Commentary Request—Governing Documents-Marshallate Content

The Board of Directors is requesting commentary on proposed changes to Governing Documents proposed by the Society Marshal. These proposed changes aim to update the Governing Documents related to the Marshallate. The authorities, roles, responsibilities, and functions of the Marshallate occur in several sections of the Governing documents, and have been added to or updated over the years. However, they do not fully reflect the breadth of current SCA martial activities and the evolution of our administrative and safety practices. These changes will (a) include all SCA martial disciplines, (b) incorporate the current and modern practices that have evolved over the years in our rules and the application thereof, and (c) ensure consistency throughout the several sections, while preserving the kingdom flexibility that enables the uniqueness of our kingdom cultures

Commentary Request—Rules of the List Update

The Board of Directors is requesting commentary on the changes to the Rules of the List proposed by the Society Marshal.

These proposed changes aim to update the Rules of the List to include all SCA martial disciplines, while preserving their intent. Explanatory information is outlined for each rule with the functional change and the reason for the change provided where appropriate.

The Rules of the List are a critical core of SCA culture, values, and behavior. However, as written, they are mostly limited to Armored Combat and Rapier, and create contradictions for the approved martial activities of Equestrian, Combat Archery, Siege, Thrown Weapons, and Target Archery. The proposed changes also include a reordering of the list, to start with general underlying principles and then proceed to specific applications.

Known World Cooks and Bards 2024: the Cooking Edition! Your most desired feast!

Have you ever had that idea for a dream dish or even an entire feast, but you know that the average SCAdian would not eat it or it is sadly out of the budget? Then this is the event for you! We are planning an event for you to come teach, cook, and share what makes your SCA cooks' heart sing! We designed an entirely new way of experiencing how to plan, prepare, teach, and share dishes at the Girl Scout Amahami Outdoor Center the weekend of August 30-September 2, 2024. This site features a main kitchen and three other smaller kitchens as well as several covered outdoor cooking facilities that are perfect for this innovative event idea.

This event is a fantastic opportunity to turn your dream feast and/or dish into an exciting new class! Let others learn about your reasons why, your methods, and your recreated recipes and techniques. We encourage teaching as part of your dish preparation and invite students to work beside you.

We asked have you ever:

- wished to make a dish using an uncommon ingredient? worked on a researched dish that was too expensive for a feast?
- wanted to cook it all over period heat sources? (Fire!)
- wanted to try cooking venison, rabbit, or fish but could not?
- done a deep dive into a culture or region and desired to present a complete meal they would have eaten?

Your concerns:

- Traveling with food from great distances.
- Cost of ingredients.
- Accommodations
- Only one feast/dinner.

Our solutions:

- Four (or more!) smaller feasts on Saturday.
- One Grand Feast on Sunday.
- This is a Girl Scout camp, so there are lodges, several cabins, platform tents, and tenting space available for you.
- You provide the menu so we can purchase your ingredients and have them on site for you!

The details:

You are welcome to teach a stand-alone class and/or a class featuring a dish that will be part of a larger menu. To submit a proposal, you will need to include:

1. Submit a class proposal for each dish and class. You choose whether the class will be part of any feast menu
2. Class Name and dish.
3. If part of a menu, each dish is to feed a table of 8 people (or provide samples for 24).
4. If providing a tasting dish, include a complete ingredients list (including the exact amount and/or count of each).
5. Any cooking supplies, tools, utensils, pots, and pans. Be specific (cast iron pots, knives, bowls, spoons, etc).

On Saturday, we are featuring a minimum of four smaller feasts in the kitchens and a few outdoor locations; each may be focused on a place, space, time, and/or culture. The numbers to feed are up to the lead cook for each menu and can be for as many as 32 diners.

For each kitchen and outdoor cooking area, the first person who contacts us with their proposal determines who will be the lead cook for each dinner.

For example, Person A proposes a 14th-century Andalusian dinner cooked over the fire and has the entire menu planned; this is how the procedure will happen:

The person submits a meal proposal form available on the website. It will need to include the following information:

1. Menu.
2. Number of people you want to feed.
3. Complete ingredients list (that includes the exact amount and/or count for each).
4. Cooking supplies, tools, and cooking needs such as cast iron pots, knives, bowls, spoons, etc. needed.
5. Indicate if your class will be part of a feast menu

On Sunday:

The Grand Feast!

This day will be dedicated to preparing various dishes, all to be shared in the Grand Feast as a showcase of teaching, learning, and camaraderie.

Teach a class on your dish. You are welcome to prepare the dish for the Grand Feast—OR—provide the recipe for someone on staff to prepare. The purpose is to showcase what our students learned. Pork pies? Sausages? Applemousse? Dim Sum? Curry? Pasta? Bread? You may cook, you may teach, or you can do both! Be fearless! Send us your ideas and we will help you make them come to life!

- We are looking for at least four (4) menus for Saturday evening feasts of 32-48 people (size is negotiable).
- Lunch menus for Saturday and Sunday for an estimated 100-150 people. This needs to be submitted as a meal proposal
- Dishes for our Grand Feast on Sunday.

Go to our website and select the “Volunteer” tab to volunteer to teach!
