From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Caid!

We have had a wonderful month of September. Highland War has long been one of Our favorite events. The populace of the Shire of Al-Sahid are so incredibly welcoming and hard working, We thank you! The Officer Symposium offered comprehensive training for various Kingdom and Regional officers to support the smooth operation of Our realm. The discussion, and training from this event should lay a strong foundation in Our territories for many years to come. Thank you to all the Kingdom and Regional officers who attended, and provided the training to refine their skills and better serve our Realm. The Barony of the Angels 57th Anniversary was a terrific day. Angels tournaments always bring a crowd, and the valor shown on the field was a sight to behold. We greatly appreciated the Caid Rapier Open hosted by Lyondemere. The martial skill on display was fantastic, and the inviting nature of both the Rapier community, and the Barony of Lyondemere truly made the event fabulous.

We are pleased to soon hold Crown Tournament, and eagerly look forward to announcing Our Heirs! We look forward to seeing the Valor shown on the field, as well as the pride, strength and direction radiated by the consorts. Crown contenders do your consorts proud, and keep their honor at the forefront of your hearts as you vie for the Crescent Throne.

We also look forward to the Barony of Calafia's 55th Anniversary. You always put on a good showing, and this year is sure to be no exception. Also, the Barony of Dreiburgen's 53rd Anniversary is to be an investiture. We look forward to congratulating Baroness Kungund Benehonig and Baron Ramvoldus Kröll on an amazing tenure, as these two gentles were a strong guiding light for their populace and the Kingdom at large. Huzzah to you both for all the awesome works, and to your new endeavors.

Looking back at this month of September, and forward into October, it is clear to Us that Caid is in a good place. The populace is strong, the Baronies and Shires are pushing into their next chapters. Caid make sure to take time from your projects, your fights and your tasks to look up, and see the works of others. It is you who makes this dream a reality. Know that you are seen, and your efforts make this place a greater Kingdom.

Yours always in service to this dream,

LIAM

Rex

FARA

Regina

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

This September brings about preparations for October Crown tournament. Please note that the opportunity to submit a letter of intent opened on 21 August and will be closed on 21 September. I extend my most honorable wishes to all competitors who will soon take the field. May each fighter enter the lists with courage and courtesy. It will be a day of proudly displayed skill, and chivalry.

Per the Crown, the combat shall be conducted as a double-elimination tournament, with each round fought as the best two out of three; in the final round only, combat shall be decided by the best three out of five, with each fight of that final round contested in a different weapons form. At this time, the Crown has determined that the first combat in the final round will be great weapon, followed by sword and buckler, sword and shield, and single sword, in that order. Should combat reach the fifth contest, combatants will be free to choose their preferred weapons form.

To all who compete for the Crown, may wisdom guide your choices and may your deeds upon the field be worthy of praise and song.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom and Society,
Sir Philip
Kingdom Seneschal

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

I will be honest as I am quite excited about several of our events this month. Mostly, and unapologetically biased about, I am looking forward to the Officer Skills Development Symposium. This is a great opportunity to get to know what is involved in being an Officer of the Kingdom. Plus, you can ask us questions and better understand what is required, what is legacy, and what is new from the current office holders. You can even learn what are expected of deputies of each office! Which I mention for no particular reason. cough I am looking for deputies if anyone is interested. cough cough And maybe you will find an office enticing enough to volunteer with.

But the Symposium isn't all, but also: Highland War, Leif Erickson, Harvest Arts, Angels Anniversary, and the Rapier Open will be part of the fun this month. A good assortment of events, in my humble opinion, but not too much as many of us are getting back into our mundane routines as well.

I look forward to seeing you all an event or two. Don't forget that if you want to share art, poetry, or insights into a topic you've just learned about, please send it over! I would love to add them to our newsletter.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdottir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid
