“Scene from a Novella”
Liberale da Verona (Italian)

These companion panels are from the front of a chest (cassone) and show two episodes from an unidentified story, or novella. In one, a youth is smitten by a maiden who appears at a window and seems to gesture for him to join her inside. In the other, they engage in an erotically charged game of chess where she is about to lose. Both were common themes in the amatory literature of the Renaissance. The figures’ bleached blond, frizzy hair was the height of fashion in fifteenth-century Siena. Liberale was a brilliant illuminator and worked on choirbooks in Siena between 1467 and 1476. /www.metmuseum.org/

Words from the Officers

From the Office of the Seneschal:

Greetings to the Outstanding Populace of the Outlands!

The season of change is almost upon us where the Stags throne will change hands, ushering in a new Crown. While the King and Queen of the Outlands changes every six months, the Officer Corps remains steadfast serving for at least two years. Many officers are developing roadmaps to communicate to the populace their office's current and upcoming projects. I recommend taking a look at the Webminister's road map on the Outlands webpage.

Work continues in the seneschal's office with the Demo Handbook, Event Steward Handbook and the Outlands Addendum to the SCA, INC Seneschal's Handbook. If you have the skill set to volunteer for any one of these projects, we would welcome any and all assistance. One of the documents we have completed is the officer changeover graphic which is published in this edition of the Outlandish Herald. Much thanks to Lady Sharon of the Roses for her work on this project.

Recently the Crown tasked the Order of Defense with assisting the Seneschalette with finding any missing volunteer opportunities in the branch officer corp. This is a call for anyone with the knowledge, skills, and time to assist the MOD to organize their data. Please email the seneschal's office if you can help assist.

The Crown has tasked the Order of the Pelican with finding event sites. This is a call for help for a project manager who is willing to help guide the discussion on how we manage this data. If you have the knowledge, skills, and time please reach out to the seneschals office if you can assist in this mission.

I hope the kingdom is looking forward to the camping season. There are so many wonderful events being held this summer including Battlemoor with a special Coronation. Please do not forget to thank the Event Stewards for their hard work and willingness to create the organized chaos that gives so many of us joy. If you have time at an event, why not help out by making sure the trash is taken out or toilet paper is refilled. No job is too big when everyone helps out a little.

Remember to be kind,

Ays,e al-Rumiyya, OSO
Outlands Kingdom Seneschal

From the Desk of Hardwin Godricson, DEIB Officer:

Beloved Outlands,

Greetings to you all! I hope that spring has been good to you and yours. I've enjoyed watching the birds return from their winter journeys and nature begin to bloom (though my allergies have some issues with the latter!).

One of the greatest joys of these last two-ish years has been serving this kingdom as your Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging Officer. I have had the immense privilege to watch us all grow and change, and continue to be the best kingdom in the Known World. We have always been welcoming, but being able to further grow this aspect of our kingdom has been amazing.

I'm not sure I even have more adjectives to describe how proud I am of all of us. The support for this office as we navigate how to serve the populace of this kingdom and the Society has been immeasurable.

My tenure in this position is nearing completion. I will be stepping down from this office at October Crown in the barony of Caer Galen. As such, a replacement will be needed to continue the work we do and will continue to do. Myself and Her Excellency Ayse will be accepting Letters of Intent until September 1st, at dei@outlands.org and senchal@outlands.org.

Unsure what that letter should look like? Send me a message! No idea what exactly the office entails? Send me a message, or find me at an event. Even if you feel like you don't know what DEIB is, there are plenty of ways to learn and find out more. If you feel like you can help the Outlands continue to grow, then consider submitting a letter. You can also reach me at 575-312-683 (no texts or calls after 10pm) or on discord @deserttransman.

I'm sure I will have more to say as time goes on, but I want to once again thank all of you for your support and guidance, your ideas and comments, and your enthusiasm. I have been incredibly lucky.

Now, onto Battlemoor and Beyond! OUTLANDS!

With the utmost love and respect,

Hardwin Godricson

He/Them

Words from the Officers

From the Heralds:

Greetings, Outlanders, and a hearty congratulations to our new Dread Lord and Lady of all Argonia, Crown Prince Hawk Rill Hunnybun and Crown Princess Adrien de Calais.

As the celebrations of the heirs now turn to thoughts of the summer events, Grand Outlandish, Pickle Gulch, and Battlemoor... but Knowne World Heralds and Scribes Symposium looms large in our sights! Hosted in-person in the East Kingdom, at the (mundane) University of Pennsylvania, there is more information available at <https://www.kwhss2024.org/>

Finally, the matter comes again to my successor. I am four years into a two-year warrant, and while I am having a wonderful time serving the Kingdom and her Populace, I wish to ensure that I am not a permanent fixture in the office. While the ideal candidate is someone who has finished a term as a Baronial Pursuivant, the key in this job is not to be the one and only knowledgeable individual, but to cultivate a whole host of knowledgeable heralds to call upon when the time is right. Letters of intent should be addressed to myself and the Crown, and we are accepting letters to provide an onboarding period before a handover in early 2025. If you are at all interested in serving your kingdom at a high level, please reach out whit-estag@outlands.org

Finally, I would invite everyone to White Stag Office Hours, the second Tuesday of every month on Zoom; check the Discord and Facebook pages for the link and the announcements. This gives everyone an opportunity to see what the Kingdom level heralds do, and to ask questions.

I remain in service to the Crown of the Outlands
Aethelwulf
Munec

From the Youth Minister:

Unto all good gentles who read these words, I... Daveed Shmuel ben Rachon desires that this missive find you all in good spirits and healthy hearts as we prepare for the Outland's hosting the world at BATTLEMOOR.

At Battlemoor, I will be running all Page School activities. Attached to this missive is the current vision for the activities. I welcome comments and constructive suggestions. As this is a new format there will be kinks that have to be worked out. In going over the schedule if you have questions, constructive comments, or suggestions, please email me privately.

As all will see from the schedule plan there are rich opportunities for peers and the populace to help support this important and vital program within the Outlands. This can be done through spending a couple of hours visiting and talking with our pages. If we want to create a sustainable program for youth that will help train our future officers, peers, and royals then we all need to take a few moments to model what it means to live the Dream.

Some housekeeping elements need to be addressed at this time.

The Outlands Page School is planning on providing full-day programming.

- ◆ The program is being tailored for youth ages 6 to 15.
- ◆ Families with early learners are welcome to come and participate with the Page School, but the Page School will not provide custodial supervision of children under 6.
- ◆ That said, if a parent or adult sibling would provide that supervision then they would all be welcome to have fun and fully participate.
- ◆ Parents or adult siblings will need to sign the pages in and out. As we are in a remote site, I will be asking all Pages to commit to walking with others and not by themselves or with strangers. Getting older pagers to look out for the younger ones is good from them. It helps give them some ownership of the event for which they are contributing.
- ◆ As adult supervision is going to be necessary for this program to work, a parent or adult sibling will need to volunteer one, 3-hour shift for one child. Not daily, just once. For two or more children, a parent or adult sibling will be asked to work two, 3-hour shifts.

In creating the format for this year, I knew that I could be biting off more than I could chew. That's possible, but I want to prove that notion wrong. To do that I need help. If anyone wants to volunteer, please let me know.

One thing that is MANDATORY, a background check. To get a background check, send an email to Outlands Seneschal. Include your mundane name, membership number, and expiration date, I'm sure that more items will come up. The schedule is flexible. Depending upon any number of things, I plan to keep it flexible and adaptable throughout the event. I am hoping to have a session for all Kingdom groups to share their youth programs and ideas. They are welcome throughout Battlemoor. More details will follow soon.

If there are any questions, constructive comments, and/or suggestions please feel free to email me and I will be happy to assist.

Please excuse my ego when I say that this program is a passion for me. I desire to leave the Kingdom much richer than when I first came to al-Barran. In other words, this is a multi-year process that will require the participation and ideas of many people. I hope that many will come and spend some time with the Page School.

Until next we meet, l'hitraot...

Daveed Shmuel ben Rachon, KSCA, OL, Baron.
