13-15 September 2024
Caravan Raids: Road to Byzantium

The Barony of Windmasters' Hill

In the year 602, after helping the Sasanian King Khosrow II regain his throne, Emperor Maurice was murdered by his political rival Phocas. Khosrow declared war to avenge the death of the deposed Emperor Maurice.

This became a decades-long conflict, the longest war in the series, and was fought throughout the Middle East: in Egypt, the Levant, Mesopotamia, the Caucasus, Anatolia, Armenia, the Aegean Sea and before the walls of Constantinople itself.

Our story begins with Narses, governor of the Byzantine province in Mesopotamia. He has rebelled against Phocas and seized Edessa, major city of the province. Emperor Phocas has instructed general Germanus to besiege Edessa.

Narses is now prompted to beseech the Persian King Khosrow II. Khosrow was willing to help avenge Maurice and use this opportunity to attack the Byzantine Empire, in an attempt to reconquer Armenia and Mesopotamia.

The Road to Byzantium can be full of perils. It has been said that raiders and thieves have been seen recently...

You're being ambushed, defend your caravan! Can you stop them from taking your goods? Every item they steal has points attached, and it can be recovered from the field of play ONLY if hasn't crossed the home borders!

In one scenario, the caravan is being attacked from both sides on an open plain. In another, raiders attack while you're traveling along a winding road along the mountain pass - caught between a barricade and the thieving bandits!

Thrown Weapons - Baron Eadulf Beornwalds sunu

Axe, Knife & Javelin a skirmisher used. Accurate and quick on their feet they must be. Can you be a skirmisher or are you just a hold the line shield person?

Come find out at the Thrown Weapons range where your skills will be put to the test. Royal Rounds will be available as well as the knight killing spear clout.

Are you skilled enough to patrol the Byzantine Roads?

A&S: Master Ciaran Mac Breandan

The Road to Byzantium is plagued with thieves and highwaymen. Caravans are routinely pillaged during their journey. In order to commemorate these brave travelers, we are hosting TWO A&S competitions.

Competition I - Static Arts: Make a replica version of a trade good that might have been pilfered from a trade caravan traveling on a route to 10th century Constantinople. These items are for display and will be judged on QUALITY OF CRAFTSMANSHIP. Documentation, while not required, is encouraged.

Competition II - Make a "stuffed sack" version of any good that might have been stolen from a trade caravan on a route to 10th century Constantinople.

The sacks are meant to look like the "thing" they portray, (i.e. a stuffed sack sown in the shape of a sack of tea). These sacks will be used on the battlefield for points, and so may be damaged during fighting. The sacks should be small enough that they can be grabbed by a heavy fighter and taken back to the home base, yet large enough that the fighter has to think about how they will manage it with their weapons in hand. The winner will be based on the quantity of items produced.

Gamer's Corner: Dame Mor the Merry

Come one, come all to Dame Mor's Gaming Hall! There will be games for all ages. Board games to test your strategy skills, dice and cards to test your luck!

In the evening, there will be games to test your strength and your coordination! A Hunker Haus Tourney and the Viking Fish Slap Game. The winner of these two competitions will receive prizes.
