Words from the Crown

Greetings to our glorious Atenveldt!

Thank you so much for the outpouring of support and love that we receive from all of you. Whether it's in the form of gifts or time or service, we appreciate each and every one of you!

May not only saw us crowned and hosting our tournaments for our champions, but it also saw us up in Granite Mountain for Polaris War. We gave out our first awards and had fun in the beautiful weather with both archery and hard suit. Let's continue to build each other up since we are stronger as one united, glorious Kingdom!

We look forward to July when we will be at An Tir/West War over the July 4th weekend. The last weekend in July brings the Mideast Feast, at which we hope everyone will be able to join us. We are planning to attend Pennsic War (our first time!) from August 1st on, and so we hope to see an amazing Atenveldt contingency at that great War!

Please continue to send us recommendations. That is the most fulfilling part of this job: seeing people's faces as they receive well-deserved and hard-earned rewards!

Check out our progress and pre-reg for all of your events that you can attend. We understand that real life comes first, but we would love to see your smiling faces at as many events as we all can get to.

"Stronger when we stand as one, Atenveldt!"

The Communications Officer will oversee communication strategy (including social media), official messaging, and content coordination across the Known World, helping ensure a clear, engaging, and inclusive voice for the Society.

Position Overview: The Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA), a nonprofit dedicated to researching and re-creating the arts, skills, and traditions of pre-17th-century history, is seeking a volunteer Communications Officer. This role will lead the development and delivery of engaging communications across our digital platforms, with a focus on celebrating the diversity of historical activities and communities within the SCA. You will oversee both social media and broader corporate communications to strengthen outreach, transparency, and member engagement. This office receives a small stipend in recognition of the time commitment.

The Communications Officer is warranted for a three-year term of service.

Copies of résumés (both professional and SCA related, including offices held and honors received) must be sent to resumes@sca.org and communications@sca.org. Applications should be received by 20 June 2025.

Applications Open-Officer of Inclusive Programs

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is pleased to announce that applications are now open for the Officer of Inclusive Programs. This role represents a vital opportunity for individuals who are passionate about cultivating a more welcoming, respectful, and inclusive environment within the SCA. We are seeking members who are committed to supporting diversity, fostering equitable participation, and helping to ensure that all members—regardless of background, identity, or experience—feel valued and empowered. If you are inspired to contribute to meaningful cultural growth within our Society, we invite you to apply and become part of this important effort.

Position Overview: The Officer of Inclusive Programs serves as a strategic leader within the SCA's Corporate Office, tasked with shaping and guiding diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging (DEIB) initiatives across the organization. This role plays a crucial part in developing inclusive policy, creating impactful training programs, and fostering a culture of belonging for all members and volunteers.

This is an ideal opportunity for someone passionate about advancing equity and accessibility within nonprofit or community-centered organizations. You'll work closely with the Board, Officers, and grassroots communities to promote systemic change and drive engagement across a wide spectrum of members.

The Officer of Inclusive Programs is warranted for a three-year term of service. Copies of résumés (both professional and SCA related, including offices held and honors received) must be sent to resumes@sca.org and equity@sca.org. Applications should be received by 21 June 2025.

Applications Open-Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging Officer

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is seeking applications for the position of Society Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) Officer. This essential role supports the SCA's ongoing commitment to fostering a respectful, inclusive, and welcoming environment for all participants.

The Society DEIB Officer will play a key role in providing consistency, guidance, and strategic support across the Known World. A major focus of this position is working closely with Kingdom DEIB officers—offering resources, mentorship, and a unified framework to help ensure that equity and inclusion efforts are sustainable and aligned throughout the Society. The successful candidate will be a collaborator and communicator, capable of supporting local efforts while advancing Society-wide goals.

Position Overview: The Society Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Officer is a key volunteer leadership role within the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. People on the Move – Director Elect Seat F

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce the selection of Keith Howard (Baron Hengist Hawardessune, KSCA) as the Director-Elect for Seat F. He will assume the position from Director KT "Shep" Sheppard at the close of the October 2025 quarterly meeting.

Keith Howard is an Elementary and Middle School teacher with Cincinnati Public Schools teaching Health and Technology; prior to that he was as an Executive Response Specialist with Avon Products, Incorporated. He lives in West Chester, Ohio with his amazing wife Tracy and their Irish Wolfhound Freki. When not at an SCA event, work, or professional development class, he enjoys playing Warhammer 40k, various RPGs and board games, traveling or attending Bengals football games.

Baron Hengist Hawardessune is a 6th-century Saxon living in England. He is a minor Thegn who has served his Crown and his Kingdom well and has been recognized many times, both on and off of the field of battle. Although he now prefers the peaceful life, he still leads the mighty warband of the Hwit Gar when his Crown calls upon him.

As new Directors are seated each April and October, candidates for the Board are continually being solicited. SCA Inc or affiliate individuals may be nominated by SCA members and participants or can be self-nominated. No special experience is required, and candidates do not need to have specialized modern degrees. They also need not be peers – experience from every aspect of the Society is desired.

To make a nomination, (or to nominate yourself), please forward a Modern Name, SCA Name, and email address to recruiting@sca.org

Letter from the Society President

A year has passed since I stepped up as President, and a lot has changed from when I started.

The Order of the Mark was created to recognize those that pursue mastery in ranged weapons. A Crown was chosen by rapier combat. Several administrative updates are occurring such as centralization of documentation, improvements in data management, and various process improvements. Communications have been more frequent internally within the Society and externally to the membership. There is more transparency from the Society by adding a Code of Conduct which lays the foundation to be able to cite sanction violations. The Society is moving towards more consistent rules, and accountability has been prioritized for the benefit of this game as well as the people that play it. The SCA has also reaffirmed commitment towards building an inclusive third space so that people can live history more safely. We have also launched an Official SCA Discord to bring the community together and to provide a platform for more avenues of engagement.

The SCA is the largest living history group in the world. A group built by amazing volunteers found at all levels of this organization. Due to recent expansion, there are more people involved on the Society level than there have ever been. We often view ourselves categorized in different groups based on region or role, but at the heart of it all, we are still a part of the same organization. Many of us love and are invested in the SCA even if we don't always agree with how to best move forward. To me, the SCA rises and falls together. As President, I strongly believe that a rising tide lifts all boats.

Going forward into my second year, we will continue to improve our financial positioning and continue the work on alleviating administrative burden on volunteers. The Corporation needs consistency, and this is balanced with the constraints of volunteers who have lives outside of the SCA. We will continue to work on ways to make the administration of the SCA more efficient.

We will also focus on completing the integration of DEIB into our organization. This begins with filling out the officer roles on the Society and Corporate level. Everyone deserves to be able to play the SCA as who they are, as long as they abide by our core values and rules. We will continue to make the SCA more accessible to people with different backgrounds and capabilities.

I am not a person that likes to settle for what is, instead, I look forward to what can be. Change takes time, but reflecting on the last year, change is happening. I am positively excited for the future of the SCA and what we are building together.

Bao Pham
President of SCA Inc.

This year we honor the changing of the seasons, celebrate the coming of fall, and commemorate our Barony's Birthday with a grand party befitting the Gods of Olympus. To greet the incoming autumn season, we are inspired by the Greek stories of Hades and Persephone who were the nobility of the underworld, of change, and of love against all odds.

As is traditional at our Anniversary, couples shall compete for the title of Nobility of Love in a series of challenges The Nobility of Love can be any two people who wish to celebrate and promote the virtues of courtly love: nobility, chivalry, and the courtly graces. Competitors should be prepared to show us that they are dedicated to bringing love, friendship, and fun to the Barony, as they compete in the 3 tasks set forth.

In addition to the Nobility of Love competition, everyone in the Barony is invited to participate and enjoy the events of the day: an artisans showcase, a table decorating contest, and a Greek themed potluck feast. Entrees will be provided by Their Excellencies and there will be a sign-up for additional dishes. Details of all these activities will be coming soon!!

Update on Background Checks

Who needs an SCA background check and why? How long is it valid? How do you apply for one? All those questions are answered below!

The KINGDOM Seneschal and ALL properly warranted Youth Officers (deputies who ultimately report up to the Kingdom Seneschal) must have a current SCA membership and an approved, current, and valid background check. "Warranted" is defined as having a signed warrant making the individual in question an official deputy to the Kingdom Youth Officer or the Kingdom Seneschal. Youth and Family Achievement (YAFA) administrators must likewise be warranted; they must also have passed a current SCA-approved background check.

All official or "published" SCA Youth Activities must have one background checked adult member who acts as the official "coordinator" for the SCA Youth Activity. For example, if there are 10 youth A&S classes each in their own separate classroom, each classroom needs to follow the "two-deep rule," but only one overall youth "coordinator" responsible for all activity in all classrooms is needed. There are many activities of the SCA where informal instruction (mentoring) occurs that are open to attendance by minors, but do not constitute dedicated and/or published SCA Youth Activities. They are known by many names (e.g., Practices, Meetings, and Guilds, and Workshops). A minor's attendance at an adult A&S class does not mean that class becomes an SCA Youth Activity simply because a youth is in attendance.

The "two-deep" rule specifies that for all SCA Youth Activities, a minimum of two adults (at or above the age of legal majority in the state, province or country in which the activity occurs) unrelated to one another by blood, marriage or personal relationship must be present. This policy does not relieve parents of their primary responsibility for the welfare and behavior of their children. One of these two adults may also be acting as the official coordinator for the Youth Activities going on.

The Kingdom of Atenveldt has chosen to follow this requirement without additional background check requirements for other positions outside of the Kingdom Seneschal and Youth Officers. The only exception to this practice is for groups who are very small or remote and have official youth activities that require an officer or member with a background check in order to have those activities.

Upon approval, background checks are valid for 2 years, or when the person's membership expires, whichever comes first. Keeping the background check valid requires the person's membership to be current. If the background check is needed longer than 2 years, the process will have to start again – the background check cannot be automatically "extended".

To request a background check, send an email with a copy of your current warrant that shows your legal name, membership number, and expiration date to the Kingdom of Atenveldt Deputy Seneschal for Background Checks at backgroundchecks@atenveldt.org. That will start the process for Atenveldt requesting a background check to the corporate office. Then the officer/requestor will receive an email from a third-party for additional information in order to run the background check. Results will be sent to the officer/member who requested the background check. This entire process could take several weeks.

Contact the Kingdom of Atenveldt Deputy Seneschal for Background Checks if you have questions about this process. at backgroundchecks@atenveldt.org.
