Submission Guidelines for The Pale

ARTICLES on period topics, history, art, puzzles, SCA life, bardic stories and the like are welcome additions to The Pale. A 500- to 1000-word article will usually fit in one issue; longer articles will be split into multiple parts to appear in successive issues. Submit the file in MS Word .doc format along with an SCA Creative Release form. Send the images used in the article as separate files using the format described below.

You must cite all references, quotations and sources in your article using the Chicago Manual of Style format. Sample citations are located here: www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide.html. Citing sources is very important to avoid accusations of plagiarism and legal action for copyright violation.

IMAGES, such as line art, calligraphy, illumination and photographs are also welcome. Scan any artwork at 300 dpi and save it at the highest quality JPG setting. Photos should also be 300 dpi, high quality JPGs. All images will appear in print as black and white, but the online version of The Pale is in color. Images can also be submitted as high quality TIF or PDF files. Any artwork or photography submitted to The Pale must have a signed SCA Creative Release or SCA Photographer Release form from the artist sent in with the work. Any person identifiable in an image must submit a signed SCA Model Release form with the art work. This is a requirement of SCA Inc. for print publication. All release forms are available at www.midrealm.org/chronicler.

EVENT PREVIEWS: A free event preview of 50 words is available to all events. The listing MUST include the name of the event, sponsoring group, site address, date, times and event steward contact information.

EVENT NOTICES (ads) must be published in The Pale for events at which any of the following occur: Crown and Coronet tournaments, coronations and investitures, appointment of Kingdom or Principality officers, presentation of awards and titles, proclamation of law, establishment or advancement of branches. These activities cannot take place unless a complete event notice appears in The Pale, the Middle Kingdom newsletter, at least once before the date of the event. The publication requirement may only be waived in extraordinary circumstances, such as a natural disaster.

Events must already be listed on the Middle Kingdom Calendar prior to advertising in The Pale, but an event listing on the Middle Kingdom Calendar does NOT constitute "official publication". Incipient groups must submit a scan of the sponsorship form to the Editor. Event submissions to the Kingdom Calendar should be submitted through the online form available on the calendar page. Contact the Middle Kingdom Calendar Secretary at calendar@midrealm.org with any issues. Middle Kingdom events receive free event ads that run in the next issue unless otherwise specified. Out-of-Kingdom events and merchants pay the listed rates.

Ad templates for the quarter and half page ads are available at <http://midrealm.org/chronicler/thepale/>. All ads must be submitted to The Pale via e-mail attachment in DOC, PDF, JPG, or TIF format.

WITHOUT EXCEPTION, EVENT NOTICES MUST INCLUDE event name, sponsoring group, dates, times, site address, site registration, website URL, name (SCA & modern) of the event steward, and a contact email address of the event steward. Simple driving directions to the event site are useful but not required. All clip art images in event notices must have a source listed and be used in accordance with the terms of use. All artwork MUST include an SCA Creative Release form from the author(s) or artist(s). SCA Model Releases are required for identifiable persons in any image. Submissions are edited for grammar, spelling, space constraints, inflammatory or explicit language and compliance with Middle Kingdom Law. Editorial decisions are final. "Letters to the Editor" are not permitted per SCA Inc. regulations.

From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings unto the noble populace of the Middle Kingdom -

It has been Our honor and privilege to serve as your Sovereigns. We have had the great fortune to visit every region of this Kingdom and several others across the Knowne World. We have been met with warmth, friendship, and hospitality regardless of where we traveled. The Kingdom is large and each of its regions is integral to the strength of the Kingdom. We have seen the arts, skills, labor, and service of the people in a different light.

Through Our travels, We developed new friendships with wonderful people and strengthened friendships and alliances with others. The strength of Our allies bolstered that of the Middle Kingdom on the fields of Pennsic, allowing everyone to have fun on all of the fields of competition.

All of us offer different things to this Society. Some demonstrate their skill in the arts and sciences while others offer their martial skills in the tournament or melee, archery, thrown weapons, or equestrian list. And still, other members do work that allows all of the rest of the populace to enjoy themselves. We appreciate all of you regardless of how you choose to participate in our Society.

This time has provided Us with challenges and opportunities, achievements and difficulties. Our populace has provided inspiration through all of it. Thank you for providing the fellowship that makes the SCA and the Middle Kingdom the place We are proud to call home.

We are confident that We are leaving the Kingdom in good hands with our Heirs, Prince Kilian and Princess Jalida. We look forward to everything that the future has to hold for Them and this Kingdom.

In service to the Kingdom,

Letters From the Kingdom Officers

From Their Highnesses

Greetings, Midrealm!

As summer lingers on and fall attempts to take hold, We invite everyone to join Us and show off their fanciest attire at Our Coronation in just a few weeks! A reminder that while the site is in Indiana, it is on Central Time.

Reflecting back on the end-of-summer events, it has certainly been a whirlwind of experiences. Some more literally than others! The weather at Pennsic was at times unbearable and unforgiving. (We came very close to losing our pavilion to a portable garage that was blown over the top of several other camping structures.) Yet, at the end, Pennsic proved how pleasant it can be. The companionship of friends and chosen family makes it all worthwhile, though. Our first Pennsic as part of the Royal Family was the most memorable one yet. Tournaments and battles, courts and parties, gatherings of all sorts (and shopping!) all provided opportunities to meet with the populace and be present while they showed off their talents, shared in food and drink, or enabled others to upgrade their kit, persona and knowledge. Her Highness ended up with FIVE new pieces of pottery that were completely unplanned.

We are just returned from Mounted War Games held in the Barony of Shadowed Stars. Annually, this is one of the largest gatherings for equestrian activities outside of Gulf Wars for the Midrealm. We are very excited to see Our kingdom's equestrian presence growing, and look forward to seeing more all-inclusive events in the future.

This year, attendance was augmented by the addition of a Tournament of Chivalry. Many came out and participated in various showings of combat including heavy, fencing, thrown weapons, archery, and mounted games. Where else can you go for a long weekend at a beautiful site and have cookie tournaments AND jousting AND ride a wooden "horse" while loosing arrows at targets? We made many new friends - some from afar, and others simply local people We just never before had an opportunity to sit and chat with.

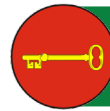

Two big highlights for the weekend were His Highness acquiring His Mounted Combat authorization and Her Highness having the pleasure of shooting Her bow in the Mounted Archery event from a live horse! Our daughter also participated in several equestrian events, her favorites being tippet tag and Daiku. If you have never watched these activities, know that they are not for the faint of heart, as they are very competitive and fast-paced. Thank you all for such a fun holiday weekend!

With warmest regards,

Kilian and Jalida

Prince and Princess of the Middle Kingdom

Seneschal

Greetings, Middle Kingdom,

It is time for the cooler weather and the beginning of a new season and a new reign. I would like to welcome Their Royal Majesties Kilian and Jalida!

The Seneschal's office has 4 openings. I have had many applicants for the Calendar Secretary but no applicants for the other offices. They have been recently posted to social media, so please let me know if you would like to apply:

- North Oaken Regional Seneschal
- Pentamere Regional Seneschal
- Kingdom Social Media Officer
- Calendar Secretary

If you are interested in learning more about any of these positions, please reach out to me or to the current officer.

We have had no feedback on the change of the Willow and Silver Oak from Orders to Awards so will proceed with this update.

There are new awards that are being considered and an update to a current award that we would like commentary on:

- Updating the Red Company to represent only leadership on the field.
- Creating a new, yet-to-be-named, award for leadership on the rapier field.
- Creating a new, yet-to-be-named, prowess award for armored combat similar to the Cavendish Knot for fencing.

We will be posting these to social media for your commentary, suggestions and feedback.

In service and friendship,

Duchess Arabella Silvermane, OP

Seneschal of the Middle Kingdom

Earl Marshal - Outgoing

Greetings,

My days as the Kingdom Earl Marshal are growing short. It has been a great honor to serve the kingdom. I am confident that my successor, Master Robert Thorne, will do an amazing job. Robert has already started working on plans for his tenure in the office. He is talented, capable, and caring.

I would not have been able to fill this role without the support of my wife, Duchess Vukasin. Without her love I would be lost.

My deputies have all done a stellar job, and if I have had any success with the office it is largely due to their hard work. I want to especially call out the Clerk of the Roster, Master Isabel Taylor. Isabel is the hardest working marshal of the Kingdom, her work is crucial to the smooth running of all martial activities in the kingdom.

One of the great joys of the office is getting to work with folk from other kingdoms. Sir Olaf Haraldson, the East Kingdom's Earl Marshal, has been amazing to work with and to build a friendship with.

Lastly I want to thank all of the marshals and martial activity participants. Your service and passion are inspiring.

Stay safe out there!

Cellach

Earl Marshal of the Middle Kingdom (Outgoing)

Earl Marshal - Incoming

Greetings,

As your incoming Earl Marshal, I would like to introduce myself to those who might not know me. I have been in the Society for 30 years, where I have spent most of that time focusing on archery and thrown weapons. Recently I've added rattan fighting, siege, and combat archery. I've even gotten on a horse! As you see, I dabble in a lot of different areas. The more you experience, the better resource you become.

Now the important official stuff. Firstly, I hope everyone had a fun and safe Pennsic; where friendships were forged and memories made. That being said, there is an overall need for more marshals to volunteer to help.

Whether it be taking a day off and helping on the battlefield or a shift or two during some down time at the archery or thrown weapons range we need your help. We love having fun doing all the martial activities, but we have to make sure we can do them safely.

Secondly, I want to give a huge thank you to his Grace Cellach for his hard work and service to the marshalling community and the Kingdom. His dedication has helped make everything safer and more user friendly (because we all love doing our reports now, right?..). I am honored to continue on in his footsteps, and look forward to serving as best as I can.

Play nice, stay safe,

H&E Robert Thorne, OP

Earl Marshal of the Middle Kingdom (Incoming)

Exchequer

Greetings, all,

We are still accepting applications for Pentamere Regional Exchequer.

My thanks to the hardy few who braved the weather and stopped by the exchequer meet-and-greet at Pennsic - at least it was dry under that tent :-)

For those groups who have a Quartermaster/ Property Steward/ Reeve or other title for a person managing their physical assets/regalia/inventory, I highly recommend that they be warranted as a group deputy exchequer. That person does not have to be a signatory on your bank account(s), however.

When you hold an event, are certain adults "comp'd", i.e., allowed in without paying site fee? Most groups comp Royalty, some groups comp certain event staff. If your group does do this, remember that a listing of who gets in free must be described in your Group Financial Policy.

May your books always be in balance.

In service,

Aidan Blackstone

Exchequer of the Middle Kingdom

Dragon Herald

Greetings, Midrealm.

As summer winds down, it is time for the Crown to change at Coronation followed by Their Fall Crown Tournament. Fall is also a time for some events to hold tournaments. It is at these tournaments and Crown Tournament where voice heralds can have an opportunity to practice their vocal skills. Consider talking to the event staff (event steward and/or marshal in charge) about heralding the lists, or doing the event crying for classes or important notifications.

Crown Tournament (Fall or Spring) is especially in need of heralds to call the combatants forward and into the lists. Heralds can also be "employed" to boast the combatant and consort. If interested in assisting at Crown Tournament, sign up on that day with the Meadows Herald located next to the list table.

Keep your voices strong and hydrated.

Kindest regards,

Baron Gilebert le braceur de Dijon
Dragon Herald

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Is it September already? Time flies! We have some exciting things happening in A&S this month. First up is the Tournament of the Arts, with 1-on-1 meetings with the Laurels. Next, Cynnabar is hosting St. Cecilia at the Tower, our premier period music event. Don't overlook Midlands Artisan's Day!

If you're in Constellation, there's Courtiers and Clowns. Pentamere joins in the crafting fun with Smiths Bakers Weavers and Wrights. And don't forget Fall RUM. Get those classes in!

As always, watch the Kingdom Calendar for the latest event updates.

Finally, the North Oaken Regional A&S Fair was so successful that your Regionals are working on bringing Regional Faires to the whole Kingdom! Watch your regional schedule for more information as it becomes available. Midrealm's artisans are second to none!

Keep amazing me!

Tommaso Franceschi, OL

Minister of Arts & Sciences of the Middle Kingdom

Chatelaine

Unto the Populace of the Middle Kingdom,

As we exit the summer months, some more crispy than others, it is now time to turn our sights to more peaceful times. With the cooler weather to come, please take the time to refresh yourself and look for ways to help our fair Kingdom grow. I put it in that order because you can't pour from an empty cup. All too often I have witnessed people serve to the point that they have nothing left to give. Involve our newcomers (youth included), but don't overwhelm them or stifle them. Yes, it is a fine line but one I know we can adjust to.

REPORTS: Remember, Chatelaines must report! Reports are due Feb 1, Apr 1, Aug 1, and Nov 1. We will do a better job in reminding you but it is your responsibility as an officer to report.

Lastly, keep a watch on the Kingdom Job Board as we will be posting positions there soon. The first position I am looking to fill is First Deputy Chatelaine. This position will work with me to make things run smoothly. Being the First Deputy Chatelaine is not a guarantee of being the next Kingdom Chatelaine, but it is an expanded view of the inner workings of the Kingdom.

In service,

Gregory Bryant, OP

Kingdom Chatelaine

Kingdom Historian

Happy Autumn, everyone,

First, I would like to thank everyone who took time to speak with me at Pennsic about the First Vigil, the creation of Red Company, and the creation of the Shire of Rivenvale. Specifically, thank you to Duke Laurelen Darksbane, Duke Talymar gan y Llwynn, Count William of Fairhaven, THL Rickard de Als, THL Genevieve de Saint-Malo, Baroness Aurelia Rosetti, and Master Dirk Edward of Frisia.

By the time you read this, several new articles should already be published, namely the 55th anniversary of the first Middle Kingdom Coronation, the 25th anniversary of the creation of the Award of the Sapphire, and 10th anniversary of the saving/repair to the Drachenstein crowns.

Please visit <https://history.midrealm.org/> to read those articles and more.

Kingdom Historian - Continued

The Barony of Flaming Gryphon's 45th anniversary is in October and I will be traveling to Harvest Days in order to speak with some good gentles on its formation and evolution over these last 4 1/2 decades.

My ongoing project behind the scenes is to catalog everything currently in the Kingdom Archive. This work is slower than one might expect because I am simultaneously going through each issue of The Pale and extracting officer lists and recording who held offices and when. It is true that MiddleWiki does this for Great Officers, for the most part, but there are many, many people who have served this Kingdom in other capacities. Therefore, I am recording every deputy mentioned in every issue of The Pale, including regional officers and those whose territories of service now lie in other Kingdoms. The spreadsheet I've created to track all of this information currently has 165 columns. Hopefully, this will give us a much more accurate picture of who has served this Kingdom and when.

In joyful service,

Forester Cadfan of the Autumn Wood
