aware of its origin.

Unfortunately, communicating with IRD appears to be a very slow process and we are running out of time, so this SGM will be to approve these changes so that we can avoid any tax issues while negotiation happens. Should further discussions with IRD result in our not requiring its removal before the meeting, we will not vote on it. If (more likely) the IRD discussion runs on past 18 January, we vote to remove it, noting that we may change it back in the future, if IRD can be talked around.

What happens if these changes are not accepted? SCANZ will face a considerably increased tax bill, since the $1000 tax deduction for not-for-profit organisations will not be available. The committee recommends that these changes be passed by the meeting.

A copy of the current constitution is available for reference on the SCANZ Rules and Policies web page at <https://sca.org.nz/node/56>.

In service,
Scott Campbell,
SCANZ Secretary

Upcoming Events

Participants are reminded that if they are unwell or showing cold or flu-like symptoms, they must not attend any of the following events.

4th January 2026: "Monthly Tourneys and Potluck Barbecue" Barony of Southron Gaard, New Zealand

St Sebs is an annual camp with a focus on archery and fun. There will be archery games as well as the competition to find our new Baronial Archery Champion. It is a camping event in beautiful verdant surroundings, it is fully catered with delicious period food cooked over open fire.

You just need to bring yourself and some camping gear (modern tents are fine), and something period to wear. This year it will be a royal event with Their Majesties in attendance. To honour Their Majesties the event will have a Norse theme. It is a very family friendly event with plenty of activities including a heavy combat tournament, rapier, music, arts and sciences classes, games. If the weather turns out to be very wet, the event will run the following weekend.
