Calontir

We would like to thank everyone who made it out to our Coronation. It was a wonderful day and made better by all the folks who were able to attend. I believe the gate count was over 250 people, which was awesome.

We have an upcoming baronial changeover this reign. Their Excellencies of the Barony of Three Rivers will be stepping down at the 1381 Chronicles on October 19th. Below is the schedule for letters and commentary as well as announcements. For the Letters of Interest please include your background in the SCA (i.e. how long you've played, where you have lived, and offices held if any).

September 1st - Deadline for Letters of Interest emailed to crown@calontir.org

September 10th - Announce the candidates

September 20th - Deadline for commentary about the candidates, email crown@calontir.org

October 1st - Announce our selection

October 19th - Investiture of new Baronage at 1381 Chronicles event

One last note; Remember to be kind to each other. In the mundane world, with national elections coming up quickly, this has proven to be a tumultuous time in the past. Please leave mundane politics out of the SCA. We are all here because we have a mutual love of historical things, which really has nothing to do with how we vote. Let's keep the focus of the SCA on the game we all enjoy and leave the rest at the door.

Thank you,

Robert and Magge

King and Queen of Calontir

Announced at Summer 2024 Coronation: "On this, the 13 day of July in the year 2024, Anno Societatis LIX (59), We, Robert Magnus and Magge Magnus, Crown of Calontir, issue a Temporary Removal from Participation in the SCA for Tammy Miller, known in the Society as Berke Chinua."

Greetings,

It's a lovely day at Cooper's Lake as I write this between rainy days at Pennsic. One of my favorite parts about Pennsic is the amazing bardic opportunities here, and this month, I'm going to touch on how often you see heraldry in the music we sing.

On the business side, we have a job coming up, our Eyas Herald. Lady Dyrfinna Tonnudottir has done a fantastic job in that role, but it's about time for her to do great things with a new challenge. The Eyas Herald takes all the submissions from Calontiri, checks their paperwork, confirms they don't conflict, and sends that up the chain for approval. Letters for the position are due by the end of September, with a decision made by the end of Chilies. This will give about a month for Dyrfinna to help the new Eyas get up to speed quickly.

I've talked about all the fun stuff you can do with heraldry in terms of using your device, such as putting it on your tunic, or your camp furniture, or on jewelry. You can also have fun with heraldry in story and song. You might already know the lyrics of Hotspur, which include "the Blue Lion of Percy will bloody the ground." The blue lion in question refers to the device of the House of Percy, which is: Or, a rampant lion azure."

Side note: If you played Kingmaker, the old Avalon Hill wargame about the Wars of the Roses, you recognize this device easily. If you haven't played it, you should, as you'll get a great lesson on the heraldry of sixteenth-century England. There are, of course, any number of awesome songs including a reference to the gold striking falcon on our populace badge. There's Fernando's Gold Bird of Prey, Conn's For Crown and For Kingdom, and of course Hyrim's great line from Sing Calontir: "Sing for the falcon flying o'er a hill of foemen's bones."

Conn also has a great verse in Conn's Song about the power of heraldry. It goes:

*My sister's lover was trampled under,
But I've marked well his murderer's shield,
And on the morrow his love will sorrow,
As does my sister in yon cold field.*

Sometimes, as in this case, having recognizable heraldry isn't a good thing. A real world example of heraldry can be found in Bryce de Byram's In Praise of the New Knight- hood.

*No need for such raiment have true Knights of Christ,
their habit sewn simple of black or of white.
They carry the cross of our savior above, their bath is of valor, and sweat and of blood.*

That song is drawn from Bernard of Clairvaux's treatise about the Templars, whose banner was black and white with a red cross. Now, if you want the viewpoint from an SCA herald, be sure to check out Dorcas Whitecap's Heraldicism, Blarney. Dorcas is, of course, one of Calontir's hardest-working heralds and this song shows her dedication. It's a rapid-paced tongue-twister of a song with a lot of jokes that SCA heralds really appreciate. The lyrics are here, if you want to sing along with her: <http://www.calonsong.org/CalontirSongs/heraldicism.htm>
Good luck keeping up with her!

A keen-eyed reader might notice that I haven't mentioned The Raven Banner, which seems like it should be heraldic. It's about a symbol on a banner after all. However, the specific definition of heraldry is the study of coats of arms, defined in the Oxford English Dictionary as "a design or a shield that is a special symbol of a family, city, or other organization," such as when a device is registered in the SCA College of Heraldry. The raven banner was not tied to a family, city, or other organization, hence, not heraldry.

It's still cool, though, so much so that the 1st Battalion, 1st Armored Infantry Company of the Danish Guard Hussar Regiment includes the raven banner in its badge. It's a rainy Pennsic, so that means I can say goodbye using the company's motto, "When the storm subsides we rage on!"

Have a great month everyone!

Advocate Position Opening —

Please consider helping your fellow Calontiri as a member of the Advocates Office. Advocates are an important source of information and assistance with a variety of issues and situations. Advocates serve a three-year term and work with an advocate team. For information ask an advocate or the kingdom seneschal. Letter of interest should be sent to the kingdom seneschal before September 1, 2024.

Greetings Calontir!

Thank you for another strong summer of meeting and greeting new friends. We have had an amazing amount of recruitment and new faces are becoming strong members of our kingdom.

Before the seasons begin to turn in earnest, please make sure to spend a few moments with our newcomers. Make sure they are aware of what sorts of events are on the horizon after camping season ends. Also, what types of garb may need to be found, created, etc. before the temperatures change and that simple short sleeved T tunic is no longer warm enough to be comfortable.

With school now back in session for both our children and those attending university, schedules can become more or in some cases less busy. Please make sure to reach out to one another and our newcomers to check in. Remaining in touch with each other as schedules and seasons change is often the difference between losing someone and keeping them in the fold. Finally, please be on the lookout for chances to do demos and also support your local communities to increase our reach in each place and truly become a fixture in our hometowns.

As always, Calontir, it is such an honor to be one of your number. Thank you for being such an amazing kingdom and family.

Ottar Surtson

Chatelaine, Kingdom of Calontir

Also, we are seeking an Event Steward for the next Lilies! If you are interested, please submit a bid to the Lilies Committee Chair by September 1, 2024. Again, please reach out to me if you have any questions.

Greetings to the Populace of Calontir!

RUSH is the Royal University of Scir Hafoc, Welsh for Bright Falcon. The University is dedicated to promoting education of history and Calontir culture, as well as accessibility and inclusion.

While I'm the face of the RUSH program, I want to thank my staff and be sure the populace is aware of the group effort behind our exciting progress. In addition to the officers, I have several Regents who act as a sounding board to help shape the communication and the projects the RUSH puts out. I'd like to have regents from all over the Kingdom to help provide us with diverse perspectives on the culture and priorities of different regions.

I like having many Regents so that not everyone has to be highly active constantly. I know real life pops up at inconvenient times. At minimum, I like staff to be active in the group chat and attend every other zoom meeting. Regents can be as active as their interest and time allow, including taking the lead on projects.

Your RUSH Regents are:

- ◆ Sir Cai Dubhghlas
- ◆ Mistress Diachbha the Weaver
- ◆ Mistress Nesscia inghean Chearnaigh
- ◆ Lady Simone de Mares
- ◆ Lady Tanneke Groenlaken

I am looking for 2 more Regents. If you would like to help out with RUSH please contact me at RUSH-Chancellor@calontir.org

RUSH is for everyone, and we want to hear your ideas, questions, and concerns. Look for RUSH Discussions at events and online. At these meetings I will present updates on projects and ask for feedback. You can also reach any of the officers or me at RUSH-Chancellor@calontir.org

Yours in Service,
Mu'allimah Vashti al-A'shariah
RUSH Chancellor

Greetings Calontir!

I hope all your summer A&S projects are going well and close to completion.

We have a few things coming up that might be of interest to the A&S community. Our current A&S Scheduler, HL Ysabel, is looking to step down. The position is responsible for scheduling Queens Prize and Kingdom A&S entrants and judges time spots. We would like letters of intent sent to: Masterscheduler@calontir.org and artssciences@calontir.org by September 7th, with online interviews on September 12th. Please contact Ysabel or me with any questions about what the position entails.

Kingdom A&S is just a few weeks away. Please sign up as an entrant, displayer, and/or judge. I look forward to seeing all the entries and displays September 21st in Lost Moor. We are also looking ahead to Queen's Prize Tourney 2025. While there is no set date, we are looking at dates in April 2025. Please submit bids by Kingdom A&S, September 21st. Please use the Kingdom A&S/QPT guidelines and the Kingdom Level Event Bid Form to submit a formal bid. Both of those are on the Reeve's webpage: <https://www.calontir.org/seneschal/reeve/>.

Bids need to be submitted to the following people: Kingdom Seneschal, Kingdom Exchequer, Kingdom Reeve and the Kingdom A&S Minister.

YIS,

Gyda kennara
Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Calontir!

Are you interested in learning more about how the kingdom's laws and Corpora/Society policy work together (and sometimes don't)?

We have a great job that will help you do that. Calontir is seeking candidates who are interested in becoming the next Kingdom Seneschal. This is a great opportunity to work with the Crown, other kingdom officers and groups in Calontir to help keep our community vital and thriving.

The successful candidate will serve as emergency deputy for a few months, to learn some of how the job is done, before taking the office. Please consider applying for this very important position.

Letters of Intent are due October 01, 2024 and should be sent to Their Majesties and the Kingdom Seneschal.

Activities for Everyone!

May 30, 1381:
The Hundred year war is not going well for England. To pay for further campaigns, the King has again levied regressive poll taxes - the fifth time in three years. Yet no amount of funds seems to improve the situation. The people suspect funds are being diverted into the pockets of the nobles. What's more, peasants had lately seen an increase in wages but new laws have returned wages to earlier levels. And landlords are rolling back tenant rights and stealing land. Even the Church is getting in on it!

These acts are surely not in the name of the king.

Enough is enough!

It's time for the Peasant's Revolt!
