K NOW that the Crown of Lochac has Heirs to the Throne, they being Sir Aonghus and Baroness Ginevra, now styled Crown Prince and Princess of Lochac until Martinmas, when They shall assume the Crown. King Ratbot and Queen Katherine thank all those who did honour to the Kingdom by contesting the Crown Tournament just past, and all the many folk who worked in whatsoever way to support the Steward, the Honourable Maelgwn ap Merlin, in holding such a splendid event marked by much joy and celebration. ## Crown Tournament: A Commentator's View from the Field.

Call them forth on the field to fight..... Young squires, and old, tyro and knight
Hard yards they fight, to win the crown..Rallying themselves to dot it down
In maul and bout clash arm and blade.....Laud with full credit those who played Valour and might, a potent mix.....Although some fall beneath the sticks
A game of two halves for King & Queen..Vie chivalry and honour upon the green
Leading the front, the Prince is found.... It was he who charged to win the ground
Royalty beckons to go the distance..... Heroes set play in this instance Yet tackle foes howe'er they may..... Chivalry was the winner on the day.

Honoured mother. These are busy times – after the excitement of Crown Tournay in the lovely Shire of Adora, the K&Q are to attend Southron Gaard's Firey Knights Tournament to inspect flaming artillery. They will next come together at Mordenvale's Spring War at month's end and thereafter Her Majesty is to attend events in seven Baronies in October – what ever will she wear?? Your moth remedy did not work on the old wool gown. I beg you send me the black velvet Seymour over-dress/ t'is well out of fashion, but at least it is well garnished with pearls. On St Augustines Day, yr loving daughter, Jonet.

ADMIRAL'S LOG AS 58.9.

WANTED!

THIS LOCHAC, these scepter'd green Isles, these precious stones set in the silver sea are in need of fine wessels & healthy hearty sailors to see that the most perfidious Black Fleet & its scurvy piratical vermin are beaten into submission, and that in taking valuable prizes and holding worthy peers for ransom, such miscreants will pay dearly for their impertinence.

Of Writs, Letters of Marque & Talons: Master Hrolf Herjolfssen (Port of Ynys Fawr) has been granted the Freedom of the Southern Seas - no taxes! - to ensure the sea lanes to the Great White Southern Lands are kept open.

A Letter of Marque has been granted to Papi Rurik farskr, at anchor far to the north in the waters of Thursday Isle; Her Majesty has also offered one to Lord Imar Mac Mailcollum, of the company of Havelleon, a common visitor to the western shores.

The Crown is attaching talons to old Marques re: payment in the form of an Amicable Grant being a Free and Voluntary Present to the Crown of one-sixth the value of all Prizes taken.

Those now under the Talon of the Crown: the Company of the Red Griffin (Politarchopolis), the Mordenvale Company of Brewers (currently said to be lost in fog), and the Argent Rose (S'thron Gaard). Yevan de Leeds, master of the Dark Pegasus (Innilgard) is expected to be called to court shortly....

Grants and ships' taxes are being called in, and an accounting at an Admiralty Court is set to be held at Canterbury Faire next.

Rumours: The Black Fleet has been boarding or harassing ships in the sea lanes. The Baron of Stormhold announced in Ynys Fawr's Anniversary Court his intention to build a beach house (ie fort) on his high tide line to challenge that island barony's claims to the waters. The Queen intervened before fisticuffs could ensue to note that waters on/below the high tide lie in the jurisdiction of the Admiralty as the prerogative of the Crown. Tensions remain.

Quatre Ports Activity:

Curious vessels have sailed from the Quatre Ports (those baronies bearing ships in their heraldry)/ eg the Lillian Bone-aventure, carrying Her Majesty's envoy (Spot the cur), and Sir Ragnar's small but fierce metal Viking vessel. Crews are being pressed into service against the Black Fleet. His Majesty suffers badly from mal de mer, so Rat King (sub) took command of the Ratbot Grâce à Dom with a prize crew of doughty Adorans and fellow rodents drawn from across the Kingdom viz: the mighty Felt Fellowship from the Hamlet of Gildenwick, the shy Giant of Y Eylandt 't Rottenest Sir Edward Kew Okka and his St Basilean rat-at-arms (boom boom), an indentured servant to the jester Lady Rhianna verch y Koedwr, and a legion of flying rodents from the Ratfinder-General. The drop bear whereabouts is not known. We await news. Others of the Quatre Ports have risen to the challenge with various maritime offerings viz: a market wallet from Stormhold with the curious legend Oh Buoy feeling nauti; beautiful pewter castings and passimenterie of vessels under sail; and, of great interest to the Spy Master, the Baron of Ildhafn's fine depiction of a lymphad carved on a wood wax tablet cover suitable for the concealing of secret messages.

Notice Board

Greetings clever people,

Our current SCA Sanction Guide dates back to 2016. Many things have changed since then and it's time for a refresh. There is now a draft SCA Issue Resolution Policy and Procedures guide. This is a proposed policy to update the sanctions process, and make the process clearer and more transparent to those involved.

The draft policy is available at <https://sca.org.au/draft-sanctions-policy/> or at <https://sca.org.nz/files/docs/policy/SCA%20Issue%20Resolution%20Policy%20and%20Procedures%202023.pdf>

We would greatly appreciate your feedback on it. The Kingdom Seneschal will be collating the commentary and presenting to the two affiliate bodies. Please send your comments to Kingdom Seneschal at seneschal@lochac.sca.org before September 25th.

Yours in Service to Lochac
Gomez
Lochac Seneschal

Greetings All,

The SCANZ Committee has been working on an update to the SCANZ Financial Policy. The draft document is now available for review at <https://sca.org.nz/documents> (link under "Policies Under Consultation").

Please send any feedback to the SCANZ Committee at committee@sca.org.nz.

The consultation period on this policy will remain open until 30th September 2023, though we welcome feedback on any current policies at any time.

Kind regards,

Richard Goodwin
Chair, SCANZ Committee

The Crown of Lochac to all who see, hear or read this.

If the Crown is to pass the Kingdom needs groups willing to support Crown Event bids for our Crown Tournaments and Coronations.

Knowing where these events are to be held can affect whether people are able to enter; having clarity about Royal obligations makes for a better reign.

There are useful resources and experienced people willing and able to assist in bid development and event planning. A good place to start is the newly updated Crown Event Handbook and associated resources to be found here: <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/guides-and-resources/crown-events/>

And to squash some misconceptions - you do not need to be a Barony to bid for a Crown Event; the Kingdom takes none of the net income from a Crown Event (it all goes to the group); you do not need to provide accommodation; you do not need to use the same site throughout; the event does not need to be large/flamboyant/expensive.

We encourage groups to consider looking to the future, beyond the minimum timeline - start thinking now about 2024-2026, start talking to people in your local group and nearby, start gathering ideas and developing plans.

Your Crown needs you.

Greetings all,

We are now at that time where there is seat shuffling on SCANZ.

We would firstly like to thank Liz Brodie (Mistress Alyenora Brodier) for her three years service on SCANZ. Her wisdom and knowledge of the society have been invaluable and we have much appreciated her insight into the operations of the Society as a whole.

We welcome on board Jacqui Macgregor-Pahl (Lady Yolande of Southron Gaard) who is taking up the vacant space on the Committee. She will take over the role of Secretary as the newest member of SCANZ. This means that Richard Goodwin (Master Richard d'Allier) moves to Vice-Chair and Josie Welch (THL Joana de Bairros) is Chair.

Should you wish to contact the committee on any matter you can do so at committee@sca.org.nz

Greetings all!

After commentary, discussion and an incredibly hard choice between three excellent, capable and well-recommended candidates, I can announce that my successor as Crux Australis Principal Herald is Mistress Isabella de Bordeaux. She will step up and I will step down at September Crown Tournament. It was a very difficult decision, as TH Gwyn Cantor and Lady Merione French are both excellent heralds and would make brilliant Cruxes, and I will be encouraging them both to apply again in the future.

Yours with relief,
Annys Blodwell
Crux Australis Principal Herald, outgoing.

Greetings,

Master William de Cameron has served SCANZ admirably for many years both providing and supporting much of our website and other information systems. He has indicated a desire to pass on this role therefore the SCANZ Committee is seeking his replacement.

Master William has provided the following information:

Hello SCANZ members!

Our society relies on volunteers for everything that we do, and the role of SCANZ Web Admin might be the role for you :)

The SCANZ web admin is responsible for the sca.org.nz website, and helps the committee (when needed) with publishing agendas, minutes and reports. They also work closely with the masonry team (who run the underlying server infrastructure), and keep an eye on domain names and SSL certificates that are used for our web presence, but are not directly responsible for the server hardware or software upgrades.

SCANZ is fortunate enough to have many excellent group webministers who look after the individual group websites - in the highly unlikely event that a group can't find a replacement web minister, the SCANZ web admin may be called on to step in temporarily.

You don't have to be an experienced server admin, or an HTML expert to apply, but familiarity with Drupal (or a willingness to learn - it's what the sca.org.nz website uses) would be a big help.

The expectation is that this is a 2 year appointment, which may be extended at the discretion of the committee.

The SCANZ committee would like to whole-heartedly thank Master William for his dedication and generosity of service.

As part of the new web administrator's role the Committee would like to investigate additional opportunities for expanding our use of information to support our volunteers. There may also be opportunities to transition existing services onto more modern platforms.

We therefore welcome applications from anyone interested willing to step into this role and help to proactively guide and support the SCANZ Committee and keep the technology that helps knit everyone together and attract new members to us, running.

Kind regards,

Richard Goodwin
Chair, SCANZ Committee

16th of September: Tudor Event - An Evening of Intrigue, St Florian de la Rivière

Welcome to this splendid event set in England during 1531..As you enter the grand hall, you are greeted by the sight of beautiful banners, flickering torches, and a lively group of nobles, all dressed in their finest attire. You can hear the soft strains of a lute playing in the background, see a few nobles dancing and smell the aroma of sweet tarts and spiced wine wafting through the air.

The Baron and Baroness of the peaceful and mercantile Barony of St Florian de la Riviere, invited you personally to attend this special gathering, but you don't know why. Is there a secret plot brewing? A marriage proposal perhaps? Or simply an excuse to eat delicious pies?

Come, dance, eat, drink and solve the mystery as to why you were personally invited to this festive gathering.

18th of November: Sherwood Forest Feast, Ynys Fawr

They say that a man in green haunts the forests of Sherwood, with his band of merry men. Legend says he bestows gifts of gold and great food to those brave enough to enter the forest. He also, they say, enjoys spectacles and ballads. Will you be the next to test this legend and feast under the stars, with the canopy of leaves offering shelter?

There will be great tests of skill with the bow, a battle of wits through song and performances and the chance to find treasure hidden amongst the forest. At night, a grand feast of dishes worthy of not just an outlaw but a king will be served. An arts and sciences competition will also be held, with the themes of 1. Green, 2. Forest and 3. Treasure.
