Royal Proclamation – Griffin's Nest

With the blessings of Their Majesties King Tom and Queen Wu, do We, the Heirs of Northshield, Prince Axel and Princess Jacquette, issue the following Royal Proclamation:

This winter, none in the lands of Northshield shall know hunger. To that end, Their Highnesses establish the Griffin's Nest Food Pantry. Their Highnesses request that at every event the autocrats dedicate one table be designated on site for the donation of non-perishable food and goods. Their Highnesses will make a donation at every event and encourage members of the populace who are able to join them. These food items will be made available to any and all populace members and non-members without question. Populace members may take from the table any items they need. They may also take items for individuals not in attendance to be delivered. At the end of each event, remaining items will be donated to the Minneapolis Veterans Hospital Food Bank or local pantry.

This proclamation shall expire at the completion of Jacquette and Axel's tenure as Royals.

Kingdom Polaris Herald

Greetings from the Polaris Herald pro tem.

Abelard has set up a mailing list for heralds in the kingdom, and I started using it in January. If there are any heralds who haven't received any emails from Polaris, please check your spam folders. If you still don't see a message, reach out asking to be added to the list.

We want to build a stronger heraldic community here in Northshield. To facilitate this goal "Heraldry is a Team Sport" quarterly meetings have been added to the Kingdom's Zoom calendar. The meetings are scheduled for the second Tuesday of February, May, August, and November, from 7pm to 9pm central time. These meetings will give us time to not only talk about heraldry but also get to know each other. All heralds are welcome.

Heraldry adds to the atmosphere at events. If you want help in choosing a name or designing a device, talk to your local herald or any herald about it. If you want to get involved in being shouty at events let us know.

Cheers,

Clara

Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto Northshield,

I wanted to share a little bit of Northshield history this month. At one point, the kingdom had a quarterly A&S newsletter called Northstar, and it included a supplement focused on food and beverage related arts and sciences called Mead, Meat & More.

It was exciting to see a new edition of the Well-Versed in AS 59, and I decided to publish a MMM supplement in the next year as well. If you would like to be involved, please see page 12 for more information.

In that same line, it would be great to include more supplementary issues of the Northwatch related to other A&S topics as well as issues dedicated to service and martial fields as well. I would be happy to chat with folks who have ideas.

Yours in Service,

Sarra

Northwatch Editor

We are still looking for someone to take over the role of the Editor of the Northwatch. Please contact chronicler@northshield.org if you are interested in this position or have questions about the role.

The Northwatch is a fantastic way to showcase all the great work being done in Northshield. Did you teach a class at a recent event? Do you have a new A&S project or bardic piece? Please consider sharing some of your information for a future issue. The deadline for Northwatch items is the 20th of the month (and always listed in the calendar at the start of the issue).

Kingdom Webminister

Greetings!

We've gotten through the Domesday process! The reports on the website continue to be updated, and the ones that y'all fill out for the first quarter should go much more quickly and more smoothly. We continue to make improvements which are so minor you probably haven't noticed them. (Did you see that the 'Log In' button goes away when you log in? I love that.) We have some larger improvements under way as well. We're still working on some quality-of-life improvements, such as the ability to make persona profiles as long as you want and displaying users' photos (if they want them to appear). We have the usual code issues to work through (testing and troubleshooting is more difficult than you'd expect), but have added some new team members who should make the work easier.

As a general reminder, please log in and edit your profile (Resources -> For Members -> Edit Persona) to make the scribes happy. When you're editing your profile you should see options to change things like your Group and Pronouns and the like. If you see options to change site colors and a profile, you're in the WordPress Profile editor, and that information doesn't display on the website. The WordPress Profile also says 'WordPress Profile' at the top of the page. Please contact us at support@northshield.org if you can't find the place to edit your profile, or can't log in.

We have also been working with the Kingdom Earl Marshal and his team of deputies to ensure that everyone's authorization data is up to date. In conjunction with this effort, we will be running a poll to determine which is everyone's favorite background for the Authorization Cards. Watch for that on Facebook and via the Northshield Hall mailing list.

We hope to make instructional and how-to documentation and videos available soon. If there's a particular thing you'd like to see, or would like more instruction about, please let us know at suggestions@northshield.org.

Which brings up a related note. In addition to their personal profiles, officers – and I mean all officers, whether they are Kingdom officers or local officers – have office-specific logins to connect to the website. There are some functions available to some of the group officers which many people don't know about yet, such as the ability for a Baronial Herald to manage that Barony's order of precedence, or for a Group Seneschal to submit event requests, or for a Group Webminister to manage email accounts for your group. If you are a group officer and would like to have access to those tools, please contact us at support@northshield.org. Behind the scenes you're logging in with Google accounts and have access to various tools and functions as a result, and y'all should take advantage of that fact.

Stay tuned for more updates!

In service,

-Abelard

Kingdom Earl Marshal

Torta Bianca: White Tart

This recipe is an adaptation of recipe found in: Redon, Odile, Françoise Sabban, and Silvano Serventi. Translated by Edward Schneider. The Medieval Kitchen: Recipes from France and Italy. University of Chicago Press. 1998.

For the crust: I used flour, butter, salt, and water. I rolled it out and laid it in a pie pan to bake for about 15 minutes at a higher temperature before adding the filling. The crust should be allowed to cool for at least 10 minutes after removing it from the oven. This will prevent the butter from separating once the filling is added.

For the filling:

12-16 ounces homemade cheese at room temperature (depends on what type of cheese you use. It should be a soft white cheese. You can also use 16 ounces of cream cheese)

6 egg whites

1 cup of sugar

4 tablespoons of butter, softened

1 tsp ginger

1 cup milk

salt (to taste)

Rosewater/additional sugar

I beat the cheese and butter together until smooth, added the sugar, salt, and ginger. I mixed the egg whites and milk together and gradually beat these into the cheese mixture. This was poured into a pie shell and baked at 350-375 (depending on your oven) for 1 hour.

Sprinkle lightly with rosewater and sugar.

This Month in History – February

In studying books of hours and calendar illustrations in manuscripts from the Middle Ages, the images for February frequently depict figures warming themselves before a fireplace. Individuals frequently are seen stoking or maintaining the fire. There are also regular images of cooking food over flames, carrying bundles of wood, or individuals wearing heavy furs. Additionally, some manuscripts also show the zodiac sign, Pisces, with two fishing lying head to tail. The labors of February were similar in style to those of December and January with folks gathered around a hearth cooking or feasting. There are some illustrations showing individuals getting ready for spring planting by digging fields or pruning hedges. However, you are spending these last weeks of winter, may you be warm and well.

Do you have a favorite redacted recipe that deserves the spotlight? Have you spent hours researching spices, hearth-cooking, or the evolution of the feast?

We are seeking submissions for "Mead, Meat, and More," a special supplement to the Northwatch debuting in early AS 61. This is a wonderful opportunity to honor Northshield's long tradition of food and fellowship while preserving our collective culinary knowledge.

We are looking for:

- Redacted Recipes: Historical sources paired with modern interpretations. All experience levels are welcome.
- A Variety of Cultures: We welcome all time periods, regions, and cuisines from pre-1600 history.
- The "Modern Middle Ages": We also want to celebrate our kingdom's unique history! Share favorite recipes from moots, local potlucks, or those "tried and true" camp kitchen staples.
- Research Articles: Deep dives into historic ingredients, kitchen tools, dining etiquette, or food preservation.
- Practical Tips: Advice for cooking over an open fire, managing a high-table feast, or feeding a warband on a budget.

Submission Details:

- Deadline: July 15, 2026
- How to Submit: Send your articles, recipes, and any accompanying photos to chronicler@northwatch.org.
- Confirmation: If you do not receive a confirmation within 48 hours, please resend.
- Publication: Anticipated release in September 2026.

Help us spread the word! Please feel free to share this announcement with your local branches and guilds.
