Royal Missive

unto the most generous and welcoming populace of Lochac.

Coronation was held in Rowany in early November. Thank you to Our gracious Hosts, the Baron and Baroness of Rowany, and Our congratulations to the stewarding and feasting team for a marvellous event.

We thank Mistress Katherine and Sir Ratbot for their dedication to the Kingdom. They have inspired us and left an indelible mark on Lochac. The countless hours they devoted to fostering a sense of unity and joy within our community was appreciated by many members of the populace. Their reign has been a shining example of the ideals that make Our Kingdom vibrant and strong. We look forward to bestowing the title of Count and Countess upon these worthy gentles at the upcoming Canterbury Faire.

We would like to extend Our heartfelt thanks for the remarkable and diverse efforts invested by many in preparing Us for Our coronation and to all of Lochac, for warmly welcoming Us to this esteemed position.

Our anticipation is building as We look forward to visits to Fields of Gold in the illustrious Barony of Politarchopolis and celebrating Stormhold's 35th Birthday.

Our Chamberlain, Duchess Liadan, has graciously agreed to help us throughout this reign, serving as the point of contact for any inquiries. You may reach her at lochacchamberlain43@hotmail.com. Please contact her for any matters concerning our reign.

We wholeheartedly invite all members of Our Kingdom to submit recommendations for awards during Our reign. Your contributions deserve recognition, which can be accomplished through Canon Lore or by email at crown@lochac.sca.org

Lastly, We express Our deep appreciation to everyone who has dedicated themselves to ensuring that Our time in service to the Kingdom is a joyous and meaningful experience. We eagerly anticipate the possibilities of Our Reign and are enthusiastic about the opportunity to explore this vast and magnificent Kingdom. We are eager to rekindle old acquaintances, forge new connections, and acknowledge the remarkable accomplishments of the deserving individuals in Our population.

What do Pelicans Do? (From the Order of the Pelican in Lochac)

Here are some of Mistress Rowan's thoughts on what Pelicans do:

- They don't just do the work-- they take responsibility.
- They don't just do the office -- they improve the office's reputation, responsiveness, organisation and/or effectiveness.
- They don't just put in the effort -- they inspire others to work above their level and have fun too!
- They don't just take on easy, fun, or high-profile tasks -- they slog away at tasks that are nasty, boring, difficult, or messy until the situation is resolved.
- They don't just burn bright and burn out -- they delegate and pass on knowledge and responsibility in a way that builds the group.
- They pour oil on troubled waters and rain on spot fires, not the other way around.
- Their name brings immediate positive recognition from their local group, and/or their chain of officers.

From the Seneschal

Greetings

Three years ago, the required dates for Royal events (Crown Tournament and Coronation) were changed in an attempt to reduce the impact of Australia's climate (in particular) on attendees.

Kingdom law states "There shall be a 3-year period where the Kingdom will operate under the March-November event date structure, whereupon there will be another survey to gauge how successful the Populace feels this new calendar is working. Polling for this shall take place during the November 2023-May 2024 reign".

This is that reign and this is that poll. The dates under discussion are:

Current Dates

- March - Autumn Crown
- May - New Year's Coronation
- September - Spring Crown
- November - Mid-year Coronation

Original Dates

- January - Twelfth Night Coronation
- May - May Crown Tournament
- July - Midwinter Coronation
- November - November Crown Tournament

The poll will be open from the 1st of December 2023 until the 1st of January 2024. I strongly encourage all SCA members to contribute. The link to the poll can be found here: <https://forms.gle/vqCj3Hwc1qnQ9Acg9>

Congratulations to those that have been registered, and for those returns I hope that you can refine your device and look forward to seeing it in the next Letter of Intent.

We have a new King and Queen and I thank the outgoing King and Queen, Radbot and Katherine, for an entertaining and whirlwind reign. We wish you both all the best for your future endeavours. The Coronation of King Aonghus and Queen Ginevra was a wonderful affair, the site was spacious, the food delicious and the company most excellent!

If you are aware of someone who has something of note heraldically, eg first submission consultation, 10 years since first court, 10th or more submission, etc, please let me know so we can applaud them.

I aim to implement an "ask a Herald" at events so the populace can interact with group and visiting Heralds. Questions about how the college of Heralds runs, how long does a submission take, can I use a light sabre as a device and if not, what can I use? Submission advice and access to consulting heralds will also be available. I am running the first at Politarchopolis Fields of Gold and I hope other groups will start these at their events.

I am working to have the CHAF forms updated and they will not have a mailing address, just the email addresses.

Now for the not so fluffy item. I have just put in my first Quarterly report and out of 12 Baronies and 5 shires, I received only 8 reports. According to Lochac procedures manual: Missed reports, i.e. a report not received before the person who should have received it is due to report, must be notified to the group Seneschal. For groups over about 40 members, one missed quarterly report without reasonable excuse (preferably offered before the deadline) is grounds for removal from office. For smaller groups, two missed quarterly reports will be considered equivalent to resignation from office. Repeated late reports may also be cause for suspension or removal of an officer. I am granting an amnesty for this quarter but those that have not reported, please contact me so we can discuss any issues leading to non-reporting.

I am working my way through contacting my deputies, receiving reports from them so I can update their contact details, and at this stage they are:

- Coffyn Herald (Crux's drop dead deputy and second in command)- Gwyneth ferch Aeddán (once she steps down from Quarrel after Gwynhvyr of River Haven returns to our fair lands)
- Quarrel Herald - (maintains the Roll of Arms) Gwynhvyr of River Haven (once back in Lochac)
- Canon Herald - (maintains Canon Lore database and awards) - Arabella d'Aubigny
- Rocket Herald - (submissions) Sigrith parði
- Chainé Shot Herald - (education) Pádraig Lowther
- Powderhorn Herald - Uberto Renaldi
- Mortar Herald - (IT) to be taken on by Annys Blodwell
- Mangonel Herald - (silent Herald) is under construction so to speak and more on that at a later date.

Reign of Aonghus I and Ginevra I

For those of the rank of Macer Herald, it may be time to look at completing the Pursuivant test. I have had the pleasure of elevating Gwyneth ferch Aeddán to this rank and look forward to elevating more. Send your completed test to Chain Shot for review.

I would like to congratulate:

- Lady Amanda Martel on becoming the new Bombarde deputy. Lady Amanda is responsible for overseeing the book of ceremonies and is an excellent resource for any questions on awards and ceremonies.
- Mistress Glynhyvar of River Haven has taken over the reins of Quarrel, compiling and updating the Lochac Roll of Arms.
- Lady Gwyneth ferch Aeddán (aka Gwyn Cantor) has stepped into the role of Coffyn, my deputy.

I look forward to working with them and wish them luck in their new positions. If anyone has any suggestions or ideas that they feel would improve the College of Heralds, they can send them to me. Please seek out your local heralds and talk to them, ask questions on how the college works or how to get a name or device registered. We are all here to assist the populace to obtain and name and device or badge that they can be proud of.

Ouroborus Award

Greetings Lochac!

It is I, Wei Min Cheng, Chief Alchemist of the Alchemist's Guild, and I bring good news to those who like science and aren't afraid to show it.

With consultation with Kingdom A&S, we're proud to announce the first annual Ouroborus Award - a competition where anyone (from Lochac or the Alchemist Guild) can submit an entry, be it a physical object, a performance, or a piece of research, just to name a few, based around one or more of the categories listed below. It doesn't even have to be finished!

The categories that an entry can be entered in are broad but encompass the purview of the Guild. They are:

- Science
- Medicine
- Demonstrative

While Science and Medicine are easy enough, the Demonstrative category is unique in that it combines the Science and Medicine categories, but instead of static displays, the entrant is to demonstrate and explain their entry to an audience, as if they were teaching short A&S class, as teaching and sharing of knowledge is a Guild tenet.

Each category will be judged separately and by popular vote at the Guild's first anniversary – Great Northern War 2024! So everyone has 6 months to prepare their entries and arrange getting it there. Can't make the event but have an entry for the Demonstrative category? We have good news! You can pre-record your demonstration (in digital format) and submit it. It'll be made available to view before and during GNW. While the Science and Medicine categories will each have a winner, it's the winner of the Demonstrative category who becomes the overall winner of the Ouroborus Award and gifted with treasures from the Alchemist Vault and hold a special rank within the Guild until the next Ouroborus Award.

My apologies if I've missed anything in this initial post, it's my first time, but please message me in the Book of Face or email if you have questions.

The Lochac Fencing Combat Handbook has been updated to Version 6, effective 1 January 2023.

Greetings to all,

With the publication of this notice, please be advised that the latest changes to the Lochac Fencing Rules have successfully run the full gauntlet the rule change process.

Version 6 of the Lochac Fencing Rules will go live on 1 January 2024.

Many thanks to the diverse and informed voices which assisted with thoughtful commentary and feedback. Special thanks are also due to the valiant souls still currently battling the wiki gremlins to ensure the website is updated.

Lochac Fencing Marshal

Greetings, Lochac!

The next (and last for A.S. 58) Arts and Sciences competitions will be held in Idlhafn, on March 16, the Saturday of the Crown Tourney event. The themes for this round are:

"For a lover",
"Language", and
"15th century".

Following this event, the new Arts and Sciences Champion will be announced in May.

If you want to enter, but can't bring your item to the event, you have a couple of options:

- You could send it on the day, with your trusted friend. This friend will need to deliver the entry and remember to collect it again after judging.
- Or you can have your entry judged locally, before the event, so that we can take your results into account when the rest of the competition is judged.

If you do wish to enter remotely, please discuss this with your local A&S officer as soon as possible. Entries must be handed to them by 24th February. They will find judges and have the entry assessed, using the standard official criteria, and then send the results to me. That way, all the entries can be taken into account at the event on Saturday 16th March.

If you want to know more about entering competitions in Lochac, go here.

To print the paperwork which needs to accompany your entry, go here.

Recent competition entries have been nothing short of inspiring - can't wait to see what will be offered this round!
