Submission Guidelines for The Pale

ARTICLES on period topics, history, art, puzzles, SCA life, bardic stories and the like are welcome additions to The Pale. A 500- to 1000-word article will usually fit in one issue; longer articles will be split into multiple parts to appear in successive issues. Submit the file in MS Word .doc format along with an SCA Creative Release form. Send the images used in the article as separate files using the format described below.

You must cite all references, quotations and sources in your article using the Chicago Manual of Style format. Sample citations are located here: www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Citing sources is very important to avoid accusations of plagiarism and legal action for copyright violation.

IMAGES, such as line art, calligraphy, illumination and photographs are also welcome. Scan any artwork at 300 dpi and save it at the highest quality JPG setting. Photos should also be 300 dpi, high quality JPGs. All images will appear in print as black and white, but the online version of The Pale is in color. Images can also be submitted as high quality TIF or PDF files. Any artwork or photography submitted to The Pale must have a signed SCA Creative Release or SCA Photographer Release form from the artist sent in with the work. Any person identifiable in an image must submit a signed SCA Model Release form with the art work. This is a requirement of SCA Inc. for print publication. All release forms are available at www.midrealm.org/chronicler.

EVENT PREVIEWS: A free event preview of 50 words is available to all events. The listing MUST include the name of the event, sponsoring group, site address, date, times and event steward contact information.

EVENT NOTICES (ads) must be published in The Pale for events at which any of the following occur: Crown and Coronet tournaments, coronations and investitures, appointment of Kingdom or Principality officers, presentation of awards and titles, proclamation of law, establishment or advancement of branches. These activities cannot take place unless a complete event notice appears in The Pale, the Middle Kingdom newsletter, at least once before the date of the event. The publication requirement may only be waived in extraordinary circumstances, such as a natural disaster.

Events must already be listed on the Middle Kingdom Calendar prior to advertising in The Pale, but an event listing on the Middle Kingdom Calendar does NOT constitute "official publication". Incipient groups must submit a scan of the sponsorship form to the Editor. Event submissions to the Kingdom Calendar should be submitted through the online form available on the calendar page. Contact the Middle Kingdom Calendar Secretary at calendar@midrealm.org with any issues. Middle Kingdom events receive free event ads that run in the next issue unless otherwise specified. Out-of-Kingdom events and merchants pay the listed rates.

Ad templates for the quarter and half page ads are available at <http://midrealm.org/chronicler/thepale/>. All ads must be submitted to The Pale via e-mail attachment in DOC, PDF, JPG, or TIF format.

WITHOUT EXCEPTION, EVENT NOTICES MUST INCLUDE event name, sponsoring group, dates, times, site address, site registration, website URL, name (SCA & modern) of the event steward, and a contact email address of the event steward. Simple driving directions to the event site are useful but not required. All clip art images in event notices must have a source listed and be used in accordance with the terms of use. All artwork MUST include an SCA Creative Release form from the author(s) or artist(s). From Their Royal Majesties

Hail and Well Met, Midrealm!

We wish to start with words of healing and support to all of those who have and are continuing to deal with the flooding and damage from hurricane Helene. We have received stories of many good gentles using their time and resources to help those in need. We celebrate you!

Thank you to the Shire of Greyhope for pulling together a most wonderful Coronation event for Us. The weather held off for the entirety of the day and allowed for all of the activities to proceed. Much fun was had by all, both on and off the list fields. The day was full of joy and pageantry, making it the most memorable experience! Also to our Staff and Champions, We Thank You! There is much to do and organize for each and every event, Coronation being one of the biggest. Your support and encouragement and sharing of Our vision is a joy for which We are incredibly fortunate.

As We move into a very full event schedule for the next two months, We are looking forward to seeing many friends and making new ones. Our push for award recommendations has been proving successful and the court lists are filling up with deserving people gaining the recognition they deserve. Please keep them coming in!

Finally, We wanted to introduce Our Champions to you all. If you have the opportunity to meet them We encourage you to do so, be it for a simple greeting or a challenge upon the field.

Letters From the Kingdom Officers

Dragon Herald

Oh my word! It has been a very busy end of summer/early fall for courts! The Heirs have ascended the Dragon Thrones in a wonderful Coronation ceremony. Their Excellencies Ivan and Katalena have temporarily retired to their lands to rest and relax after a very busy reign. DRACO INVICTUS!

Crown Tournament will be/was an exciting event! Many excellent bouts by combatants contesting to crown their consort as heir to the Throne! Long live the Heirs!

The scribes! Oh, the scribes! Their work has been phenomenal! Beautiful works that the Crown passes to the recipients acknowledging the accomplishments of the populace!

And then we have the work of the heralds: voice, name, and armorial. Calling the combatants in the lists, helping people discover or document the names they wish to use in the Society, or the heraldic display devices and badges that identify individuals. Many of these individuals work in the background; much like the scribes. Yet, their work is no less important than that of anyone else. Perhaps, at times, more so because they do most of their work in the background. Seek out the scribes and ask to see their work, talk to the heralds who do the various forms of submissions for name and/or device.

Senior Heralds, offer your time to mentor and guide newer heralds. Help them understand the processes of court heraldry or field heralding the lists. Be a sounding board for the newer heralds.

As always, keep your voices hydrated, your inks and paints flowing, and your heraldic display skills apparent!

Kindest regards,

Baron Gilebert le braceur de Dijon, OL
Dragon Herald

Minister of Arts & Sciences

It's October! Which means I'm writing the letter for November. Time to break out the pumpkin spice... errrr, poudre douce, and enjoy something hot and mulled around a fire - even if the fire has to be on a computer screen.

First, I want to thank Lote for running the Tournament of Arts these past few years. We've seen some amazing growth in the event, and each one has been an improvement over the last. Lote has retired to a warm mulled beverage, leaving ToA in the capable hands of Angharad Ferch Tangwystl. I'm looking forward to seeing what new ideas she brings to the table - to the vast collections of tables that make a ToA.

Second, my Brendoken Baronial MOAS had to step down on short notice due to an injury. Thanks, Lady Lena Krieger, for your service. I hope for a speedy recovery. Stepping in will be Eleanore van Tyne, who's been serving as Lena's deputy. Eleanore created that amazing clay brazier decorated with the Brendoken armory for Kingdom A&S Faire last year.

The next Regional A&S Faire will be hosted by Carriag Ban on 7 December. Watch the Kingdom calendar for details. Other upcoming events include Smiths, Bakers, Weavers, and Wrights, 11-13 October; Midrealm Bardic Madness, 2 November; Fall RUM and Dancer's Revolt, 9 November; and Midlands Artisan's Day, 16 November. As always, check event details. Almost every event has some kind of A&S activity, so get out there and show your stuff!

Finally, I've a job opening for the Constellation Regional MOAS. Check the Kingdom jobs board for more information.

Thanks for doing all that you do to make our Kingdom smarter and more beautiful

In service,

Tommaso Franceschi, OL

Minister of Arts & Sciences of the Middle Kingdom

Exchequer

Greetings, all,

I'd like to thank Mistress Catherine Aimée Le Moyne de Bretagne, who will soon be stepping down as Pentamere Regional Exchequer, for all of her service. Lord Walter le Marshall has kindly agreed to step up to fill that role.

A reminder that if I or your Regional try to contact you, we'll use the email associated with your position – typically "groupname.exchequer@midrealm.org, so you should be monitoring that account on a regular basis.

Society is looking for someone to step up as Society Exchequer. This stipend position reports to the SCA Inc. Corporate Treasurer, and Applications close October 31, 2024. If you'd like more information about that position, it's available at <https://www.sca.org/news/applications-open-society-exchequer/>

May your books always be in balance.

In service,

Aidan Blackstone

Exchequer of the Middle Kingdom

Earl Marshal

Greetings unto the populace of the Midrealm!

As you read this, the Heirs of the Dragon Throne have been secured and the Royal lineage will continue. It has been an exciting whirlwind first month and I have had just about as many discussions as I have expected. One of those discussions was about the need to find a new Kingdom Equestrian Deputy as Her Excellency Gwendolyn will be stepping down because she has stepped up as Baroness of Shadowed Stars. I thank her for her years of service. Anyone interested should send an application and resume to her so we can start letting her enjoy quasi-retirement.

Aim true and fight with honor,

HE Robert Thorne, OP

Earl Marshal of the Middle Kingdom

Middle Kingdom Chronicles - Midrealm Anniversary

by Forester Cadfan of the Autumn Wood, Middle Kingdom Historian

August 30th is the 55th Anniversary of the Kingdom of the Middle. Probably.

I say "probably" because records from those early days are difficult to come by. Many of the people who were there are no longer here. Over the years some have moved, some are no longer involved in the SCA, and some have passed away. The best resource for early Kingdom information comes from the "Collected Brief History of the Middle Kingdom" by Orlando Ambrosius, and even it is sparse in its recounting of the earliest of times. This is due to many factors, but chief among them is that the Society itself was just beginning at that time. The SCA was a mere handful of years old when the Middle Kingdom became a kingdom, and even the BoD/West Kingdom did not have its own affairs well sorted.

What I can tell you is this:

Having won the first Crown Tournament at WilCon on July 4th weekend, Prince Cariadoc set about making the foundations of a Kingdom. The only other person present at that tournament who really knew the SCA was a visitor from the East Kingdom, Adrienne of Toledo. She gave that event legitimacy and knighted Cariadoc in the name of the King of the East. Even in the earliest days that seemed improper in retrospect, and Cariadoc would later, prior to his coronation, visit the West where King Siegfried von Hoflichkeit knighted him. The Midrealm Order of Precedence gives the date of his knighting as July 9, 1969. That was the Wednesday after the Crown Tournament event, so you can see how these ancient records may be unreliable.

The coronation of Cariadoc of the Bow and Diana Alene happened at the 27th World Science Fiction Convention in St. Louis, Missouri. This annual convention, known as WorldCon in the Sci-Fi fandom, ran from August 28 through September 1 of 1969. MiddleWiki gives "September 1969" as the date of the coronation. Ambrosius does not mention the day or date. Looking back at the calendar for 1969, August 30 was a Saturday, so I am arbitrarily using that date.

Cariadoc and Diana Alene were the Middle Kingdom's first and third King and Queen. They would go on to be the eighth and fourteenth King and Queen of the East. It was their idea to have an annual war between the Middle and East which we know as the Pennsic Wars. In fact, they were King and Queen of the East at the very first Pennsic.

Pedantic dating specifics aside, one thing is certain: we at least know which weekend is the anniversary of the Kingdom of the Middle.
