Unto the good People of Calontir, greetings from David and Rhianwen!

As the leaves drop from the trees and the long cold nights creep in, We have turned to the gentle arts to keep our hands from idleness and our skills sharp. The adroitness and ingenuity shown by Our crafts-folk at Kingdom Arts and Sciences is unparalleled. Nowhere outside of a museum could one find such a collection of fine works and everyday items, save this display by Our artisans.

Toys for Tots was a splendid tournament, and once again showed that the generosity of Our Kingdom is without measure. Thank you to all who could contribute any amount - your gift helped bring joy and hope to a child.

It is Our greatest pride to see the way members of Our Kingdom support one another and bring wordfame to each other's accomplishments. Hearing the compliments about each other's works and seeing the virtue of true Generosity put into action reminds Us of the strength and purpose of Our community.

This month, We look forward to meeting with you at Kris Kinder, and most importantly, finding Our Heirs! Until then, keep warm and safe, and continue to reach to one another.

David, Rhianwen,
Cyning Cyninge

Greetings, Calontir!

What an amazing year it has been! As I look forward to 2024 there are many exciting things on the horizon as well. Let's make sure our newcomers are aware of events coming up as well as aiding them in getting ready for War season next spring.

Regarding recruitment, we have a new system in place. On the kingdom home page, chatelaine's page, and newcomers' page there are links to a contact request form. Please direct people to this when speaking up our kingdom. The form is easy enough to fill out on a cell phone; making it the perfect way to get potential newcomers in contact with their local group and the kingdom as well. Whether it be at a demo, a grocery store, a gas station, a school or anywhere else., you can direct them to the kingdom webpage and the form, and we will get them to their home group. Now if they seem interested, but not technology friendly, you can even fill it out for them! As long as they are willing to check their email box, we will get in touch.

This also helps us with retention. As we will have statistics and communication at the kingdom level to hold quarterly zoom meetings for newcomers. These meetings will be scheduled at specific times where lulls may happen in the schedule. So please keep your eyes on the Mews as well as social media accounts for those meetings. As you are all invited to listen in and help our new friends find their path in the SCA.

Finally, I would ask all group chatelaines make sure they have turned in their "agreement to serve" information on the chatelain's page on the kingdom website. Also, please send me an email to the chatelaine's email address to make sure you are up to date on all upcoming announcements and changes for our office.

Thanks to each and every one for all their support. Have a happy and safe holiday season and I can't wait to see you soon!

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and the Dream,

Ottar Surterson
Office of the Chatelaine

Greetings Calontir,

It has been an honor to serve as your Kingdom Minister of Youth (MOY) for the last two years. I have loved getting to know the children and future of this kingdom. It is indeed bright! It is time for me to step down and allow another brave soul an opportunity to lead and encourage the next generation of Calontiri. I will continue to be involved and provide encouragement and support to all of our youth volunteers as well as the new Kingdom MoY but life requires a step back from leadership at this time.

Please submit letters of interest to seneschal @calontir.org AND moy@calontir.org by November 15th. Interviews will be conducted via zoom and our new kingdom MoY will be announced by December 1.

In Service, Sile

Ciao a tutti!

I hope that everyone had a great time at Kingdom Arts and Sciences! I am always inspired by so many wonderful entries! Hopefully, you saw an entry that inspired you too. I would like to thank HL Ysabel for her scheduling prowess, that is a heck of an undertaking. Thank you to the entrants and judges, this event wouldn't exist without you. And thank you to the Shire of Crescent Moon for hosting.

The next Kingdom level Arts & Sciences event is Queen's Prize. However, the Kingdom needs your help. We need a group to host Queen's Prize next year, sometime between the end of March and first of July. Queen's Prize is a great event for a smaller group to host because the main responsibilities for the host group is to staff gate and possibly provide an inn. Guidelines and the submission form can be found on the Reeve's page, in the Seneschal section, from the Kingdom website.

Lastly, thank you to HE Violet Sinclair for heading the Scribal Guild. However, as she stepped down, we are in need of a new head of the Scribal Guild. If interested in taking on this role, please send a letter of interest to artssciences@calontir.org no later than November 30th.

In servizio, Gianna

Calontir!

Greetings, everyone! I hope you all had a great Halloween. We discovered that small-town Kansas, at least ours, does a lot of fun stuff for the kids. They had a costume parade and trick-and-treating session through downtown, then gave out prizes for the best ones.

In any case, it's time to turn our attention to a jam-packed holiday season, including Crown Tournament on December 2nd and Kris Kinder on December 9th. Both will have a goodly amount of heraldic coolness.

Crown, of course, is always filled with wonderful displays of personal heraldry. I personally love seeing all the banners and spiffy heraldic-themed garb. The SCA is filled with vibrant color, and Crown is one of the best times to see it all.

If you don't already have a name and device, keep an eye out at Crown for things you think are cool because you'll never have a better time than Kris Kinder to get one of those designed and submitted for registration. Crazy Uji's House of Heraldry is back, and that means drastic reductions on fees to process those submissions. We'll have announcements on Facebook and mailing lists with more details as we get closer.

We don't have a bunch of other business to go over, and that's because they people actually doing the behind-the-scenes stuff are killing it. I can't thank them enough for all their work. I started to write out specifics of who's doing what, but several hundred words later I realized I was going to comment on all of them.

Soooo... Just look at the Gold Falcon page on Calontir.org and know each and every name there has been doing a great job.

Now let's turn to the fun stuff. It should come as no surprise that I like food, so let's talk turkey. Interestingly, the word "turkey" derives from the fact they first came to Western Europe through the Ottoman Empire. Fowl from the Turks, in other words. Side note: the Turkish word is "hindi," meaning Indian, getting there as "chicken from India,” which I think is ironic.

This particular etymology is pretty weird, truth to tell, but you should know you can register turkey on your device. It’s been done in the SCA, though only once. However, it was used on period devices.

But what’s turkey without mashed potatoes? Turns out you can register a potato too. I like butter on my mashed potatoes, and you can get a butter churn. Also, since I like hot peppers, let’s grind some chili pepper on top of it all, which again, you can register.

Of course, what’s Thanksgiving without pie? You can register apples, cherries, and peaches.

Sadly, however, no one has yet registered a pecan.

However, like the potato, it was brought back to Europe in the 1500s. Maybe you could be the first to register, as the Spanish called it, the nuez de la arruga, the “wrinkle nut.”

Mmmm... pie.

And now I’m hungry, so I think I’m going to cut this month’s letter short and get me a snack.

Rhodri, Gold Falcon

Ciao Calontir!

The Reeve, Chiara di Paxiti, is seeking a candidate to take over the office. The Reeve works with groups and the Kingdom to maintain a schedule of events, and helps obtain bids for important Kingdom events, such as Coronation and Crown tourney. If you are interested in the position applications are due by Crown Tournament, December 2nd, with interviews to follow at Kris Kinder on December 9th. Please send applications to both the Reeve, reeve@calontir.org and the Seneschal, seneschal@calontir.org Thank you to Chiara di Paxiti for her long and dedicated service, it is greatly appreciated.

Greetings Calontir!

I have been quiet for a few months, filling pages with event flyers (Don’t forget to submit one if you have an event coming up in the Spring!), or running letters for other officers, law changes, and information from Society to pass along.

This month, there is space, and I have some items to share. No, you are not seeing things with the cover, yes, it is the same cover I have been running since late Summer—ish. Why you ask is she doing that? The answer is simple. I need a deputy to learn the ropes and take over when my 2nd extension on my warrant expires in October 2024. I took over from Fabia in October of 2020, things were quiet, filling 16 pages took effort. Flash forward to now, my two-year warrant is now a four-year warrant. As much as I enjoy the position, I need a break. We have a good schedule of flier publication, the officers do submit letters (with a bit of gentle nudging) and for the most part, the Mews runs itself. I would love to have someone in the deputy roll by January, so you can get a feel for some quiet months with the newsletter, and then some hectic months with all the events. I would also love to have someone see the process of the William Blackfox nomination process before they take that on themselves. Please talk to me at an event, I will be at Crown and Kris Kinder. If you would rather talk via email, please reach out to me at chronicler@calontir.org to ask questions.

If your group is thinking about putting a bid in for the upcoming Coronation in March, Crown Tourney in April, or event QPT, please add another item to that event checklist. Event flyers! The Flyer for March Coronation will need to run starting in January, December 1st deadline for flyer. So please, at leave have a rough flyer ready to go with basic information (Site, date & times, cost, event steward). That way, once even a rough draft of a flyer runs our wonderful Social Media Officer, Mia, can get a FB event page set up for you.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,

Anne
