Words from the Crown

Unto the glorious Kingdom of Atenveldt does the Crown send warm greetings.

To all those who made the long journey to Æthelmearc with Us to Pennsic War, thank you! Whether you took the field beneath Atenveldt's banner, lent your voice from the sidelines, offered a helping hand in service, or simply brought a little Atenveldt sunshine to the other side of the Known World, you represented Our Kingdom wonderfully. Pennsic is made memorable not simply by battles won, but by the friendships strengthened and stories brought home, and We could not have asked for better companions with whom to make those memories.

Many thanks to Countess Hürrem, Mistress Mattea Locatelli, Mistress Moira O'Droogan, and Master Thomas Towlewardie for helping Us look so good while still being so comfortable.

Our heartfelt gratitude goes to HE Alice Richardson, the newest Baroness of Our Court, for all her hard work organizing the Kingdom camp and trailer; to Mistress Genevieve de Lironcourt for keeping those in camp well fed; and to Sir Rhys Ravenscroft for making the long journey east with the Kingdom trailer in tow.

And finally, a very special thanks to HE Jorgen Unruh, whom We officially declare the MVP of Aten Camp at this year's Pennsic, for his seemingly endless help, unfailing courtesy, and generosity throughout the entire week. Whenever something needed doing, Jorgen seemed to be there, and We are tremendously grateful for all he did to make Pennsic better for Us and for those around him.

We are excited to settle into the glorious autumn of Our reign. In the same grand fashion, September will begin with having new Heirs to the throne and We look forward to spending quality time with our Aten family in these final months and helping Our heirs have a magical start to their time upon the Solar thrones.

We ready our own field of valor so that the sun may shine upon Our heirs, who will host the War of the Phoenix for the known world. On the fields of our Crown tournament pageantry will be expected. Show your pride for yourself and your consort by bringing out your banners, touch up your shields and polish your helms. We wish it be known that any fighter with tape or sticker markings upon their helm will not be allowed to fight upon the field. Lastly, to those who find Us at Crown and solemnly declare, 'My helm is polished and my shovel ready,' may earn a small token of Our appreciation.

With affection by our hands,

Commentary Request: Proposed addition to Corpora

As part of a proposed change to address a gap in Corpora regarding confidentiality, we invite you to provide commentary on the language changes in Corpora that this update will require. This commentary will assist the Board in forming further decisions relevant to its consideration of this matter. Deadline for commentary is September 20, 2026.

Please note these are proposed ADDITIONS to Corpora, nothing is being removed. All emphasis marks (bold/italic/etc) are provided to help clarify.

Proposed addition to Corpora, Confidentiality and Royals. Amendments to Corpora IV.C.1 and Corpora X.B. Approved 07-19-2026 by the Board of Directors for release for commentary:

Purpose: This change is requested to address a gap in Corpora regarding confidentiality expectations for officers. Royals are defined as officers within Corpora (see Glossary, "Officers"). However, unlike officers with a kingdom or Society superior officer, they are neither warranted for these offices, nor governed by a Board-approved handbook, that explicitly outlines confidentiality obligations.

Given the nature of this access, Royals, as officers, must be held to the same standards of confidentiality as other officers. As they are officers without warrant or handbook, this gap would be addressed and codified in Corpora (which is a higher document in the precedence of law). In their roles regarding sanctions, Royals are routinely granted access to highly sensitive information, such as the details of names, places, and allegations with regard to kingdom investigations and the judicious application of Royal sanctions, as outlined in the Sanctions Procedures and Policies Manual (2024).

The proposed addition to Corpora seeks to clearly establish the confidentiality obligations for these officers, as it is with other warranted officers, based on their role and access to sensitive information.

Fundamental addition: Specifically reiterating the role of Royals as officers, and as officers, their obligations for maintaining confidentiality during, and after, the investigation process and any sanctions that may follow.

IV. ROYALTY

C. Duties: 1. Royalty, and the Royal Heirs, are officers of SCA, Inc., and/or its Affiliates, as defined in the Glossary found in Corpora. As such, Royalty must know and uphold the laws of their realm and Corpora.

X. GRIEVANCES

B. Sanctions: Sanctions

ADD: Confidentiality Within the Sanction Process (make this item 1 and 2, renumbering the remaining items accordingly).

1. Confidentiality Within the Sanction Process. Maximizing confidentiality in all aspects of the sanction process is necessary for people to feel free to speak openly and honestly about situations being investigated. To that end, all aspects of the investigation and resulting sanction, if any, are to be kept strictly confidential, except as necessary to investigate a matter or put into effect any sanction that may be issued. Officers and royalty involved in potential sanctions are prohibited from commenting on any sanction, or investigation into any matter that may lead to a sanction. Commenting includes, but is not limited to, revealing the identities of complainants or witnesses, and publicly stating facts or opinions regarding the matter beyond necessary announcements.
2. The duty to maintain confidentiality is a continuing obligation that survives the conclusion of the investigation, the completion, expiration, or removal of any sanction, and the end of an individual's term of office, warrant, or reign. Any breach of this confidentiality requirement constitutes misconduct and may itself be grounds for disciplinary action or sanction, independent of the outcome of the underlying matter. Such action may include removal from office, revocation of warrant, additional sanctions, or other remedies as authorized under Corpora and governing policies.

Please email all commentary to SCA-Comments@sca.org and use the title "Proposed addition to Corpora, Confidentiality and Royals" in the subject line. NOTE: Do not use attachments in your commentary. Attachments will likely mark your message as spam and it may be rejected by the server. Deadline for commentary is September 20, 2026.

You can also send commentary by mail, Postage-Prepaid, to:

People on the Move – Director Elect: Seat A

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce the selection of Jason Roach (Duke Baldric Leeman of NewCastle Emlyn) as the Director-Elect for Seat A. He will assume the position at the close of the October 2026 quarterly meeting. His term runs till April 2030.

Jason Roach is a consultant that supports the government of Canada in Cyber Security. Prior to that, he served in the Canadian Forces for over 29 years, deploying all over the world and being introduced to many fascinating cultures throughout the Middle East, Africa and the Balkans. He lives near Ottawa, Ontario with his lovely wife Natasha and the Energizer bunny of a lab named Neo. In his spare time, he loves building networks and infrastructure, watching the Toronto Maple Leafs, and pwnning N00bs in Call of Duty.

Duke Baldric Leeman of NewCastle Emlyn (he/him) was a 15th Century fighter who began his journeys in the town of NewCastle Emlyn, along the south-east shore of England. After a brief time travel episode Baldric traveled to the 900s where he joined the Varangian Guard before traveling to France and making a name for himself, teaching fighting and the fine art of fencing to all who would learn – for a price. He has been playing in the SCA for over 40 years, most of that time in Ealdormere, and has visited multiple Kingdoms around the known world, as far East as Drachenwald and as far south as the Kingdoms of Ansteorra, Trimaris and the West.

As new Directors are regularly seated, candidates for the Board are continually being solicited. SCA Inc or affiliate individuals may be nominated by SCA members and participants or can be self-nominated. No special experience is required, and candidates do not need to have specialized modern degrees. They also need not be peers – experience from every aspect of the Society is desired.

Champions in the Pines "As you wish"

Let all good folk of the realm draw near and attend this solemn yet joyous decree. By voice of herald and by will of the Barony of Granite Mountain, a call rings forth across hill and vale, through village and keep, to every soul who bears courage in their heart or craft in their hands.

Know ye that within the woodlands of Granite Mountain, during the cool month of September, a great gathering shall be held — a meeting of champions, artisans, storytellers, and warriors of every discipline. This assembly, known throughout the lands as Champions in the Pines, shall determine who among the populace shall rise to bear the Baronial Mantles of Honor for the coming year. The site shall be opened on Friday the 25th at the noon hour and the event shall end on Sunday the 27th at 4:00 pm.

All contenders prepare themselves for trials of skill and noble contest in these esteemed disciplines:

- Armored Combat, where steel rings and valor proven
- Rapier, swift and cunning as courtly intrigue
- Cut & Thrust, for those who blend grace with deadly precision
- Archery, where the keeneyed strike truer than fate
- Thrown Weapons, for warriors whose aim never falters
- Arts & Sciences, the lifeblood of knowledge, craft, and beauty
- Bardic Performance, where tales are spun, and hearts are stirred

Let none claim the challenge is beyond their reach — for such doubt is "inconceivable". When honor beckons, answer with the devotion of a true heart. And as you ready your gear, your voice, your craft, and your courage, take to heart the words of wise miracleworkers: "Have fun storming the castle!"

All who attend take note: There shall be feasting of the pot on Saturday evening, where everyone is invited to bring food to share, filling the hall with bounty and camaraderie. As we break bread together, the evening will resound with the stirring voices of bards, weaving tales and songs to delight all who gather.

On Sunday morning, before the site closes and folk return to their villages, we shall assemble once more for the traditional Baronial Breakfast—a final meal together in celebration and fellowship, marking the end of our great gathering with warmth and good cheer.
