LETTER FROM THE CROWN

Our greetings to fair Trimaris,

Our future is secured in Our heirs. Long live Prince Dietrich and Princess Anaya!

With summer fully upon us, it is time to take shelter from the sun and turn our thoughts to the furtherance of the arts. Please join us for Trimaris Royal University and experience the talented displays by our Kingdom's finest artists and scholars.

And on the subject of the arts, let us take a moment to recognize the artist and scribes that work so hard to prepare unique works of art for each award that is handed out in court. The scribes of Trimaris have allowed our Kingdom to enjoy a wonderful tradition through their tireless efforts. We encourage you to seek out and thank our scribes for all their support.

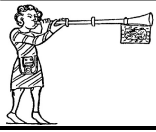

And finally, Our sincere thanks for all of the support we have received from the populous. Whether it's through your generous gifts or assist via retaining, the Queen and I both truly appreciate all of the help and recognition during Our reign.
