Greetings Outlands!

The beauty of the winter season lies in the comradery that grows from coming together to feast and make merry. The darkness surrounding the close of the old year and rebirth of the new can leave many seeking to surround themselves with light and joy. Those who have found the magic that exists within the SCA are fortunate in these times, for they have discovered a way to find joy and celebration, even in the darkest of months.

While the paths that brought us to the SCA vary, and our interests within the Society are diverse, we all choose to participate in the Society because it gives us something that, in some way, lifts our spirits. The Society offers much to those who wish to learn and better themselves. In its ideals, the SCA gives us something to aspire to.

The Outlands has a rich and storied history, with many perspectives coming together to make us who we are. Though we may see things in different ways, there are common threads that bind the Kingdom and the Society together. While these differences are what make us stronger as a group, they can also lead to disagreement. Particularly relevant when these disagreements inevitably occur, is that this organization is built on courtesy and chivalry, and we should remember these things when we find ourselves at odds with one another or in difficult interactions. It is in these difficult conversations that the Kingdom moves forward and grows as a whole.

While we don't all have to love one another, we do all need to treat one another with respect. We have come together to celebrate, and attempt to experience through immersion, times of respect and courtesy. Remembering why we're all here can help remind us to give others the benefit of the doubt and to make room for growth and movement past differences.

For Ourselves, the winter months have been both busy and full of joy and it has been wonderful and inspiring to see so many from all around the Kingdom at the various winter celebrations and practices. As the new year continues, We send warm wishes to all Outlanders and hope that if you're able, you'll join us at War of the Phoenix and Gulf Wars, or at the continuing winter feasts, events, and practices throughout the Outlands.

St. Brigid's Day Feast

Shire of Bryngolau

Brigit was a pre-Christian Celtic Goddess and was celebrated in late winter with Imbolc, loosely translated as “ewe’s milk” and indicates that the sheep are lambing and a new season has begun. St. Brigid was a 5th century Irish woman adopted as a patron saint for dairy workers & farmers, blacksmiths, poets and midwives & healers.

We will make St. Brigid’s crosses, have games, and ask the populace to entertain during feast with a song or poem. A feast will feature spring foods. A menu will be published to social media and our website once it is settled on.

Greetings unto the Outlands!

I hope everyone had a lovely holiday season, filled with friends and family (and if there happened to be a little heraldry in there, the more the better).

This month, the Outlands is hosting Virtual Known World and Heraldic Symposium (vKWHSS)! It is the weekend of January 23–25, starting about noon on Friday and ending about 5 pm on Sunday. The event is fully online (classes are on Zoom, with Discord used for announcements, handouts, and the like) and free to attend. You can register at any time up to the start of the event at kwhss.sca.org. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me or the other event staff if you have any questions.

Also, it's January, so Domesday reports are coming due. If you are an at-large herald, please take the time to submit a summary of the work you have done in the past year at: portal.outlands.org/officers/reports. I am working on a review and update of the roster, including promotion, and the best way to tell me what you have been doing (especially if you do your work places I can't physically see it) is to report!

Finally, a reminder to all group heralds, in particular Baronial heralds, that it is your responsibility to ensure that court reports for non-Royal courts are submitted in a timely fashion (Blue Iris does this for Royal courts). The herald who conducts the court is expected to actually submit the report, but if you are the herald for the hosting group and you didn't conduct it, you should reach out to the herald in charge and ensure that a report was submitted in a timely fashion. This is the only way we can ensure that people's OPs (especially for Baronial awards) are correct and up-to-date. Remember the motto of the College of Arms: Non Scripta, Non Est (if it is not written, it does not exist).

Hope to see everyone (virtually) at vKWHSS later this month!

In Dienst,
Andreas von Meißen
White Stag Principal Herald
