Words of the Crown

Greetings Drachenwald!

We would like to begin by thanking the event organizers for our coronation in Gyllengran and for Cudgel War. We enjoyed both events and were happy to see so many smiling faces.

As we write this we are on our way to Pennsic War and we know many of you are also preparing or travelling to the summer's big camping events at home in Drachenwald. We hope that you will all have a good time and that the weather offers perfect camping conditions.

While the fall may seem far away still as you read this it is time to start preparing for the fall event season and a little more so for our crown tournament taking place in Polderslot. If you plan on participating please send in your letters of intent as instructed in the kingdom law. We look forward to seeing many participants in the list.

As you are planning events this fall please also take some time to send in recommendations for those you wish to see recognized at these events.

We look forward to seeing you all!

Isabetta
Queen

Greetings from the Seneschal

Greetings Drachenwald

I hope you all had a great summer! Filled with sun, ice cream and medieval fun!

It's very inspiring to be a part of a kingdom that is growing as Drachenwald is. Several groups are increasing their numbers of members. Weekly activities both digital and in person. Groups visiting each other, as the Saxon Invasion visited Nordmark in July. Every Thursday the Drachenwald scribes meet on Zoom. And as pointed out in the last column, there are a lot of events happening.

So what is your plan for the rest of the year? Hope to see many of you at Crown!

If you want to borrow The Drachenwald Zoom account just contact me and I can help with setting up a meeting.

Greetings from the Chronicler

Greetings from the Chronicler!

Summer is soon turning into autumn but yet there's still time to enjoy while it is here. Much is going on; events, demos and markets. I will be heading tomorrow to a local market with our canton to do a demo and hopefully also have time to listen a presentation about saints and do some shopping.

The kingdom calendar also fills in fast with events, and this is a matter I will turn attention into as it is important to understand the concept of event officiality, what it means and the steps to make an event official. So stay tuned. Also huge thank you for our Posthorn for her work for this matter.

Also SCA is again seeking opinions about the new martial peerage, if you're interested, please send them your comments. Further information of this you can find in this issue.

In service to the Dream,

Bread & Barley Bash

20 - 22 September 2024

Löghammar - Sweden

Come join the Shire of Löghammar for a weekend of B's on September 20-22, 2024 at Haraker's bygdegård, Skultuna. Some information about the event site can be found here: <https://haraker.se/>

We aim for a relaxed weekend among friends; baking bread in a wood fired oven, making butter the medieval way, and using barley to brew a little beer in an as medieval way as we can.

The event has a cap of 60, and we estimate 25 can stay on site. On-site sleeping spots will go to the first 25 paid spots, all others will need to make their own arrangements for lodgings.

For those wanting an on-site sleeping spot: Shortly after you have registered, you will receive notice that you have an on-site spot and will need to make your payment for the event within 2 weeks of registration or the spot will need to go to the next person in line. For those who secure a spot on site, bring all you need to sleep on the floor of a "bygdegård".

For local recommendations on where to stay, please reach out to Agnes Odygd at Valpfan (at) gmail (dot) com.

Unfortunately, the site is not well equipped for handicapped persons. If you want to attend and have mobility issues, please contact us and we can discuss the specifics.

Yule Ball

06 - 08 December 2024
Flintheath - England

This is Flintheaths's annual Yule Ball, held on the first full weekend of December at Buckden Towers in Cambridgeshire, England. The site is period with a Tudor gatehouse and tower, and older chapels. The site used to be a waystop for the Bishop's of Lincoln between their see and London, and was also the penultimate residence of Katherine of Aragon, Henry VIII's first wife.

This year's Holly Monarch will be decided by a rapier tournament, after which there will be other rapier activities.

Feast will be at lunchtime, based on the theme of street food, probably followed by court.

Afterwards will be a A&S show and tell and the ball will start the revelries for the rest of the day and night.

Site

Buckden Towers, High Street, Buckden, St. Neots, Cambridgeshire, PE19 5TA, UK
The site is period with a Tudor gatehouse and tower, and older chapels. The site also includes a modern Roman Catholic church which encompasses the chapels, and is a run by the Roman Catholic Church with regular Masses, so please be respectful. Attendees are welcome to attend the services. The Church of England parish church is literally the other side of a wall from the tower, but requires a walk around the block to reach.

There is also a Victorian era house and extensive grounds. All the buildings have modern amenities, although wifi is patchy.

There are 40 bunks and 4 single corner rooms in the tower. The house holds 28 or 29 beds, depending on how tall you are. The gate house holds 3 available apartments with 12 beds. There is further accommodation at two local inns within easy walking distance, although a little more pricey.

Being a period site, mobility access is not universal. Access to the tower is via 5 steps and the higher floors where the bunks are located are accessed by a refurbished, but substantial circular staircase.

All areas of the Victorian House on the ground floor can be accessed without steps, although not always by the most direct, or entirely indoor, route. The house contains the only fully accessible bedroom with two single beds and an en suite bathroom. There are further bedrooms accessible via a wide and shallow staircase with substantial bannisters.

Outdoor lighting is limited and the lighting in the house bedrooms is not bright. The site opens at 17:00 and closes at 11:00

Cost

Standard Event Fee: £50
Non-member surcharge: £9
If you wish to skip feast: -£10

Bunk: £20

Bed in the Victorian House: £50

Payment information will be provided after registration, Foreign guests can pay at the door, but must confirm with a copy of their travel details.

With exceptions, payment if required to confirm your booking.

Kingdom of Drachenwald: Scroll Showcase

Drachenwald is a kingdom with Artisans in every corner. One such group of artisan's are those who provide the hand crafted scrolls that our populace see mostly briefly at court and sometimes these scrolls can be admired after court as they're put on display for the rest of the evening. The purpose of this showcase is to bring that beauty out into the light where all might see these works and be amazed. A massive thank you to ALL our artisans!

Below you can see one wonderful scroll by Mestari Kerttu, a backlog scroll for Sir Oliver for his Knighthood. As per the artist: Real vellum, at least three different period inks, gold leaf on miniatum, modern gouache and ink.
